THE DIRECTOR

SAC Sackett advised me this morning that he has found the New Haven Office to be in very bad condition. He states the administrative setup is terrible, that the clerical force has not been properly trained, that the spirit among the employees is not what it should be, that the monthly reports have been inaccurate, that 69 cases were closed during December and January which are still carried in a pending status, that the new men are getting all of the Sunday and week end duty, that a habit has developed in the office of referring to the new men as "Junior," that there is no suitable setup for distributing the work but the Agents are apparently routing leads among themselves, that Mr. McGuire and the Number One Man have been handling mostly administrative work, that McGuire impresses him as being very shallow and the only redeeming feature that he has been able to find so far is that he has indicated he has good contacts throughout the district.

Mr. Sackett is returning to New Haven after the Friday National Defense Conference and will be able to finish up there this week end. I told him to be sure to pin McGuire down specifically as to the reasons why he has not properly handled matters in New Haven.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

Mr. Tamm, Mr. Foxworth and I have discussed in detail the present assignment of Mr. Soucy at New York. As you know, he has been contacting business firms, etc., concerning intelligence matters and has been attending the Tuesday conferences with Mr. Astor, Major Sharp and Captain Phillips concerning foreign intelligence and contacts. His main purpose has been to avoid duplication of contacts with business concerns.

We recommend that Mr. Soucy be ordered back to Baltimore as Special Agent in Charge; that instructions be issued that Assistant Agent in Charge Guerin, of the New York City Division, be instructed to spend at least one half of each day at the special office at Rockefeller Center and that he perform the work previously assigned to Mr. Soucy.

I have told Mr. Madigan at Buffalo to remain there until further notice. Mr. Sackett is going to wind up his inspection at New Haven on Sunday afternoon. It is suggested that Mr. Madigan relieve McGuire as Special Agent in Charge at New Haven but that no orders be issued in this matter until Monday, when we get Mr. Sackett's final report. At that time we can also cancel McGuire's attendance at the forthcoming Agents in Charge conference.

JOHN J. McGUIRE, JR.

I am the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, United States Department of Justice.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation, United States Department of Justice, has been designated by the President to take charge of investigative work in matters relating to espionage, sabotage and violations of the neutrality regulations. This bureau is also charged with the duty of investigating other matters bearing upon the maintenance of the internal security of the United States. The duties thus imposed upon this Bureau constitute a vital function in the national defense program of this country. At the present time this Bureau is required by Act of Congress to expand its personnel in order effectively to discharge the important duties devolving upon it.

John J. McGuire is a trained special Agent and has been continuously employed by the Federal Bureau of Investigation since October 7, 1935. He cannot be replaced satisfactorily because of the shortage of persons with his qualifications and experience in such activity, and his removal for induction would cause material loss of effectiveness in the conduct of the national defense work of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Extreme difficulty is being experienced at present in obtaining a sufficient number of qualified applicants to take care of the increasing expansion of this Bureau and it is impossible to consider a replacement of any individual for this reason. Turnover of personnel is extremely detrimental to efficiency, as trained and experienced members of the staff, such as John J. McGuire, must form the nucleus of the expanded staff which this Bureau must recruit in order to fulfill its function, and therefore it is suggested that he be given Classification II-B.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

I conferred today with Special Agent John J. McGuire who has been acting in charge at New Haven. I went over in detail the inspection report submitted by Mr. Sackett concerning the New Haven office. Mr. McGuire admitted many of the delinquencies to which Mr. Sackett referred but with respect to others indicated that he had been aware of the delinquencies and was attempting to correct them.

I told him that in view of the situation reflected by the inspection report the Bureau felt that he had not handled the office satisfactorily and that he was being transferred to Detroit on general assignment.

I told Mr. McGuire that, of course, the Bureau had no criticism of his personal interest and enthusiasm but that it appeared from Mr. Sackett's report that he just did not organize himself and his work properly at the New Haven Field Division. I told Mr. McGuire that he would have every opportunity in the future to convince the Bureau of his ability to function as an executive and to further progress in the service.

Mr. McGuire thought that Mr. Sackett was rather "tough" in some of his statements concerning delinquencies in the office.

Special Agent in Charge
Cleveland, Ohio

Dear Sir:

It is desired that Special Agent John J. McGuire, Jr., be assigned to the duties of #1 man in your Division. In so assigning this Agent, this letter should not be construed as authorizing him to act in a supervisory or semi-supervisory capacity while you are at the office. In other words, his status as a Special Agent will in no manner be changed while you are functioning as Special Agent in Charge in the office.

The Bureau does desire, however, that in your absence Agent McGuire be given every possible opportunity to develop and manifest such supervisory or executive ability as he may possess. With this end in view, it is desired that you take such steps as may be necessary to see that he is acquainted with any and all administrative procedures, rules, regulations or instructions necessary in the supervision of a Bureau field office. He should also be advised by you as to the proper manner of conducting an office, more particularly the exercising of appropriate control over Bureau personnel. You should endeavor to ascertain any weaknesses in administrative functioning that he may manifest and instruct him in every possible way so that not only the work of the Cleveland office may be properly supervised in your absence, but Agent McGuire may develop any and all supervisory ability which he may possess.

The Bureau looks upon the position of #1 man in a field office as of very great importance in training Bureau supervisory and executive personnel, and desires your fullest cooperation along these lines.

Very truly yours,

JOHN J. McGUIRE

Special Agent In Charge

Entered on Duty:

October 7, 1935

Salary:

CAF-12, $4800

Office of Preference:

New Haven

Mr. Sackett:

Mr. McGUIRE is thirty-two years of age, married, served in various field division offices as an agent, was made Number One Man in Richmond, Virginia, in July, 1937, assigned to the Bureau as Supervisor from December, 1937, to December, 1939, in the Crime Records Division, and then served as Special Agent in Charge at Buffalo, New York, from December, 1939, to July 27, 1940, when he went to New Haven to open the office there. He attended a three-week administrative school in Washington in 1937 and served as resident agent at Roanoke, Virginia, immediately thereafter for three months.

He is not an impressive appearing individual but has a nice personality, is tactful, intelligent, has had a very good educational background and definitely has a mind of his own. I have never heard him speak but I should imagine he would make a good speech and I believe he makes a good impression upon people generally.

He does not have any sense of organization, is his principal weakness. He does not seem to possess the quality of "following through" on ideas and projects. He seems to worry quite a bit about details and overlooks the larger and more important phases of the work. His own time in the office is not planned or organized and while he puts in long hours and is conscientious, he does not seem to get much done. His detailed explanations for the delinquencies of his office are not logical and show that he is evasive and not very receptive to suggestions generally since in spite of the fact that proof was presented to him that the assignment of cases to agents was illogical, uneconomical and inefficient, he still insists that it is perfectly proper.

He did not display as frank an attitude as he might have in admitting his delinquencies and he had to be pinned down by much questioning specifically on various items as shown in the memoranda.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

RE: SAC JOHN J. McGUIRE, JR.

Mr. Sackett conducted a test check inspection of the New Haven Office during the period from July 12th to 15th and July 17th to 19th. He pointed out a number of things wrong in the New Haven Office which are being summarized below in very brief form. He recommended in view of the delinquencies found that SAC McGuire not be continued as Special Agent in Charge at this time. He stated he believed McGuire could operate well under close and well-directed supervision. He thought he might be considered for a Number One Man position in some office under a good Special Agent in Charge in order to receive thorough training in administrative duties.

RECORDED

Mr. Sackett listed the status of the office as follows:

Physical Condition and Maintenance of Office

Investigative operations of office

Administrative operation of office

Personnel supervision

Contacts

Good

Mr. Sackett reported three items in error with reference to firearms; several items in error in the inventory and one item of error with respect to equipment.

Too many cases were pending in the office which could be and should be closed. Certain National Defense matters had been opened without proper evaluation. Certain investigations on National Defense matters were being carried further than the preliminary stage in a large number of instances without justification.

A large number of cases were assigned to Agents which could be handled by the police.

Mr. Sackett reported that discretion was not used in assigning investigations of confidential informants to Agents.

Mr. Sackett stated that the Agent in Charge was not familiar with the developments of the most important espionage case pending in the territory, Count Anastasia A. Vonsiatsky, and had not given it his personal attention.

Mr. Sackett stated that 75% of the 114 National Motor Vehicle Theft Act cases assigned to Agents could and should be handled by the police.

Mr. Sackett made a test check of 75 files and found 19 of them had to be written up because of error.

Mr. Sackett stated the Agents' work has not been carefully supervised and directed.

Mr. Sackett stated Agents had assignments in various parts of the district without any organization or plan being apparent. He stated the work of the Agents outside Headquarters City had not been properly organized and had been conducted in an uneconomical and inefficient manner.

SAC McGuire had no written or definite plan of road work assigned but trusted to memory.

A large number of errors were found in the assignment card box.

Sixty-nine cases had actually been closed, some as far back as December, 1940, but the original assignment cards were never posted and were found pending on the day of the inspection, having been carried as pending on the monthly administrative reports over a period of months.

The night log was being carelessly kept.

A number of file folders were found to be old, dirty and torn.

The Special Agent in Charge and the Chief Clerk had an improper conception of what should be maintained as investigative exhibits.

Mr. Sackett stated that good discretion had not been used in considering confidential informants since many individuals were carried as confidential informants who should have been carried as sources of information. He stated if they had been so considered much investigative time would have been saved.

The Special Agent in Charge had no contact file or card box of personal contacts. He made up a list from memory of 27 contacts in New Haven, 4 in Hartford, 4 in Waterbury, 1 in Indianeck, 2 in Danbury, 2 in Ansonia, 1 in New London, 1 in Bristol and 1 in Providence. A number of these were personal friends.

The mail cover record cards had not been checked in a number of months and about two-thirds were found to be obsolete.

The tickler system was being handled in an unsatisfactory manner.

A number of improperly kept administrative files were found.

IOs and AOs were not being promptly mailed.

A large number of errors were found in the daily reports.

The statistical accomplishments of the office are very poor.

Mr. Sackett stated McGuire has been negligent in the proper training and instruction of new personnel. His excuse generally for not properly training his personnel was that there was insufficient time.

The new Agents in the office were being referred to by the older Agents as "Juniors."

Mr. Sackett stated an examination of the records fails to show that the older more experienced Agents had been given any Sunday office duty assignments since January 1, 1941, while the newer Agents had been so assigned. He found that the newer Agents were given the task of checking and cleaning the firearms, straightening out the vault, setting up the technical equipment, etc.

Mr. Sackett reported that a number of the newer Agents had spent an unnecessary amount of time in the office upon arrival before going on investigative assignments.

Mr. Sackett reported that the Number One Man, Special Agent Frank Whelan, in his opinion does not have sufficient executive or administrative ability and is not an effective Number One Man.

He stated the Chief Clerk needs a lot more training.

He stated that McGuire possesses a nice personality, is intelligent, has a good background, the employees seem to like him. He does not appear to possess much administrative ability, he does not have the faculty of being able to organize effectively. He does not follow through on accomplishments. His only excuse for the delinquencies was that he had never received any detailed training and instruction in running a Bureau office. He was previously Special Agent in Charge at Buffalo. Mr. Sackett stated McGuire has not developed the faculty of organizing his work and utilizing his time to the best advantage. He states that McGuire would operate effectively under direct and detailed supervision but he just does not seem to have the executive ability necessary to handle situations at this time.

A number of recommendations made by Mr. Sackett in this inspection require administrative attention. However, at this time the recommendation is made that Mr. McGuire be relieved of his duties as Special Agent in Charge upon the basis of Mr. Sackett's report, that he be demoted from CAF 12, $4800 to CAF 12, $4600 per annum, the top salary for a man on general assignment, that he be transferred from New Haven to Detroit (his offices of preference are New Haven and Washington, D. C.); that Mr. John T. Madigan, Acting Special Agent in Charge at Buffalo, who has been ordered to Baltimore, be instead ordered to New Haven as Acting Special Agent in Charge.

Memorandum for the Director

If you approve the above, there is attached hereto a telegram to McGuire instructing that he not report to Washington for the SAC Conference on Thursday, July 24th but that he report here on Wednesday morning of this week for a conference with me at which time I will go over the inspection report with him and advise him of his transfer to Detroit on general assignment.

A wire is also attached to Madigan advising of his transfer to New Haven and instructing that he secure the necessary charts from the New Haven Office for discussion at the SAC Conference on Thursday, July 24th when Madigan is scheduled to be here.

Dear Mr. McGuire:

The Office of the Administrative Assistant to the Attorney General has brought to my attention the fact that Government Transportation Requests have been used by you for travel as indicated in the enclosed letter from his office for which regular expense vouchers have not been submitted.

He has pointed out to this office that because of instances such as this there are over a thousand bills, submitted by common carriers throughout the country, being held in his office which he is unable to approve for payment in view of the fact that he has no official receipt indicating that the service was utilized by individuals such as yourself. You realize, of course, the seriousness of a situation such as this wherein the Department has all of these bills on hand for payment and is precluded from doing so until definite information is at hand that the service for which reimbursement has been claimed was in fact rendered.

I personally feel very strongly about this matter as I believe there is absolutely no excuse on your part for delaying payments of this kind by the procrastinating attitude that has been taken in the rendition of these expense accounts. I know that the transportation companies have been entirely cooperative with us on our transportation problems and the least we can do in return is to submit expense accounts as required by Bureau regulations so that the carriers can receive payment for the services they have rendered.

I must request therefore that you forward immediately such explanation or reason that you may have for the failure on your part in submitting these accounts prior to this time. It is needless to say that the appropriate voucher or vouchers must be forwarded at once.

Re: JOHN J. McGUIRE, Special Agent
Special Efficiency Rating

Dear Sir:

Submitted herewith is a special efficiency rating on Special Agent John J. McGuire who has been assigned to this division for a period of forty-five days.

I have been very pleased with the manner in which Agent McGuire readily acquainted himself with his duties as #1 Man in this office, and thereafter handled his administrative assignments in a prompt, efficient manner.

He exhibits considerable confidence, aggressiveness, and initiative. His appearance is good and he exhibits qualities of leadership. His advice to new agents is sound and given in such a manner that it is readily understood. He is enthusiastic and has made many good suggestions relative to the administration of this office. He performs a considerable amount of overtime and impresses me as being an enthusiastic supporter of the Bureau and the Director.

I have observed that he has writing ability and speaking ability and have no doubt that he is capable of making a very effective speech.

His firearms demeanor is very good and in my opinion he is entirely competent to afford firearms instruction. I believe that he is capable of leading raids and in otherwise engaging in assignments of danger.

He has not testified while in this division, but I am quite certain that he could testify clearly and effectively. I consider him to be a much better than average agent who has executive ability.

This rating has not been exhibited to Agent McGuire inasmuch as he is absent in Washington at the FBI NPA Retraining Session. Immediately upon his return same will be exhibited to him for initialing and the Bureau will be advised.

October 14, 1941

On October 10, 1941, I saw Special Agent John J. McGuire, presently assigned to the Cleveland Office, and who was attending the NPA Reunion. Mr. McGuire called to see me about his administration of the New Haven, Connecticut Field Division. He stated that while it was true that some phases of the work in Connecticut had not been handled in accordance with Bureau directions, there were other aspects of Mr. Sackett's report that were not accurate and which he was not accorded the opportunity of answering. I pointed out to him that of course the Inspectors are instructed to make all matters available to an SAC before reporting upon them, and if Mr. Sackett failed to do this, he was not carrying out the instructions of the Bureau.

Very truly yours

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. GLAVIN

Re: Special Agent John J. McGuire
Delinquent Expense Vouchers

In July and December, 1940 and January and February, 1941 Special Agent John J. McGuire issued Government Transportation Requests for certain travel. As no expense account had been received by the Department by May 7, 1941 indicating that this travel was made on official business, and as the Department was being billed by transportation companies for this travel, Agent McGuire was requested in a letter from the Department dated May 7, 1941 to explain why an expense account covering such travel had not been submitted, and particularly whether the travel was on official business. He was further advised that if the travel was personal in nature he should refund the value of the tickets so used to the Treasurer of the United States.

Agent John J. McGuire was advised by the Department under date of June 14, 1941 that no expense vouchers had been received covering the above mentioned travel and covering in addition further travel during this period to which their attention had been called by statements of various transportation companies.

By Bureau letter of July 23, 1941 Agent McGuire was advised that no expense accounts had yet been received by the Department and it was requested that his expeditious attention be given the matter.

Under date of September 15, 1941 the Department again notified Agent McGuire of his delinquency in submitting expense accounts covering travel on official business or in remitting the value of Government Transportation Requests used for personal business, listing GTRs numbering forty-five in all and covering the period from July, 1940 to June, 1941.

RECORDED

By letter from the Director dated September 24, 1941 Agent McGuire was advised of the seriousness with which his procrastinating attitude was regarded, since the cooperation of the transportation companies was essential and their accounts were being held up by his and others inaction. He was requested to forward immediately an explanation of his laxity in this matter and reminded to forward expense vouchers at once.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. GLAVIN -2-

November 10, 1941

Shortly before October 28, 1941 expense vouchers were received covering all travel in question except certain travel in April, May and June, 1941 for which GTRs numbering from J-34,712 to 718 were issued. On October 28, the Special Agent in Charge at Cleveland was requested to advise concerning the fact that expense accounts covering these GTRs had not been received by the Bureau. These accounts were received shortly thereafter.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

RE: The Conduct of Counselors and Graduates of the FBI National Police Academy.

The instructions to the counselors were scheduled to be given by the Committee on Registration of which Mr. Ladd is Chairman and Mr. Hince is a member of the Committee. The counselors and the Special Agents in Charge, who reported to this assignment, assembled in my office on Saturday morning, October 4. Mr. Hince issued detailed instructions as to their duties and responsibilities, the fact that they were not here to be entertained or to entertain each other but were to act as counselors for the Associates, to perform any needed duties as they saw them, that they were to behave themselves and abide by the rules of the Bureau. These detailed instructions were given over an extended period. I heard personally the early part of Mr. Hince's instructions and then departed for a new Agents' class before which the Director talked. On my return Mr. Hince had just completed with the group but in order to make certain that there was no misunderstanding as to their obligations, duties and requirements as to conduct, I instructed them in detail concerning these matters. This means that the instructions concerning conduct and their general duties were repeated. During the course of the instructions they were informed that the same rules as to intoxication applied during the Retraining School as they did during any other time. There was pointed out the necessity of preventing the graduates from engaging in activities which would reflect unfavorably on the Bureau. I specifically mentioned that there had been talk which I had overheard from graduates in the field about certain of the counselors winning in crap games and at gambling from the graduates. This had left a bad impression on me. Although there were no complaints made, this was a remembered highlight of former retraining schools that should be avoided. There were no specific instructions given that there should be no gambling, but they were informed that the graduates could not afford to lose and the Bureau personnel could not afford to lose and that they should make their conduct generally very circumspect and set an example by their conduct. I gave these instructions personally.

It is most unfortunate that some of our own people contributed to the conduct which has brought criticism. There must be no recurrence of it next time.

Upon learning today that a protest had been received from some woman in the Harrington Hotel about conduct in Rooms 517, 529 and 523 and of her threats as to future action, I immediately sent Special Agent McCabe to the Harrington Hotel with instructions to find out who occupied the rooms. Mr. Muzzey was later sent to inform these occupants that the Bureau could not afford to have a reputation of such actions which would form the basis of such a complaint and that they must not engage in such activities.

Mr. McCabe telephoned that Room 517 was occupied by William J. Raney, President of the FBI National Police Academy Associates for the year 1940-1941; that Room 529 was occupied by Captain James Berry Downs, NPA graduate from Yazoo City, Mississippi, and by Lieutenant Paul E. Dowis, NPA graduate from the Fulton County Police Department, Atlanta, Georgia; and that Room 523 was occupied by H. M. Adair, NPA graduate from Columbus, Georgia and Chief of Detectives there, and by Lieutenant Wilbur Perkerson of the LaGrange, Georgia, Police Department.

I later talked to Special Agent N. O. Scott. He informed me that on one night in one of the three rooms there was a party with some drinking and gambling which continued until about 2:15 a.m. He personally came up the elevator and went down the elevator while the party was in progress and they could not be heard down the hallway to any appreciable distance. Some one next door might have been able to hear them, but they were comparatively quiet and only one of the police officers had too much to drink and he was not particularly boisterous. He stated in one of the rooms mentioned there had been no assembly at all and the two officers in the room did not even drink. He stated on only one other night was there any late party and this late party lasted until about 1:00 o'clock when it broke up and on that occasion too there was no unusual boisterousness. It was something in the nature of a convention spirit, it is true, and some one real close by who wanted to go to sleep at a very early hour would have some just basis for complaint, but the picture was greatly exaggerated.

He stated that there was an old woman who lived on the same floor who had gone around the halls talking to the maids and housekeepers about a bunch of drunken bums being in the hotel. In fact, Inspector Raney heard her and went out of his room to ask her what her trouble was and she made very loud complaints and called him names until Raney, seeing she was cranky, told her, "I don't give a damn who you write a letter to." This was in response to her statement that she was going to send this letter which she showed but which was not read to the Department of Justice.

Scott stated that after the complaint was made by telephone about three of the members of the party went downstairs to the desk and stated that they had understood that there was too much noise and, if they had offended any of the guests, they would be glad to move out of the hotel. However, the clerk had intimated that the old woman was a cranky old woman and that there was no occasion at all for such a move. Scott admitted that he had been gambling. In fact, he had lost money and had borrowed some. I asked him if it was true that Raney was looking for him to collect. He said certainly not, that he had spent most of the time before he came to see me with Raney and that there was a satisfactory adjustment and no misunderstanding or ill feeling.

I have informed up to this time, 6:30 p.m., Special Agents Horgan, McGuire, Muzzey, Osborne, McCabe, Scott, Scheidt, Cassidy, Weinig, Hammack and Collier of the above situations and have instructed them particularly, specifically and especially that there is to be no more participation in any form of gambling by them during the NPA Reunion. I informed Scott and Muzzey particularly that if they could not avoid gambling games for the rest of the Session, they should get out of town until the session was over.

(Dictated October 11, 1941) Others were later contacted personally by telephone or were sent messages which were delivered. I am informed that the various hotels were "quiet as a mouse" Friday night. SAC Scheidt personally patrolled until early in the morning various floors occupied by NPA men at the Harrington and stated there was no objectionable conduct whatsoever.

At a later time Special Agent N. O. Scott informed me that one of the rooms designated by the woman who made the complaint was occupied by Officers Adair and Whitley of Columbus, Georgia, and neither one of them drinks at all and neither one of them gambles and no crowd ever assembled in their room. It was Whitley who went to the clerk of the hotel and offered to check out after the woman made the complaint, and the clerk of the hotel told Whitley that there was no objectionable conduct that the hotel knew of.

On Friday evening, October 10, Special Agent L. W. Bryan came to me and stated that he felt that he should report the fact that the gambling situation had reached an undesirable state and stated too many of the Bureau people as well as the NPA men were gambling. He understood that Agent N. O. Scott had lost $650 and had borrowed $200 from Raney, $40 from Hince, $50 from Sheriff Clayton from Arkansas, and that Raney and Clayton had been pressing him for payment. He advised that he was informed that Scott won quite a bit last year and some of the policemen had to wire home for money to pay off for which reason Scott was being pressed at this time. Bryan further advised that last year he believed it was Bureau employees and officials who took the initiative in the gambling activities, and he stated specifically and named them in this order to which there may be no significance that the following were the instigators of a great deal of gambling last year at the Reunion: N. O. Scott, Quinn Tamm, A. A. Muzzey and L. A. Hince.

10-11-41

On Saturday afternoon, October 11, I interviewed the Special Agents in Charge and counselors who were present and asked them specific questions which with their answers are listed below:

1. Did you personally participate in any gambling activities, including crap games, poker games or otherwise, during the current Reunion?

The following answers were received:

|--------------------------------|---|
| P. D. X Morgan: | No. |
| N. H. X McCabe: | No. |
| J. C. X Strickland: | No. |
| E. X Scheidt: | No. |
| W. A. X Collier: | No, and he saw no gambling. |
| L. W. X Bryan: | No. |
| J. S. X Bugas: | No. |
| D. X Brantley: | No. |
| E. E. X Conroy: | No. |
| E. C. X Weinig: | No. |
| J. C. Kennedy: | No. (He was at Edgewood Arsenal until Friday night.) |
| J. J. McGuire: | No. |
| L. O. Osborne: | He was present during a portion of one poker game and one crap game but was not a participant. |
| M. J. X Cassidy: | No. (He was too busy to get in any of the games.) |
| K. D. X Deaderick: | Yes. On two different nights he played poker for about two hours with a five and ten cent limit. He is not a poker player and he lost two or three dollars combined. No one on either night won or lost more than two or three dollars. |
| F. R. X Hammack: | Yes. He was in two dice games for about fifteen minutes each which he entered briefly while making a tour of the various hotels where graduates were living. He lost all told one dollar. |

10-11-41

- L. A. ~~X~~Hince: Yes. He won all told in the various games in which he participated about $15.00. The games had all been in progress when he entered them and, as he would make a tour of the rooms of various graduates, he would find crap games going on occasionally and he entered them temporarily and participated in several of them.
- R. G. ~~X~~Danner: Yes. He suffered no consequential loss and won no consequential amount. He did participate in some of the dice games.
- A. A. ~~X~~Muzzey: Yes. On three nights he shot craps with different groups of NPA graduates. He suffered no considerable loss and won no considerable amount, but he was slightly ahead.
- N. O. ~~X~~Scott: Yes. I asked him the amount of his loss and he said he did not know as he had spent some and had lost a great deal which would definitely be more than $200. I asked him if his loss would not amount to more than $600. He said he frankly did not know, that he had spent quite a bit of money and had lost quite a bit and the total loss at gambling he could not compute. He had borrowed some money and all of those from whom he had borrowed he had made arrangements with, and there is no antagonism toward him. He is taking a week's leave and will make arrangements to get the money and will pay off the indebtedness. I told him that it would be specifically and definitely necessary that he settle all of these debts. He stated that he would definitely do so.

2. Were you aware of any actions, activities, misconduct or anything else that would justify a recommendation that the Bureau not invite any of the graduates back to the next Retraining School?

Their answers were as follows:

- P. D. Horgan: No.
- N. H. McCabe: No.
- J. C. Strickland: No.
- E. Scheidt: No.
- M. J. Cassidy: No. This was the quietest and most orderly group that he has seen since attending Reunions.

10-11-41

- L. O. Osborne: No. There was some drinking, but he at no time saw an overindulgence on the part of anyone.
- J. J. McGuire: No. He had heard that Neil B. Keen of Tampa, Florida, had acted up at the banquet. He did not see it.
- J. C. Kennedy: No. He was at Edgewood Arsenal until Friday night. From what he could learn in conversing with his many acquaintances on Friday night and Saturday, it was the best Retraining Course, the best entertainment, the best spirit and the best conduct of any of the Reunions.
- E. C. Weinig: Paul E. Dowis from the Fulton County Police Department, Atlanta, Georgia, on Friday or Saturday night before the Retraining School began was seen by him on the floor of the hotel throwing cubes of sugar as if they were dice. One of the graduates took him away and talked with him and the rest of the time his conduct was O.K. He believes that Dowis should be permitted to come back because he listened to the advice and acted accordingly.
- E. E. Conroy: He knew nothing specific, but he does not like Raymond F. Latchford of the Philadelphia Police Department. Latchford acted smart and his conversation was not high class. He referred to one instance in Philadelphia where police had arrested some prominent person with prostitutes and stated the prominent person would not "come through with the green." Conroy also has heard the rumor that Latchford was a collector for the Mayor in Philadelphia and that he owns two apartment houses although he is but a Detective-Sergeant. Latchford kept repeating that he was the only booster the FBI had in the Philadelphia Police Department. He stated that there was a new Agent who came to the Philadelphia Police Department wearing a bow tie and abruptly told a Lieutenant he was with the FBI. Latchford did not like him but would not give his name and had not and would not report the matter to SAC Sears. Conroy knew nothing specific, but he believes Sears could find out something if he would try checking up on Latchford.
- D. Brantley: Chief W. W. Moseley of Lake Wales, Florida, and Lieutenant Carl E. Ashley of the Indianapolis, Indiana, Police Department, were in his opinion not the right kind of people even to associate with the police. They discussed

10-11-41

D. Brantley: vulgar subjects and their general demeanor was not what he thought it should have been. There was nothing more specific. He did not like either of them.

N. O. Scott: No.

A. A. Muzzey: Lieutenant Paul E. Dowis from the Fulton County Police Department, Atlanta, Georgia, told Muzzey personally that during one of the Retraining days he had been out with a married woman and her husband came home. There was a fight. The police came and raided the place, but he gave no details and mentioned no other facts. This was Dowis' story about himself. There has been no substantiation. He showed no signs of fighting. It was probable he was bragging.

He considers that Lieutenant Carl E. Ashley of the Indianapolis, Indiana, Police Department and Captain R. A. Thom of the Sandusky, Ohio, Police Department were merely "sots" on a lark.

Muzzey states he personally saw William J. Raney of the Memphis, Tennessee, Police Department, past President of the Associates, during a dice game in Raney's room, kick a five-dollar bill belonging to another graduate under the bed. The officer had dropped the five-dollar bill during the crap game and Raney's kicking it under the bed indicated quite clearly that he was stealing this money. Muzzey saw it personally.

R. G. Danner: Chief W. W. Moseley of Lake Wales, Florida, was about three-fourths drunk but not completely drunk most of the time. He found two men in Washington from Selma, Alabama, his former home, and introduced them into the crap games. He took them to the banquet. He took no notes during the discussion. He did not attend the business session. (Chief Moseley was appointed Sergeant-at-Arms and during the course of the instruction spent quite a bit of time answering the outside telephones and delivering messages, but he could have undoubtedly taken some notes and performed his duties as well.)

Neil B. Keen of Tampa, Florida, was guilty of excessive drinking. He attended the graduation exercises Saturday morning and after the graduation was seen by Danner staggering. He barely recognized Danner. He thinks Keen's superior, the Sheriff, should be informed.

- L. A. Hince: He also saw William J. Raney of the Memphis, Tennessee, Police Department kick the five-dollar bill under the bed and he considers that Raney stole this money.
- F. R. Hammack: He saw no bad conduct but there were some of the graduates who did drink too much. Paul E. Dowis of the Fulton County Police Department, Atlanta, Georgia, was one who drank too much but made no noise or disturbance and Hammack saw and talked with him and this improved his conduct thereafter.
- K. D. Deaderick: Chief W. W. Moseley of Lake Wales, Florida is a crap shooter and was very loud. There were some of the graduates who did drink too much.
- W. A. Collier: He ran into one group which drank a great deal. He stayed with them and saw that they stayed in the room. They were comparatively quiet. This was on an open night when no entertainment was scheduled. He recommended all nights be filled with entertainment in the future.
- L. W. Bryan: Neil B. Keen of Tampa, Florida, attended the graduation Saturday morning and was seen to be intoxicated after the graduation as he was leaving. There was some trouble with this individual last year and his superior should be informed. He believes that the lady in the Harrington Hotel had no real justifiable complaint to make from his inquiry.
- J. S. Bugas: Paul E. Dowis of the Fulton County Police Department, Atlanta, Georgia, was tipsy and was seen throwing cubes of sugar on the floor in the Harrington Hotel. NPA Graduate Welsh took him out, gave him dinner and Dowis was O.K. the rest of the Reunion.

Chief W. W. Moseley of Lake Wales, Florida, did not take notes. He was active as Sergeant-at-Arms, but was a total loss as far as official duties were concerned.

3. Do you know specifically any other facts or information which you believe should be called to the attention of the Bureau?

No other comments or facts were given in answer to this question. Practically all of them advised that the instruction and the entertainment was the best that it had ever been.

10-11-41

4. I was unable to get any confirmation whatsoever concerning the allegations that were made that Bureau employees took the initiative in starting gambling games and poker games last year. Those specifically accused advised as follows:

L. A. Hince:

This is definitely untrue last year and this year. Whenever he entered any of the games last year or this year, they were already in progress when he arrived and he does not believe that any Bureau people took the initiative last year or this year. He had never heard of such an allegation. He made the comment that numerous Bureau employees and officials last year had participated in the various games and several of them also had participated in them this year.

A. A. Muzzey:

He definitely did not start any of the crap or poker games or any other type of games. He took no initiative last year or this year of this type. He stated frankly that he very likely was a member of a party or a crowd that went to a room and while there a game started, but that it was not proper to say that he undertook to start the games, asked that they start, or that he took the initiative in any way. He stated frankly that he never played in any one game for more than an hour this year or last year.

N. O. Scott:

He definitely did participate in the games. He did not organize any of them. He did not stay at the Harrington Hotel where most of the games were held and where most of the graduates were located; but he was there, did participate, but in no instance this year or last year did he start the game. He stated that last year "every inspector and one assistant director" of the Bureau participated in the poker or crap games. He stated that this year he was asked by one Bureau official to start a dice game solely for amusement and entertainment purposes. He did not have to start them. They were already going. He stated he had attended the IACP convention and that the graduates' and Bureau employees' conduct, the amount of gambling and drinking was much less than at the IACP convention or other conventions of this type. He stated he did not want to mention the name of any Bureau official in connection with the above allegations.

10-11-41

Quinn Tamm:

Last year he was in the Harrington Hotel on one occasion and on that occasion he believes he took NPA Graduate Thalacker out of a game. He did not start any game at all. This year he did not participate in any game whatsoever. He did not see any game whatsoever. He knew of nothing that would justify a recommendation that a graduate not be invited to return to the next Reunion. He had heard the rumor about Dowis' alleged fight with some woman's husband, but Muzzey had given this information to him.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. TOLSON ✓

For record purposes, SAC J. J. McGuire in a conversation with me during his recent visit to Washington brought up the matter of Mr. Sackett's inspection of the New Haven Office. He stated that Sackett did not call a single item of criticism to his attention; that on the other hand Sackett indicated that everything was in fairly good shape; although Sackett did question certain matters he did not issue any instructions or tell him how to correct any of the delinquencies. Mr. McGuire further stated that he felt very keenly about Special Agent Whelan's demotion from #1 Man. He stated that Whelan is very solid, the police in Connecticut swear by him; that while Sackett criticized him for not taking action on matters coming across the desk; that he, McGuire, thought this unfair; that Whelan was acting under instructions as McGuire had instructed him to hold anything that he, McGuire, should know about and accordingly Whelan did this. Of course, he realized that the Bureau's action was predicated upon Sackett's inspection. He pointed out that Whelan was pretty much hurt over this although he was taking it like a good soldier.

I was impressed with McGuire's sincerity and the thought occurs that in due time it might be well to give Whelan another chance should a vacancy occur in New Haven.

Respectfully,

L. B. Nichols

Re: John J. McGuire

| Grade and Salary | CAF-12, $4600 |
| Age | 32 |
| Marital Status | Married |
| Present Assignment | Cleveland, Ohio as No. 1 Man |

This agent's services in the Bureau have been satisfactory, and for a period of approximately two years, he was assigned to the Crime Records Division in Washington, D. C. He is reported as having administrative and executive ability and in December of 1939, was designated as Special Agent in Charge at Buffalo, New York. In July of 1940, he was transferred to New Haven, Connecticut, as Special Agent in Charge and continued there until August of 1941, when, as a result of an inspection by former Special Agent in Charge Sackett, he was demoted and assigned to the Cleveland Field Division as No. 1 Man.

In July and December of 1940 and in January and February of 1941, Agent McGuire issued Government Transportation Requests for certain travel and never submitted expense accounts indicating that this travel was made on official business. It was necessary for the Department of Justice to contact McGuire on two occasions relative to this delinquency and for the Bureau also to contact him on two occasions relative to the matter. However, it was not until approximately October 28, 1941, when vouchers were received from McGuire covering this.

Mr. McGuire has been designated as Acting Special Agent in Charge of the Omaha Field Division and will report there in the immediate future.

Dear Sir:

I have had an opportunity of reviewing the facts concerning your delinquency in the submission of expense accounts.

I desire to advise you emphatically at this time that the Bureau will not tolerate such utter disregard of instructions on the part of its employees. In your case not only did the Department directly communicate with you on several occasions but the Bureau wrote to you concerning an expense account which was over one year delinquent. The expense accounts in question were not received until the Bureau had directly communicated with the Special Agent in Charge of the Cleveland Office concerning the matter.

I want you to definitely understand that should there be any repetition of such delinquency on your part it will be necessary for the Bureau to take drastic administrative action with respect to your status in the service.

SPECIAL EFFICIENCY RATING

Dear Sir:

Submitted herewith is a special efficiency rating on Special Agent in Charge John J. McGuire, who was transferred from this office to the Omaha field division.

Since my rating of October 9, 1941, Mr. McGuire's duties were performed in a highly satisfactory manner. I considered him to be a very good #1 Man, as he was well versed in administrative matters and was capable of discussing investigative problems with younger agents. I felt that he gave sound advice to those who consulted with him.

I considered Mr. McGuire to be very capable in all respects and feel that he has executive ability.

Dear Mr. McGuire:

There is transmitted herewith a copy of a communication dated November 26, 1941 addressed to you from the Administrative Assistant to the Attorney General, requesting that an expense voucher covering the use of Government Transportation Requests in July, 1941 be forwarded to that office immediately.

In view of the instructions contained in Bureau Bulletin #55, dated October 29, 1941, I am frankly at a loss to understand why an account covering this travel has not been previously forwarded as requested by Bureau Regulations.

You should immediately prepare and forward to the Bureau any explanation you might have for your delinquency in this matter. In view of the recent tremendous growth in the personnel of the Bureau it can readily be seen that if the same attitude were taken by all agents as has been taken in this instance by you, it would be impossible for the Bureau to maintain an accurate record of the current expenses occasioned by the travel and other expenditures of the field personnel.

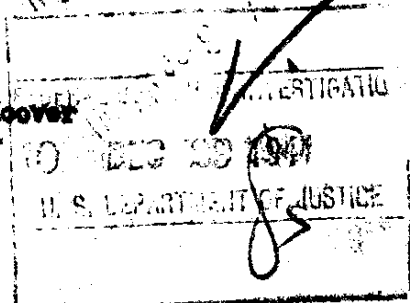

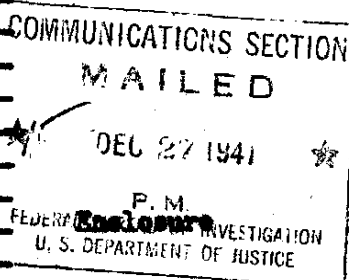

This is a matter that must be given close attention by all Special Agents in Charge to determine that all agents under their jurisdiction are complying with Bureau Regulations as to the submission of these accounts. However, if you personally are disregarding Bureau Regulations in this matter it is difficult to understand how you can honestly enforce this rule in so far as agents under you are concerned.

The expense account covering this travel should be forwarded by you to reach the Bureau no later than January 2, 1942.

THE DIRECTOR

I would like to recommend that Mr. Hendon be detailed to my office to assist in the handling of many matters which come to my desk from the various divisions at the Seat of Government.

EL 12 1942

I desire to further recommend that Special Agent in Charge J. J. McGuire, Jr., presently at Omaha, Nebraska, be transferred to the Seat of Government, to be placed in charge of the Crime Records Section in the position now held by Mr. Hendon.

Mr. McGuire entered the Bureau in 1935. He has served in various capacities, such as Resident Agent, Number One Man, was for a time assigned to the Crime Records Section at the Seat of Government, subsequently served as Agent in Charge at Buffalo and New Haven, and Number One Man at Cleveland. His present salary is CAF 12, $4600 per annum. I consider Mr. McGuire well qualified for the assignment recommended for him. In this connection I note that you saw this employee on October 10, 1941, and that you indicated Mr. McGuire's attitude concerning the loss of the New Haven Agency in charge was very good, that you were particularly impressed with the manner in which he accepted his demotion and you thought he should be kept in mind for advancement in the future as you thought he had definite possibilities.

I would like further to recommend that Special Agent M. B. Rhodes, presently Number One Man at Kansas City, be designated Acting Special Agent in Charge of the Omaha Field Division.

fact he states that his experience and knowledge of that particular part of the country has made him one of the most invaluable Number One Men to serve as such in his tenure of office at Kansas City. He states Rhodes gets along well with investigative personnel, handles problems satisfactorily, gets the work out and there is no let down in production under his supervision.

You talked to Mr. Rhodes in Washington on November 28, 1941. You stated you believed he had materially improved in recent years, that he can now be classed in the excellent category, both as to attitude, experience and maturity. You stated you believed he very definitely has possibilities for handling executive work and you thought he might be well considered for advancement along this line for vacancies which might occur. Mr. Rhodes is presently in Grade CAF 12, $4800 per annum. He is a legal resident of Kansas City and his office of preference is Kansas City. He originally came from Washington County, Missouri.

Mr. McGuire was assigned to head the Crime Records Section on February 16, 1942, after having served as Special Agent in Omaha for an extended period of time. Mr. McGuire was previously assigned in the Crime Records Section for approximately two years.

He is well-grounded in Bureau policy. He has developed considerably since his last period of assignment. His judgment is sound; he is loyal without exception; he puts in long hours and he has given a very satisfactory account of himself since his recent assignment. I have every confidence that Mr. McGuire will continue to grow and develop in the Bureau's service, and that with his extensive background of the Bureau, there is no reason why his services should not be above average in performance.

I think the Director will be interested in the following paragraph contained in a personal letter directed to the writer by Miss Theresa M. Harrington, stenographic employee of the Omaha Field Division, whom you will recall has been in the Bureau a good many years.

"The Director's talk on the radio sponsored by the Fourth Degree, K. of C. was very much enjoyed by all of us at home that evening. I noticed it in the local Catholic newspaper so spread the word at the office. Knowing your friendship with Mr. Matthews we all were doubly interested." (Reference is made to Francis P. Matthews, Supreme Knight of the K. of C.) "It was a grand talk--the consensus of all who heard it."

RECOMMENDATION: A note for the Director's signature is attached addressed to Miss Harrington and it is recommended that it go forth.

Dear Sir:

I have been advised that you signed the report prepared by Special Agent Henry D. Staten fired six shots in the air just to make the subject behave himself at the time he was taken into custody. Copies of this report were designated for the United States Attorneys at Cleveland and Buffalo.

I want you to know that your carelessness in reviewing this report might have resulted in considerable embarrassment for the Bureau. I was very much displeased with the manner in which you reviewed this case, and it will be essential that you exercise more care in reviewing matters coming to your attention.

REMARKS: Interviewing Official - Mr. Clegg

This employee has unbounded enthusiasm. He gives the impression of being energetic and constantly on the alert. He has above average intelligence, and I believe he has executive ability. Although giving the impression of being somewhat frail in physique, he appears to be physically capable.

Mr. McGuire felt that the In-Service School that he attended was properly organized and he had no suggestions for any changes in the subject matter except that he did feel that the conferences lasting two days of Special Agents in Charge were of greater significance to the SACs than their 10 days' attendance at the In-Service School. This was to be expected because the two-day conferences only hit the high spots and at the same time dealt specifically with SAC problems while the In-Service Schools deal with the problems of all the Agents of the office. This was explained to Mr. McGuire.

Very truly yours,

H. H. Clegg

Dear Sir:

RE: U.S. ATTORNEYS CONFERENCE, CHICAGO

Session for afternoon of June 11, 1942

94-1-1077
MR. LUNNIS continued his discussion after the noon recess. A great deal of time was wasted in discussing the proposition of travel authorization for enemy aliens. No conclusions were reached. At least half the conference session this afternoon was devoted to that subject.

There seemed to be a disposition on the part of the U.S. Attorneys not to consider the Hungarians, Bulgarians and Rumanians as alien enemies. U.S. Attorney Lehr, Detroit, stated that they were considered patriotic in his section. Although they are enemies, they did not seem to feel that they had enough assistance to handle any more alien enemies than they now have.

Mr. Lunnis concluded about 3.45 P.M. His assistant remained to answer questions for a few minutes and upon his conclusion, in the absence of Mr. Doyle, Chairman, Mr. Quinn and Mr. Rowe, the conference decided to adjourn, which it did.

U.S. Attorney Diamond, Northern Iowa, complimented the work of Mr. J. J. McGuire and SAC Stein, and considered them both very capable men. U.S. Attorney Anderson of Minnesota spoke kindly of the assistance of Stein and all the agents in the St. Paul office. U.S. Attorney Deeb, Northern Michigan, advised that SAC McFarlin was doing a good job and was working very hard, and there was a young fellow in the office named Murphy who was almost frail enough for the wind to blow him away, but was very efficient and doing a marvelous job. U.S. Attorney Votava of Nebraska advised that SAC Stein was a mighty valuable man. U.S. Attorney Doyle of Wisconsin stated that all the Agents were rendering valuable, capable services in his division.

Respectfully,

H. H. CLEGG,

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, Director,

Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Pressure of work, both in the office and within the defense activities of my Post prevented me from writing sooner.

On behalf of my comrades and in the name of the Post, I wish to thank you for your kindness in making it possible for our membership and for the Veterans at Mt. Alto Hospital to hear Mr. McGuire and to see the film "Men of the F.B.I. 1941."

Mr. McGuire's talk on both occasions was very much appreciated and applauded. I am convinced that his remarks fell upon fertile soil and that they have done a great deal of good. May I ask you to also convey to him the thanks of the Post?

As the youngest Post in the Department, we have, by hard work and strict observance of the duties of citizens and Legionnaires, been able to gain the very top within the Department. We hope to stay there. For this reason, the installation of the officers which we will elect (and install) in September has an added significance. It will be a very impressive public ceremony at Central High School.

If it would be possible for you to be the principal speaker on that September evening, we would be eternally grateful. In these serious times, the public needs to be constantly reminded that the shoulders of every man, woman and youngster must be put to the wheel in order to achieve the ultimate victory. I sincerely believe that you are more than qualified to press home such a message. Could we count on you?

EX-15

Thanking you again, I am,

most sincerely yours,

Frederick F. Fletcher,
Adjutant.

I would like to recommend that Mr. J. J. McGuire be re-allocated to Grade 13, salary $5600.

McGuire was placed in charge of Crime Records on February 16, 1942, upon the assignment of Mr. Hendon to your office. During this period his work has been very satisfactory. He is enthusiastic, thorough, loyal, and is working for the best interest of the Bureau at all times. He has good judgment, puts in considerable overtime, and I have considerable confidence in Mr. McGuire. His background in the Bureau's service has been good. You will recall that McGuire was removed as SAC at New Haven following Mr. Sackett's inspection on August 4, 1941. I think it is now agreed that Sackett was more than unfair in his recommendations. Effective August 16, 1941, McGuire was demoted from $4800 to $4600. His services have been satisfactory. I think that he can be regarded as a young man in our service who has considerable possibilities for the future.

With reference to Mr. Clegg's memorandum regarding Mr. McGuire's attendance of In-Service Training School from June 22, 1942, to July 3, 1942, he pointed out that McGuire has unbounded enthusiasm and gives the impression of being energetic and constantly on the alert, has above average intelligence, and has administrative ability. Although Mr. Clegg had the impression that McGuire gives the impression of being somewhat frail in physique, he appears to be physically capable.

REMARKS

Since entering on duty this employee has served in Los Angeles, Washington Field Office; as resident agent at Roanoke; number one man at Richmond; Research Division, Seat of Government; SAC at Buffalo and New Haven; number one man at Cleveland; acting SAC at Omaha; Chief of Crime Records, Seat of Government, and is presently Inspector in Division Two, Seat of Government. A review of his file reflects that in his earlier years his work was entirely satisfactory. He made a good impression, a good appearance; had good judgment and plenty of energy; had administrative and executive ability and would make an excellent supervisor. He was quiet; appeared to be unassuming; needed a little more self-reliance and aggressiveness; was not recommended as a contact man for national law enforcement conventions. This employee was commended by the Director several times for his work.

By letter dated 2/6/40 this agent was censured for his failure to complete the Bureau's accounting course by December 31, 1939. On 12/16/40 Inspector Sackett by memorandum recommended that this agent be demoted as Agent in Charge and suspended for his failure to properly notify the Bureau of the conduct of another Agent in Charge at a police convention.

During an inspection of the New Haven Office in July 1941 Inspector Sackett said he was not an impressive appearing individual but had a nice personality, was tactful, intelligent, and it was believed he made a good impression upon peace officers generally. Sackett said he did not have any sense of organization, which was his principal weakness; did not seem to possess the quality of "following through" on ideas and practices; seemed to worry quite a bit about details and overlooks the larger and more important phases of the work. His own time in the office is not planned or organized and while he put in long hours and was conscientious, he did not seem to get much done. Mr. Sackett said his detailed explanations for the delinquencies of his office were not logical and showed that he was evasive and not very receptive to suggestions generally since in spite of the fact that proof was presented to him that the assignment of cases to agents was illogical, uneconomical and inefficient, he still insisted that it was perfectly proper. Mr. Sackett recommended his removal as an SAC and thought he might be considered for a Number One Man position under a good SAC in order to receive thorough training in administrative duties. He was transferred to the Cleveland Office as Number One Man and demoted from CAF-12, $4800 to CAF-12 $4600.

By letters dated 9-24-41 and 11-21-41 this agent was censured for his procrastinating in submitting expense vouchers.

On 10-9-41 SAC Boardman said he exhibited considerable confidence, aggressiveness, and initiative, exhibited qualities of leadership, was enthusiastic and made many good suggestions relative to the administration of the office; was capable of making a very effective speech, and handled his administrative assignments in a prompt, efficient manner. He was entirely competent to handle firearms instruction.

In a memorandum dated 10-14-41, The Director said this agent's attitude was very good, that he was particularly impressed by the manner in which he had taken his demotion, and it was believed he might be kept in mind for advancement sometime in the future as it was believed he had definite possibilities.

On 10-31-41 Mr. Nichols stated that during a conversation with this agent the matter of Mr. Sackett's inspection of the New Haven Office was brought up and this agent stated that Mr. Sackett did not call a single item of criticism to his attention and indicated that everything was in fairly good shape, and although Mr. Sackett did question certain matters, he did not issue any instructions or tell him how to correct any of the delinquencies. Mr. Nichols said he was impressed with this agent's sincerity.

By letter dated 4-3-42 he was censured for signing a report while Number One Man at Cleveland prepared by SA Henry B. Welch in connection with the case entitled Fred Lee Barnwell, alias Fred Barnwell; Slim; NMVTA, which report contained the statement that another agent fired six shots in the air to make the subject behave.

On 11-25-41 SAC Boardman said he had performed his duties as Number One Man in a highly satisfactory manner, was well versed in administrative matters, was capable of discussing investigative problems with younger agents and he considered him very capable in all respects and felt he had executive ability.

On 11-16-41 he was designated Acting SAC at Omaha, Nebraska. On 1-19-42 Mr. Tolson, in a memorandum to the Director, stated he considered this agent well qualified for the assignment held by Mr. Hendon and recommended that he be placed in charge of the Crime Records Section. On 2-16-42 he was assigned as Chief of Crime Records, Seat of Government. In a memorandum dated 4-16-42 Mr. Nichols said this agent was well-grounded in Bureau policy, had developed considerably, was loyal without exception, put in long hours, and it was believed that he would continue to grow and develop in the Bureau.

On 3-31-42 Mr. Nichols rated him as EXCELLENT. During In-Service Training from 6-22 to 7-3-42, Mr. Clegg said he had unbounded enthusiasm, gave the impression of being energetic and constantly on the alert, was above average intelligence, had executive ability, and appeared to be physically capable, although frail in physique.

On 7-29-42 Mr. Nichols said his work had been very satisfactory, that he had good judgment, put in considerable overtime, could be regarded as a young man who had considerable possibilities for the future, and he appeared to be physically capable.

On 8-16-42 he was designated as Inspector in Division Two, Seat of Government.

He is a qualified firearms instructor; has been commended for various speeches he has delivered in and around Washington; and was also commended for his radio broadcast.

RECOMMENDATION: This brief was prepared at your request for your information and possible action.

MR. TOLSON

In view of the recommended transfer of Special Agent J. B. Minor to the New York SIS Office, I wish to make the following recommendations:

1. I recommend that Mr. McGuire be brought up to my office as the Number 1 Man of Division 4. Mr. McGuire has wide experience in the Bureau, is thoroughly loyal, industrious, and hard-working.

John J. Starke
Assigned Assistant SAC, Richmond
CAF 12 - $4,600
EOD 7/25/38
Marital Status - Married

I recommend that Special Agent John J. Starke be transferred to Washington from Richmond and placed in charge of the Crime Records Section. Agent Starke entered the Bureau's service on July 25, 1938, and was assigned to the Crime Records Section from January 25, 1940, to October 10, 1942. He has an excellent record. SAC Bobbitt stated he has shown his administrative ability and gave him an excellent rating. Inspector Hince rated his qualifications as very good but did point out he was a little rusty on investigative procedure since he had been assigned to the Crime Records Section for a considerable period. Starke has definite creative ability, makes a good speech, is thoroughly loyal, and enthusiastic. I am confident that he can handle the Crime Records Section in a satisfactory manner.

To take Starke's place, I recommend that Special Agent Mr. Wahab be designated as the Number 1 Man of the Richmond Office. Mr. Wahab has a very good record in the Bureau. He has administrative ability. He does need investigative experience which he could acquire in connection with this assignment.

I have gone over these matters with Mr. Glavin who concurs.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. TOLSON

There is attached hereto a summary memorandum prepared by Mr. J. J. McGuire together with the first of the memorandum requested by the Director last September.

The memorandum prepared by Mr. McGuire's office deals with the educational work of the Bureau, the building up of cooperative effort of citizens and civic organizations, discouragement of vigilance and attacking the rumor problem.

A perusal of the memorandum is somewhat astounding since it does portray the magnitude of our efforts. I think that Mr. Kennelly, the supervisor in Mr. McGuire's office who prepared this memorandum, did an excellent job, and I of course know that Mr. McGuire spent considerable time counseling Mr. Kennelly.

I wanted you to know that I think Mr. McGuire has done a particularly good job in the Crime Records Section. He is enthusiastic, has the Bureau's interests at heart, is very tenacious in seeing that everything possible is done that can be done.

Certainly the material covered in this memorandum is a rather important part of our program during the war.

Respectfully,

L. B. Nichols

This is a fine piece of work & both McGuire & Kennelly are to be commended.

My dear Mr. Hoover:

At the last meeting of the Board of Directors of the Flatbush Boys' Club it was unanimously voted by those present that we express to you our deep appreciation for your kindness in having Inspector McGuire address our Thirty-Ninth Annual Dinner.

We enjoyed the remarks of Mr. McGuire and feel that what he said on that occasion made a deep impression on the number of persons present and that as a result the Boys' club movements in Brooklyn will profit greatly.

Again may I say to you Many Thanks both for the Club and for myself personally.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. McGuire:

The Bureau is in receipt of the report of the physical examination afforded you at the United States Naval Hospital, Bethesda, Maryland, on August 6, 1943.

This report reflects that you are 7 pounds underweight.

The Board of Examining Physicians recommends vaccination for smallpox, inoculation for tetanus and inoculation for typhoid.

It reports that you are capable of strenuous physical exertion and have no physical defects that would interfere with your participation in raids or other work involving the practical use of firearms.

You are advised that in order to meet the Bureau's weight standards for a man of your age and height, it will be necessary for you to increase your weight in the amount of 7 pounds in the next six months' period. At the expiration of that time an additional examination will be afforded you.

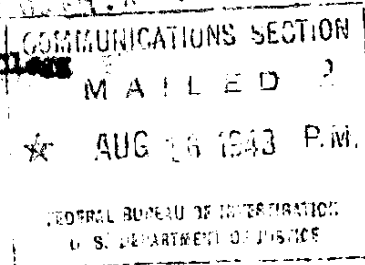

For your information, it was determined during this examination that your blood is International Type "A".

Sincerely yours,

John Edgar Hoover

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. TOLSON

RE: J. J. McGuire

Mr. McGuire was designated to address the Baltimore Council of the Knights of Columbus on the evening of September 1st. The invitation was extended by Mr. Nottingham of the House Military Affairs Committee.

Mr. Nottingham called me after Mr. McGuire's address to express his appreciation. He stated that McGuire had given one of the best talks that they had ever had at one of their Council meetings, that everybody was thoroughly pleased with Mr. McGuire and that he, Mr. Nottingham, felt that Mr. McGuire had one of the finest commands of the English language of any man he has heard speak. He has had several telephone calls from members of the Knights of Columbus expressing their appreciation to him and commending Mr. McGuire.

Mr. McGuire, of course, does make an excellent speech. He is enthusiastic, thoroughly loyal, and I would expect such a report from Mr. Nottingham following any appearance that Mr. McGuire made.

Respectfully,

L. B. Nichols

MR. TOLSON

Re: Press Release

Charles Robert Lorne Fisk McIntosh

McIntosh was apprehended in New York City at 1:30 this morning at the Biltmore Hotel, accompanied by Mrs. Alice DeTarnowsky. Complaints have been filed against him in Chicago and Buffalo charging violation of the National Stolen Property Act and violation of the White Slave Traffic Act in Buffalo. He has been going around the country with Mrs. DeTarnowsky since the middle of July, cashing fraudulent checks. She is a very prominent Chicago woman and there has been a lot of publicity on this in the papers. His activities centered from Kansas through Illinois, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Indiana, Ohio, Massachusetts and New York City. Obviously here was good subject matter for a press release out of Washington.

The press release was prepared and delivered to Malcolmson's office at 1:35 p.m. It was given out at 1:48 and Donegan was advised in New York by Mr. McGuire at 1:50 p.m. today that the Bureau had given out the press release. The following is a chronological development of the steps in Washington leading up to giving out the release:

Early this morning Supervisor M. H. Horton of Division Six at Mr. Rosen's request contacted Supervisor Kennelly in the Crime Records Section regarding putting out a release. Horton had told the New York office that they should not issue a press release until they received word that the Bureau's release was prepared and had gone out. The release was prepared by Mr. Kennelly and sent to my office. I read it and suggested the addition of a paragraph to make the story more complete. I told McGuire to handle it, as I was then late for an appointment with Earl Godwin. I met Mr. Rosen in the hallway. He mentioned the release as one possessing excellent possibilities. I told him that it had not gone out as yet, that I had thought an additional paragraph should be added. He was on his way to lunch, and I told him to drop in to see McGuire. Mr. Ladd and I also talked in the corridor about the possibility of working Mrs. DeTarnowsky into it. Mr. Rosen felt that consideration could very well be given to having her held as a material witness. Accordingly Mr. Rosen called at Mr. McGuire's office and from that office called Mr. Donegan suggesting consideration be given to making Mrs. DeTarnowsky a material witness and having her available in the Commissioner's office at the hearing.

Mr. Rosen advised Mr. Donegan our release was being prepared and that Mr. Donegan would be informed as soon as it was cleared. Prior to this Mr. Horton advised the New York Office that a release would be made from Washington, that the New York office should take no action along that line unless they received further instructions from the Bureau. Mr. McGuire was not familiar with this instruction given by Horton. Accordingly, as soon as the release was sent to the Department and given out, McGuire called Donegan and told him the Department had the release and it was being put out on the wire then and was all clear in Washington. Donegan stated, "Okay, I will tell Crowl." That terminated the conversation and Mr. McGuire assumed that Mr. Donegan would know the reason he had called was to give him clearance in making a local release in New York and the only purpose of McGuire's call was to advise the New York Office the Bureau release had gone out and as a signal to go ahead with their own story. McGuire did not in a detailed manner tell Donegan to go ahead and make a local release. However, when he called Drayton a few moments later he did tell Drayton to go ahead on a local release, assuming that this had already been understood by the New York office.

Mr. McGuire tells me that in checking with Mr. Horton, Horton, in talking with Mr. Emrich in the New York office this morning, stated that Emrich thought it ought to make a good story and Mr. Horton specifically instructed him not to make a release until the Bureau had gotten up its release and cleared it. Mr. Emrich asked Mr. Horton that the New York office be advised when the Bureau release went out and Mr. Horton assumed the only reason in the world for passing this on would be for the New York office to make a release. This, of course, is confirmed by Mr. Horton's conversation with Mr. Kennelly and Mr. Kennelly's conversation with Mr. McGuire.

At 3:45 SAC Conroy called me from New York and stated that he was in a terrible jam, that he was pretty much upset over the McIntosh release, that George O'Brien of the Associated Press, William Farrell of the New York Times, and Walter Arn of the New York Herald-Tribune had called upon him. George O'Brien was spokesman and specifically told Mr. Conroy he did not want him to speak off the record but wanted him to speak on the record. They asked details about the McIntosh case. Mr. Conroy stated he followed Bureau instructions implicitly and told them there was nothing he could give out on this case and everything would have to come out of Washington. They asked several questions and O'Brien was vigorous in protesting the fact that a case breaking in New York had to come out of Washington. The conversation terminated by O'Brien making a statement to the effect that they realized the Director liked publicity and that he would get some publicity he wouldn't like, that they did not believe the Director was responsible for this personally but it was probably the responsibility of his "God-damned press agent." Conroy stated that the group left him at 3:30 p.m.

I frankly was stunned at this, as I had assumed that the New York office would make a release as soon as the Bureau had made its release. I checked with Mr. McGuire and pointed out to Mr. Conroy that Mr. McGuire had called Mr. Donegan and advised that a release had been cleared in Washington and that, since the New York office had been told by Mr. Horton they were not to do anything until instructed, they had interpreted this to mean that no release was to be given out in New York.

Mr. Conroy then read to me a memorandum from Mr. Emrich covering his conversation with Mr. Horton, from which I am quoting only pertinent portions: "Mr. Horton advised he would take this up with Mr. Rosen to see if the Bureau still desired to make the press release and if not, if any release should be made by this office. Subsequently, Mr. Horton called the writer and advised the Bureau was contemplating making a release in the matter and requested additional details be furnished him. . . ."

"Mr. Horton advised that according to Mr. Rosen a release would be made from Washington, D. C., and that we should take no action along that line unless we received further instructions from the Bureau." *

Conroy told me that McIntosh had not as yet been arraigned and indicated that he was stumped, that he had been afraid that the relationship with the press in New York might become strained, that O'Brien, Farrell, and Arn were definitely mad, that he didn't know what to do. He stated that "We were just following Bureau instructions implicitly." I pointed out to Mr. Conroy that obviously Mr. McGuire should have been specific, that it was our intention that a simultaneous press release should be made in New York and this has been a practice and in only one instance have we made a release in Washington and not made a release in New York, and that was in the Grace Buchanan-Dineen case., that despite all this, when they began to get inquiries in the New York office, if there was any question, Mr. Conroy should have called back to check on this matter. Mr. Conroy stated he was merely following instructions. I told him that even so when there is any question the Bureau wanted the advantage of his judgment and observations, and that certainly when he got word that a delegation of newspaper men was calling on him he should have advised the Bureau immediately. I told him that, of course, we had to do something immediately, that he knew the men up there better than we did. I asked him what his views were. He stated he did not feel it would look very well now after he had said he couldn't give out anything to go back and see them. I told him frankly I saw no objection to immediately contacting them and telling them frankly that had been some misunderstanding and the Bureau had never intended at any time that the New York office should not furnish local angles to the New York newspapers. Mr. Conroy impressed me

*Mr. Horton, on the contrary, states that he did not leave the impression that New York was not to make a release but that any instructions with reference to the release was to be handled by my office. His memorandum is attached.

as being reluctant to contact the reporters. I pointed out to him that McIntosh of course had not as yet been arraigned and he pointed out they were waiting for some details from Chicago for the complaint. I told him I could see no objection to this whatsoever and that I felt he should immediately go ahead and contact these reporters, because certainly no harm could come of this. In the meantime I conferred with Mr. Ladd who agreed we should try to do something in New York to counteract this erroneous impression. I called Conroy and so did Mr. Ladd. Mr. Conroy stated he would endeavor to contact the people immediately. I told him to try to figure out some additional angles which could be covered.

Later Conroy called back and stated he had gotten ahold of the three individuals above mentioned and in addition Norma Abrams had come in. He stated everything had been straightened out, that the newspaper men were all happy. He had frankly told them there had been a misunderstanding and that he was ready to have them open up on him. They all agreed that they understood the situation. They then went into considerable discussion and they agreed that there were certain types of releases that should obviously be made at Washington, dealing with cases of nationwide interest, and all that they asked for was to be given a fair deal. Conroy told them that of course was the Bureau's desire. They then stated this wasn't the first time such an incident had occurred. Conroy stated that since they were all together he would be glad to hear any complaints they had to make and they made the following complaints on the following cases:

1) They referred to the case of Ernest Frederick Lehmitz. When the press release was made June 29, 1943, that release had come out of Washington at approximately 10:20 a.m. The New York office did not make the release until 11 o'clock. I told Conroy that this was not a valid complaint on the part of the New York papers, because the New York papers carried a complete story on the matter and the Bureau's release was merely an announcement, that this is proven by the fact that the story was attributed to Mr. Conroy all over the country, that he gave out all the colorful items in the case, that it was all carried out of New York under a New York dateline.

2) They referred to the arrest of Bertrand Hoffman in the Grace Buchanan-Dineen case, wherein the release came out of Washington. The release, of course, was made in Washington. However, at 2:08 a.m. on the evening prior to making the release, I sent a teletype marked attention of Donegan with the following statement: "Following statement to be issued 9 a.m. Tuesday after- advice from Detroit and New York that arrests made. Statement is for your information and background and should be cleared with the Bureau prior to making any statements." We furnished the entire release to New York so that they would have very definitely all the background. We did not say they couldn't give out a release, we merely told them to clear with the Bureau prior to making any statements. I furthermore told Conroy that in this particular case it was one which broke in Detroit, was of nationwide interest, and all New York did was make one arrest and even then the arrest was not made when it should have been made, because Hoffman was not on the boat where he should have been. Nevertheless Conroy stated the newspapermen felt that they should have had the benefit of the local angles. There is no reason in this particular case. The Attorney General specifically issued instructions that the first announcement was to come out of Washington and I went into this in detail with Mr. Donegan at the time.

3) The McIntosh case, discussion of which has already appeared.

4) The newspaper men pointed out that until recently they had gotten the weekly summary put out by the New York office on the arrests of enemy aliens and selective service cases for the preceding week. Conroy told the newspapermen this was a fact, that he, Conroy, felt it was becoming a routine affair and they were not putting out the summary only once a month.

5) Stephen Weinberg. This is the case wherein Weinberg was involved in instructing potential inductees on how to evade the draft. This individual was an old-time offender of the Bureau's and obviously this was a case of nationwide interest in view of its colorful angles. However, we furnished New York with a copy of our press release and the New York office was authorized to give out a release in New York. However, we got our story on the wires first.

6) Roberto Lanas Vallecilla. In this case the newspapermen thought the New York office should have made an announcement. As it was, they were called to the office after the Bureau had given out an announcement here and after it had already been on the wires. This, of course, is the case. The action was all in Washington. We furnished a copy of our release to the New York office, told them they could give it out if they desired after we, of course, had made the first statement on the case. I told Conroy that the newspapermen's argument on this case was not valid, that Lanas was arrested in Washington, that he worked down here, that if the case was to be given local preference it was in Washington, despite the fact that Lanas would be prosecuted in New York, which was the scene of his espionage activities prior to the outbreak of war.

7) The newspapermen stated that they had noticed a tendency for more releases to be given out in Washington here of late and they referred to a Newark release which they thought did not justify being given out from Washington. In this particular case, Windsor Davies was arrested on a charge of illegally wearing the uniform and the release was given out August 23. He was arrested by the Newark office. It is true that his activities were restricted to Newark, however, the case was highly colorful, inasmuch as he had boasted of having shot down 27 German planes, had invested a bogus commission on a young girl he was going with in the Army Intelligence Service, and purchased for her a uniform similar to that worn by an Army nurse. He presented her with a code book and made her a member of a supposititious secret organization known as the "Mysterious 13," and gave the girl an assignment investigating a family living in New Jersey. This particular case got a good play. Mr. Conroy felt that this was not a case of national interest and stated that the newspapermen felt that minor cases should not be broken out of Washington.

B) Beoff Brown case. They referred to the indictments given in New York of various hoodlums in Chicago. This is the case where the Department gave out the story prematurely and Frank Netti committed suicide. Conroy said it was given out by the Department, and Norma Abrams spoke up and stated it was given out by Pat Coreia. It was at this point the delegation began to calm down and began to pass the blame on to the Department.

CONCLUSIONS: The handling of the McIntosh press release was bad both in New York and in Washington. McGuire should have been specific, although I am frank to point out he had every right to assume the New York office knew why he was calling to advise the release had been given out in Washington.

Two, I think the New York office was derelict in idly sitting by when they began to get inquiries and that the least Conroy could have done was to have called back to verify the fact that the Bureau did not want him to give out any information on this case.

Three, I do think that the field does not like our new policy and we must be doubly certain here in Washington when we want to get a national release with the initial announcement out of Washington that there is an absolute understanding as to just what is to be done both here in Washington and in the field. To this end, I have gone over this matter clearly with all my supervisors. I do not think there was any misunderstanding and there certainly is not any now, and there will be no further assumptions made along this line.

Respectfully,

L. R. Nichols

SPECIAL AGENTS

This position has been designated as a key position by the Review Committee of the War Manpower Commission.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation has been designated as the sole civilian government investigative agency having jurisdiction over the investigation of matters pertaining to national defense such as espionage, sabotage, registration of agents of foreign principals, sedition, treason, and the like, and further, the Federal Bureau of Investigation has sole investigative jurisdiction in a great number of other Federal statutes which embrace bank robbery, kidnaping, extortion, white slave traffic, National Motor Vehicle Theft Act, and numerous others. The investigative work in connection with the above violations is performed by the Special Agent personnel of this Bureau, who are recruited from applicants between the ages of twenty-three and forty. They must be graduates of a law school or an accounting school with the necessary accounting experience, or graduates of a university with extensive investigative experience, or with linguistic qualifications, or have basic educational training and possess satisfactory prior law enforcement experience which will enable them to satisfactorily perform the duties imposed upon them. For certain of the scientific investigative work, Special Agents are secured who primarily are qualified in the sciences, such as ballistics, chemical analysis, spectography, cryptography, mineralogy, metallography, toxicology, and other like sciences. Applicants for appointment to the position of Special Agent must meet the physical standards and requirements for this position, which are exceedingly high. They must have vision of no less than 20/40 in one eye, 20/50 uncorrected, both eyes to be corrected to 20/20. They must have no color deficiency whatever.

Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation undergo a rigorous training program. All newly appointed Special Agents in the Federal Bureau of Investigation attend training classes for a period of sixteen weeks; the hours of training are from 9:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. daily, which course of study is equivalent to two full years of college study. During this period of training, they are thoroughly instructed in the basic rules and regulations and jurisdictions of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. They must satisfactorily pass numerous written examinations during their period of training. If a trainee fails to pass any of these examinations, he is dropped from the school.

The duties of a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation are most arduous. They must be available at a moment's notice to go to any part of the United States or to any assignment outside the United States. The hours of duty for these employees are such that they must be in excellent physical health. The average work week for a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation is no less than seventy hours. The work of a Special Agent, regardless of his particular qualification, is such that he cannot lead a sedentary or well regulated life. Due to the small number of Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation presently handling the work under the jurisdiction of the Federal Bureau of Investigation within and without the continental United States, it is necessary that the entire staff be highly mobile.

Special Agents are required to be able to conduct investigations in more than 100 types of cases, including espionage, sabotage, subversive activities, frauds against the government, kidnaping, extortion, bank robbery, White Slave Traffic Act, etc. They are trained in and required to maintain constant skill in the use of highly technical equipment, technical processes, such as those necessary for the development of latent fingerprints, concealed or obliterated numbers upon firearms, to understand the use of code messages, to conduct physical surveillances of subjects of espionage and similar cases, sometimes for periods of many months, and when necessary, to assume a necessary character to enable them to fit in an undercover capacity into the activities and operations of groups such as foreign agents, who are engaged in thwarting the war effort.

The arduousness and importance of the work of Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation was readily recognized by the military and naval leaders. The Chief of the Bureau of Navigation, for the Secretary of the Navy, requested Special Agent employees of the Federal Bureau of Investigation to submit their resignations from reserve commissions held by them in the naval services because it had been determined that those Special Agents could better serve their country in their present assignments than if they were to be called into active naval service. The Secretary of War, in 1942, addressed personal communications to 168 Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation who at that time held reserve commissions in the Army. The Secretary of War at that time advised the Special Agents that their employment in the FBI is of such vital importance to the national defense as to necessitate their remaining at their posts of duty despite the fact that they held reserve commissions in the United States Army, and the request was made that these Agents, through the proper channels, submit their resignations from their commissions.

General Lewis B. Hershey of the Selective Service System pointed out in his Directive to all Local Boards of December 29, 1941, that Special Agent positions of the FBI were most important and essential to the national health, safety, and interests, and that the national defense functions of the FBI should not be impaired by the removal of trained personnel from critical positions in the Bureau.

The position of Special Agent has always been considered the most critical of all positions in the FBI, since, with the tremendous bulk of work placed upon us due to the war emergency, it is essential that a trained qualified staff be available for the handling of this work. If the Federal Bureau of Investigation cannot continue to retain its personnel in this critical position, aid and comfort would most certainly be given to the enemy and others whose interests are inimical to the best interests of the country today. Up to the present time the full complement of Special Agent personnel has not been secured and every effort is being made to secure the necessary additional Special Agent personnel.

I, J. Edgar Hoover, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I am the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and that the foregoing statements are true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

My dear Mr. McGuire:-

It is not possible for me to express my thanks to you sufficiently for all you help and kindness. I appreciate it all very, very much.

I am so glad to know Mr. Hoover has a such a fine and helpful assistant; I am sure he appreciates your fine work for him, and enjoys his trust in you.

It is a real pleasure to have met you and have enjoyed you calls and hope they will continue. You have been wonderful in all you have done for me, and shall never forget your patient explanations. I wish I had studied law, were it not so near the time for me to go to another world I should start at once to work on that great science. I think every one should take a course in it, or read it every day of his life.

Thank you many times and I hope it will be possible to stop in and see me. I should love to meet your wife and baby.

Best wishes and please overlook all faults, this moisture is not a help in letter writing. I never remember any summer with the humidity of the past two months.

Dear Sir:

For inclusion in the fund to be paid to the widow or designated beneficiary of any Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, United States Department of Justice, who had contributed to this fund subsequent to April 15, 1944, and who dies from any cause except self-destruction while employed as a Special Agent, I am forwarding herewith (by ~~CHECK~~ - MONEY ORDER) the sum of ten dollars ($10.00), made payable to the Chief Clerk of said Bureau, to be included in said fund. Payment will be made for death by self-destruction after the Agent has been a member of the fund for two years. It is understood and agreed that the sum tendered herewith is a voluntary, gratuitous contribution to said fund, which I understand is to be administered in the following manner:

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

In response to your memorandum of January 11 instructing that the names be submitted of Special Agents assigned to Division Four who possess the qualifications which would permit their being trained as future Special Agents in Charge, I wish to advise as follows:

(1) J. J. Starke, EOD 7/25/38, CAF 12 - $4600, assigned Chief of Crime Records Section. Mr. Starke has had good field training, has served in the Crime Records Section for approximately three years, and has functioned as Assistant Special Agent in Charge at Richmond for approximately six months. Starke has a good personality, is well grounded in Bureau policy and is thoroughly loyal, industrious and is a growing man. I would recommend him now for appointment as Special Agent in Charge of a moderate size office.

(2) Pierre A. Larmoyeux, EOD 10/13/33, clerk Jacksonville Office; EOD 10/19/36 as Special Agent, CAF 12 - $4600, assigned Chief Communications Section. Mr. Larmoyeux has had exceptionally good training. He was former Chief Clerk in the Jacksonville Office and was Number One man of the Atlanta Office for approximately a year. Larmoyeux makes a very good appearance. He is quiet, but I consider him a capable administrator. At the present time I think that his responsibilities in connection with the radio operations exceed those of the Special Agent in Charge of the smaller offices. He has definite possibilities for future development.

(3) John E. Greene, EOD 5/1/39, CAF 12 - $4600, assigned Crime Records Section. Mr. Greene has a good personality, handles himself well, is industrious and hard-working and has good judgment. He is thoroughly loyal. He has been in the Crime Records Section for a little over a year. I think that he could function capably as an Assistant Special Agent in Charge at the present time and I consider him of potential SAC caliber.

(4) J. J. McGuire, EOD 10/7/35, CAF 13 - $5600, assigned Division Four. Mr. McGuire, of course, has demonstrated his ability to function as an Agent in Charge. I think that at this time he could successfully operate any office in the Service, with the possible exception of New York.

The arduousness and importance of the work of Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation was readily recognized by the military and naval leaders. The Chief of the Bureau of Navigation, for the Secretary of the Navy, requested Special Agent employees of the Federal Bureau of Investigation to submit their resignations from reserve commissions held by them in the naval services because it had been determined that those Special Agents could better serve their country in their present assignments than if they were to be called into active naval service. The Secretary of War, in 1942, addressed personal communications to 168 Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation who at that time held reserve commissions in the Army. The Secretary of War at that time advised the Special Agent that their employment in the FBI is of such vital importance to the national defense as to necessitate their remaining at their posts of duty despite the fact that they held reserve commissions in the United States Army, and the request was made that these Agents, through the proper channels, submit their resignations from their commissions.

General Lewis B. Hershey of the Selective Service System pointed out in his Directive to all Local Boards of December 29, 1941, that Special Agent positions of the FBI were most important and essential to the national health, safety, and interests, and that the national defense functions of the FBI should not be impaired by the removal of trained personnel from critical positions in the Bureau.

The position of Special Agent has always been considered the most critical of all positions in the FBI, since, with the tremendous bulk of work placed upon us due to the war emergency, it is essential that a trained qualified staff be available for the handling of this work. If the Federal Bureau of Investigation cannot continue to retain its personnel in this critical position, aid and comfort would most certainly be given to the enemy and others whose interests are inimical to the best interests of the country today.

I, J. Edgar Hoover, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I am the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and that the foregoing statements are true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 26th day of April 1944

Appeal Procedure

Any person entitled to do so may take an appeal to the board of appeal within 10 days after the above date of mailing of Notice of Classification to registrant in either of the following ways:

- (1) By filing with the local board a written notice of appeal. Such notice need not be in any particular form but must state the name of the registrant and the name and identity of the person appealing so as to show the right of appeal.
- (2) By signing the "Appeal to Board of Appeal" on the Selective Service Questionnaire (Form 40).

When an appeal is taken from the classification or reclassification of a registrant and when such appeal is upon the ground that the registrant should have been deferred by reason of his occupation, the appeal shall be transferred to the board of appeal having jurisdiction over the area in which the registrant is employed, provided all of the following conditions are met (but not otherwise):

- (1) The first person to appeal from such classification or reclassification files with his appeal a written request for such transfer;
- (2) The written request states in what respect an occupational question is involved; and
- (3) The written request states the name of the registrant's employer and the street address, county, and State where the registrant is employed.

The person appealing may attach to his notice of appeal or to the Selective Service Questionnaire (Form 40) a statement specifying the respects in which he believes the local board erred, may direct attention to any information in the registrant's file which he believes the local board has failed to consider or give sufficient weight, and may set out in full any information which was offered to the local board and which the local board failed or refused to include in the registrant's file.

Appeal to the President from classification by the board of appeal may be taken at any time within 10 days after the date of mailing of notice to registrant, provided the registrant was classified by the board of appeal in either Class I-A, Class I-A-O, or Class IV-E and one or more members of the board of appeal dissented from such classification. Otherwise, the decision of the board of appeal is final except when an appeal is taken to the President either by the State Director of Selective Service or the Director of Selective Service on the ground that he deems it to be in the national interest or necessary to avoid an injustice.

Mr. McGuire for a considerable period of time has been assigned in my immediate office, and is the number one man in the Records and Communications Section. Formerly he was in charge of the Crime Records Section.

Mr. McGuire has had a well-rounded Bureau experience. He is well posted on matters involving policy. He has good judgment and handles matters coming to him with dispatch. He ran this Division for a seven-weeks period while I was on sick leave last winter. He does a creditable job in everything assigned to him. He is thoroughly loyal, industrious, and assumes responsibility.

I consider his work during the past several months as outstanding. I think that he will continue to progress in the Bureau's service. He is entitled to an Excellent efficiency rating.

Appeal Procedure

Any person entitled to do so may take an appeal to the board of appeal within 10 days after the above date of mailing of Notice of Classification to registrant in either of the following ways:

- (1) By filing with the local board a written notice of appeal. Such notice need not be in any particular form but must state the name of the registrant and the name and identity of the person appealing so as to show the right of appeal.
- (2) By signing the "Appeal to Board of Appeal" on the Selective Service Questionnaire (Form 40).

The person appealing may attach to his notice of appeal or to the Selective Service Questionnaire (Form 40) a statement specifying the respects in which he believes the local board erred, may direct attention to any information in the registrant's file which he believes the local board has failed to consider or give sufficient weight, and may set out in full any information which was offered to the local board and which the local board failed or refused to include in the registrant's file.

Appeal to the President from classification by the board of appeal may be taken at any time within 10 days after the date of mailing of notice to registrant, provided the registrant was classified by the board of appeal in either Class I-A, Class I-A-O, or Class IV-E and one or more members of the board of appeal dissented from such classification. Otherwise, the decision of the board of appeal is final except when an appeal is taken to the President either by the State Director of Selective Service or the Director of Selective Service on the ground that he deems it to be in the national interest or necessary to avoid an injustice.

My dear Mr. McGuire:

Just a word to express to you my deep appreciation for the spendid talk you gave on juvenile delinquency at Regis, New York. All who were present at the panel were most enthusiastic, many saying that it was one of the high lights of the Summer School of Catholic Action.

Many Sisters said to me, "How proud you Jesuits must be of your columnus." In their setiment I most heartily concur.

Best wishes to you

Inspector J. J. McGuire:
Federal Bureau of Investigation
Department of Justice
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. McGuire:

May I take this opportunity to thank you and your entire staff for the extreme kindness and courtesy shown me on my recent visit to FBI Headquarters.

Since we have been rather closely associated with the FBI, writing and producing the "FBI IN ACTION" over WGY these past two years, we have grown to know many of the Agents in the Field, and have come to know your organization and its personnel as perhaps the most personable and cooperative of any agency with whom we have come in contact. Naturally, I had wanted for some time to look over the Washington Headquarters, and at least inspect a few of the important points of interest in the Justice department. And when, finally, it became possible for me to fulfill this wish, Mr. Morgan in Albany, and you folks down there in Washington certainly extended a welcoming hand...one that was sincerely appreciated. I am groping for words to truly express the tremendous kick I got out of that long, long tour through your many departments. To say that one part of the Bureau outshone the other wouldn't be quite fair. They are all so beautifully perfected, and worked out to such a scientific degree that it's no wonder that Mr. Hoover and the Federal Bureau of Investigation receive the praise of the entire nation.

I am going to write personal notes of thanks to all the gentlemen who were so kind to me during my visit to Washington and Quantico, but please accept this, Mr. McGuire, as a token of my appreciation. We do hope that some time you might visit us here in Schenectady and watch the FBI program in production, from beginning to end.

Best personal regards,

Sincerely,

Earle J. Pudney

Dear Mr. Hoover:—

On behalf of the Maryland Police Association, I want to express our appreciation for the great courtesy extended in assigning Inspector J. J. McGuire to address our members attending the luncheon meeting during our Ninth Annual Meeting and Banquet, held at the Emerson Hotel, Baltimore, Maryland, on Wednesday, December 6th., 1944. Subject - "Postwar Law Enforcement".

There were many distinguished guests present, and the Inspector made such a forceful address that no one left the ballroom until adjournment was in order - then there was a line of peace enforcement officials waiting to shake the Inspector's hand. The Inspector has a pleasing personality, excellent diction, and his delivery of the subject was complete and thorough. (I often mention the fact that you have built our first wall of defense - before the armed forces are called upon.)

Under separate cover I will send you a copy of our Ninth Annual printed program.

May you and your loved ones enjoy all the Blessings of the "Yuletide Season".

Sincerely yours,

Suggested Training for Newly Elected Sheriffs

With reference to your suggestion that an indoctrination course be given primarily for newly elected sheriffs annually, and preferably in December, before they take office the first of the year, you are advised the Bureau has approved a modified form of this suggestion whereby at the first of the semiannual law enforcement conferences each calendar year there will be a restatement of the various cooperative functions of the Bureau for the approval not only of new officers but for the more experienced ones. It was thought that a repetition of this information once a year would be desirable for all those present.

Your thoughtfulness in submitting this suggestion is appreciated.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I personally and the Industrial Executives Club, 447 members of which heard Inspector J.J. McGuire's presentation in the First Methodist church Thursday evening, are indeed very appreciative of the courtesy which you have extended to us.

Mr. McGuire's address was informative, extremely interesting and was made in the manner which tends to increase the already high respect we fellows hold for the FBI.

We are mindful of your thoughtfulness in providing a substitute when Mr. Nichols could not come and are grateful for that too. Your inspector impresses us as a very able one.

Dear Mr. Gregory:

Your letter of February 12, 1945, and package of the same date arrived safely and simultaneously, and thanks to your helpful hints it was only a split second until the beautiful clock was unpacked, set up on its easel, wound, and silently ticking away cordial reminders of my all-too-brief contact with the members of your Club. From time to time various members of the Club may have the occasion to visit Washington, and on behalf of Mr. Hoover I urge you to remind them of our invitation to drop in at the FBI when they are in town in order that it may be our pleasure to take each of you behind the scenes and show you intimately how the war on crime and our country's enemies is being conducted at our Washington headquarters.

Dear Mr. McGuire:

In appreciation of your having addressed our club the evening of Jan. 4, we're sending along a little gift for you.

I write you for two reasons, first, to say again that your presentation gave us a swell program for which we're grateful, and, second, to inform you in advance that you'll be safe in opening the package, even though you may be able to hear the ticking - which I doubt.

It contains a little traveling clock, which we hope you will find useful.

Since the thing folds up so completely, and to save wear and tear on your fingernails, here are a couple of suggestions which may help.

If you'll hold the thing with the engraved edge to your right, take the round bottom edge between your thumb and forefinger and turn toward you, the lid will open up. It turns around far enough to form an easel stand.

Now, to get to the step to wind it, pull the bottom edge of the clock forward. It swings on a couple of pegs.

We'll want to know, of course, if it reaches you in anything but shipshape.

Jackson, Michigan
February 12, 1945

Sincerely,

George V. Gregory Joe

JOHN J. McGUIRE
Inspector
EOD 10/7/35
CAF 13, $5800

Mr. McGuire is assigned in my office as Number 1 man. He is capable, has a thorough knowledge of Bureau policy, is industrious, loyal, and handles his work with dispatch.

Mr. McGuire has administrative ability, although at times has a tendency to delegate too much.

Mr. McGuire has improved materially during the past year. He handles himself with dispatch, makes a good impression, and is wholesomely aggressive. He has all of the abilities necessary for a good Special Agent. He has demonstrated his ability to serve as an SAC.

I consider him an above average employee.

Any person entitled to do so may take an appeal to the board of appeal within 10 days after the above date of mailing of Notice of Classification to registrant in either of the following ways:

- (1) By filing with the local board a written notice of appeal. Such notice need not be in any particular form but must state the name of the registrant and the name and identity of the person appealing so as to show the right of appeal.
- (2) By signing the "Appeal to Board of Appeal" on the Selective Service Questionnaire (Form 40).

The person appealing may attach to his notice of appeal or to the Selective Service Questionnaire (Form 40) a statement specifying the respects in which he believes the local board erred, may direct attention to any information in the registrant's file which he believes the local board has failed to consider or give sufficient weight, and may set out in full any information which was offered to the local board and which the local board failed or refused to include in the registrant's file.

Appeal to the President from classification by the board of appeal may be taken at any time within 10 days after the date of mailing of notice to registrant, provided the registrant was classified by the board of appeal in either Class I-A, Class I-A-O, or Class IV-E and one or more members of the board of appeal dissented from such classification. Otherwise, the decision of the board of appeal is final except when an appeal is taken to the President either by the State Director of Selective Service or the Director of Selective Service on the ground that he deems it to be in the national interest or necessary to avoid an injustice.

Just a few words to thank you again for your splendid talk before the County Officials of Hyattsville. It was perfectly marvelous, and did a tremendous amount of good. Mr. McGuire is assigned as Number 1 Man in the Records and Communications Division. He has had long experience in this Division and has done excellent work.

For a period of several months last year, Mr. McGuire ran my office in my absence in a commendatory manner. Mr. McGuire is still a growing man and will continue to improve. He makes a good appearance. He is enthusiastic, industrious, and loyal.

There are few jobs in the Bureau that Mr. McGuire could not handle. There are, I think, few Offices in the service that he could not handle as SAC with credit to the Bureau.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. NICHOLS

In checking into some of the work of the Crime Records Section, I would like to suggest that in the future instead of preparing a dictated, typed letter on note paper acknowledging requests for autographs, that we merely attach the autograph slip, such as we do at the present time, and prepare a typed envelope, sending them on to the Director's office in the manner in which we presently handle autographed photographs. Unless there is some special reason why the Director should make a comment on an incoming letter requesting an autograph we will follow this procedure, if approved. It should cut down some additional work in the Crime Records Section.

Respectfully,

J. J. McGuire

I believe a good suggestion. RH

 Edwin R. ~~X~~Donaldson

Division 4

(Mr. Nichols has advised that both Mr. Cartwright and Mr. McGuire will be on leave.)

 Albert C. ~~X~~Hayden, Jr.
 Joseph E. ~~X~~Presley

(Mr. Ladd has advised that he does not feel Agents Batts and Foltz can be spared at this particular time in view of their work on the Fraud Desk.)

Dear Mac:

I have been delayed in writing you this personal note to tell you how much I appreciate all of your assistance and help in handling the affairs of my dear friend, Miss Hazzard. With the many pressing official problems that I have had, particularly in the past several years during the war, it was physically impossible for me to give to Miss Hazzard the time and attention that I personally would have liked to, and had it not been for you and your understanding of the situation, I fear that her last years in this world would not have been as carefree and as happy as they were. For this I am indeed grateful to you.

Also I do so appreciate your taking care of making all the arrangements for her funeral, because again, that came at a time when I would have been unable to give it the necessary time. It was fine of you to be so considerate and helpful, and I do deeply appreciate it.

Sincerely,

/s/ J. Edgar Hoover

RE: GRADUATION EXERCISES, CLASS "O"
BIRMINGHAM POLICE DEPARTMENT
TRAINING SCHOOL;
SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS.

Dear Sir:

I am attaching clippings from the three local newspapers with reference to the appearance of Inspector John J. McGuire before the graduating class of the captioned school, at which Mr. McGuire was the principal speaker, the occasion having been a banquet held at the Fraternal Order of Police Hall in Birmingham on the evening of April 11, 1946, before approximately 100 people, including the class, as well as the heads of all local law enforcement agencies and local judges.

It was the consensus of opinion of those present, as expressed at the time and subsequently to me and Assistant SAC Robey, who was also present, that Mr. McGuire made one of the best, most timely and interesting talks which have been delivered at the annual banquets of this type here in recent years. It is my belief that his appearance here has done much to enhance the Bureau's standing in the eyes of the local officers and other persons interested in law enforcement.

The officials of Birmingham Lodge No. 1 of the Fraternal Order of Police have asked that a draft of Inspector McGuire's remarks be secured for publication in a forthcoming issue of their magazine, and it will be appreciated, therefore, if such a draft can be furnished me as soon as possible. I am certain that Mr. McGuire's appearance at the banquet did much to strengthen the position in his own department of Sergeant GORDON PARSON, an FBI graduate, who supervised this training school.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

You may be sure that we are very grateful to you for sending Inspector J. J. McGuire to address the second annual "Father and Son Night" meeting of the West Richmond Business Men's Association.

Inspector McGuire did a great job and all of those assembled, youngsters and adults alike, were very appreciative and complimentary of him personally and for the message he brought.

Congressman Gary was present to introduce Inspector McGuire. It is my personal opinion that the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the West Richmond Business Men's Association benefitted greatly by virtue of the effort you made to have Inspector McGuire present.

Kindest personal regards.

Very truly yours,

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, Director,

Department of Justice,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

We have just completed our two weeks Police training school for members of the Lincoln Police Department which was held at the University of Nebraska Law College.

It has been the unanimous opinion of our personnel that this school has been the most successful training school that we have had to date, and I know that the other members of the department feel as I do, that a great share of the credit for the success of the school is due the Federal Bureau of Investigation for the valuable instruction given to the officers by the FBI agents.

Inspector J. J. McGuire's talk was ranked as one of the most outstanding subjects on our program. Special Agent James Dalton's personal contribution and the cooperation of the other agents of the Omaha Office was very beneficial and instructive.

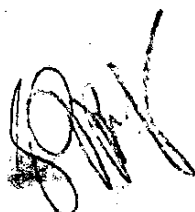

Special Agents Wm. C. Hopkins, Wm. F. Quick, Thomas W. Carroll, and Richard Kober added a great deal to our program with their thorough knowledge and the tactful manner in which they presented the subjects assigned to them.

We greatly appreciate the assistance furnished us by the Federal Bureau of Investigation and assure you of our fullest cooperation in any matters of mutual interest.

Sincerely,

I am attaching hereto a brief of and the file of the above-mentioned Special Agent.

As you know, Mr. McGuire has been the Assistant to Mr. Nichols in the Records and Communications Division of the Bureau for some period of time in the past. He has conducted himself in an excellent manner during his period of assignment there. Prior to the time he was assigned as Mr. Nichols' Assistant he was in charge of the Crime Records Division for a short period of time. Before that time he was the Acting SAC at Omaha, Nebraska. Mr. McGuire has been in the Bureau for approximately 12 years. Due to the many special assignments of Mr. Nichols, Mr. McGuire has the responsibility of the Records and Communications Section a great part of the time. I feel that his development has been such that consideration should at this time be given to his reallocation.

RECOMMENDATION: I recommend, therefore, that Mr. McGuire be considered for reallocation from Grade CAF-13 as an Inspector, $8059.80, to Grade CAF-14 as an Inspector, $8179.50 per annum.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. TOLSON
MR. NICHOLS
MR. McGUIRE

I have read the three attached memoranda, one from Mr. Jones dated July 18, 1947, one from Mr. Nichols dated July 18, 1947 and one from Mr. McGuire dated July 21, 1947, all dealing with the incident occurring at Newark, New Jersey by reason of the attendance of SAC McKee at a luncheon with Mr. Andrew Crummy, Mr. William Considine, former public relations official for General Groves during the war, together with General Groves and Mr. Lloyd M. Felmy, Editor of the Newark Evening News.

I want to state emphatically that I think this matter has been atrociously mishandled by Mr. McGuire in Mr. Nichols' Office.

In the first place Mr. McGuire did not write a memorandum on July 17 covering his two conversations with Mr. McKee that day. There are specific instructions that memoranda of conversations of this type should be immediately written.

Furthermore, it is my understanding that Mr. McGuire did not inform Mr. Tolson that he, Mr. McGuire, had authorized the attendance of Mr. McKee at the luncheon on Thursday. When this matter was first brought to my attention on Friday by Mr. Tolson I commented then that the least Mr. McKee could have done was to have phoned the Bureau and obtained authority to attend the luncheon in view of the controversial character of General Groves. Mr. Tolson agreed with me as to this and on Saturday when Mr. Nichols further communicated with Mr. Tolson by phone at my residence, I at that time, as well as Mr. Tolson, was totally ignorant of the fact that Mr. McKee had obtained permission to attend this luncheon. It was not until the second phone conversation of Mr. Nichols with Mr. Tolson that I learned to the contrary. I had up to that time reached the decision that Mr. McKee should be the subject of vigorous disciplinary action at least by being transferred as SAC from the Newark Field Division. In other words, from Thursday until Saturday no memorandum and no oral word was given by Mr. McGuire that he had approved the attendance at the luncheon by Mr. McKee. In this respect he was most derelict.

Further, Mr. McGuire's memorandum minimizes the importance of this luncheon and indicates that since the investigation was not in Mr. McKee's district there was no harm in his attending the luncheon. I am at a complete loss to understand this line of reasoning. It has been a well-known fact within the Bureau that General Groves has been basically hostile to the FBI over a long period of years. When he was in charge of the Manhattan Engineering District it was not only difficult but practically impossible for this Bureau to perform its responsibilities incident to the violations of espionage statutes because of the failure of General Groves to effect proper cooperation with this Bureau.

It is also a well-known fact that during the last several weeks when there has been a great deal of publicity in all of the papers, as well as debates in the Senate, that General Groves and his associates have been "feeding" information to the Press critical of the security measures now prevalent in connection with the Atomic Energy projects and in which they are either totally or incidentally critical of the FBI and its responsibilities at the present time. All of this has been done by General Groves and his associates notwithstanding the fact that all incidents of breach of security which have been made public up to the present time have been breaches of security which occurred under General Groves' administration of the Atomic Energy projects rather than under the administration of the Atomic Energy Commission and the assumption of the responsibility by this Bureau of investigations of violations of security.

Furthermore, it is a fact that the Von Luft case, which was at least incidental in Sylvester's article, was handled by Mr. McKee in the Newark Field Division since Von Luft attended Princeton University and was kept under surveillance by Agents of the Newark office and was later interviewed by Agents of that office. It is beyond my comprehension that with all of these factors prevalent Mr. McGuire should have so nonchalantly considered a luncheon which had been arranged by the former public relations man of General Groves as of no potential danger to this Bureau.

I fully appreciate that Mr. McKee is equally culpable in his minimizing of this situation, but he, nevertheless, did call Washington Headquarters and did receive approval for attendance at this luncheon.

I also fully appreciate the fact that maybe Mr. Sylvester and Mr. Felt are endeavoring "to make a mountain out of a mole hill." However, it certainly seems to me that this Bureau has plenty of major problems and difficulties which inherently arise in the proper performance of our duties without assuming additional difficulties that could so easily be avoided by a very simple evaluation of problems and the use of a minimum amount of common sense.

I must insist that Mr. Tolson take steps to effect immediately a proper administration of Mr. Nichols' Office when Mr. Nichols is out of the city. We cannot wait for two days before we get information as to what actually happened and we certainly are entitled to receive at least a correct oral statement from Mr. McGuire when a matter is first breached.

There are attached hereto a memorandum from Mr. Jones dated July 18 covering a call he had from Mr. Arthur Sylvester Washington correspondent of the Newark Evening News; a memorandum dictated by Mr. McGuire, dated July 18, but not transcribed until the 21st, covering his conversation with Mr. McKee on Thursday, July 18, and a subsequent call from Arthur Sylvester, together with an additional memorandum of Mr. McGuire's explaining the manner in which he handled this situation. Above memos have been submitted.

Mr. McGuire told me about the situation Friday night upon my return to Washington. On Saturday I talked to Mr. McKee, who was attending a field office picnic. He stated that he had called Arthur Crummy and William Considine in accordance with Mr. McGuire's previous call. Crummy subsequently reported to McKee that he had talked to the editor, Lloyd Felme; that he told the editor that Mr. McKee was invited purely as a personal proposition; that if there was any blame it was his and not Mr. McKee's. Mr. Crummy was of the opinion the editor understood the situation fully. William Considine stated that since the editor would not be back until Monday morning he would see the editor, take a letter to him pointing out that he had learned about the protest and that Mr. McKee's attendance was a result of a personal invitation. McKee pointed out in this connection that as a further indication that this was a personal invitation he had learned that Crummy had also invited another individual whom he met as they went into the club to come in and have lunch with them; however, the other individual had just finished lunch and was leaving. Crummy further informed McKee that General Groves had called him on Friday night, the 18th, and was preparing a statement for release on Monday.

I told Mr. McKee that he should also see the editor the first thing Monday morning and make his position very clear. He stated he would do this and he was of the opinion that when he saw the editor that this would close the situation. Mr. McKee stated that he had talked to Mr. McGuire on Thursday prior to going to the luncheon, that he personally saw no reason why he should not go to the luncheon and Mr. McGuire concurred with him.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

I then called Arthur Sylvester. I have known Sylvester since he has been in Washington as the Washington correspondent. Prior to that he served as city editor for years. I do know that over a period of years we have had a most cordial relationship with the Newark Evening News. The paper has never failed to support us editorially and has always been very cooperative on news stories. Sylvester has always impressed me as being a very calm, sane individual. I, therefore, was somewhat amazed when I called him Saturday afternoon to find that he was emotional on the subject. He outlined the whole matter as set forth in Mr. McGuire's memorandum. In addition, he told me that the editor was furious at McKee, whom he considered a close, personal friend, and that was another reason why he could not reconcile McKee's presence at the luncheon unless General Groves brought McKee as a means of intimidation of the editor of the Newark Evening News or that McKee was plain "dumb;" that they know McKee, knew he is a smart operator and cannot conclude that he was dumb; that the editor's view was that McKee was there under orders.

RECORDS SECTION

I told Sylvester that was absolutely an erroneous view, that Mr. McKee was not there under orders, that, in fact, the Director did not even know he was going to be there. Sylvester stated that that of course answered the matter and if that were the case why couldn't we write a letter to the editor. I told Sylvester that I thought that since we were giving him the explanation that we were in effect giving it to the editor's representative and that if he could not take our word for the matter then we might just as well close up business because when our word is not worth anything our effectiveness will be nil. He stated it was not a matter of not taking our word but that when the editor called him and instructed him to make a protest with both the FBI and the War Department he told the editor that he felt positive that the FBI would be very quick, if it were not a fact that McKee was there under orders, to say so in writing. I told Sylvester that we were quick to say so. He then injected the matter that not only the editor but the whole office force was upset; that while it is true that we denied any ulterior motives that the editor and he might drop dead and the Newark Evening News would not have anything in their records. He felt positive that if the Newark News patted us on the back as they have in the past that we would certainly write to the editor and express appreciation and that he thought that the Bureau's good press to a great extent centered around the fact that the Bureau was quick to show appreciation and gratitude and he just could not reconcile our position of not writing a letter.

I told him I frankly saw no point in it, that if the matter of course became an issue that if the Newark Evening News needed defense the Bureau would be quick to jump to their defense but since this was a matter between the Bureau and the News I could not see why they could not accept the Bureau's word. He stated the matter was up to us, that we could do what we wanted but that he certainly was disillusioned and could not understand our position. The more he talked the more emotional he got.

My only thought in the matter is that Sylvester is under pressure himself for the stories and is somewhat worried and has not been in touch with his editor since Crummy allegedly talked to the editor on Friday night. ~~I still think that we should send a brief message to the editor along the lines of the attached.~~ My reasons for this are as follows, i.e. in thinking we should write the editor:

1. The Newark Evening News has been very friendly in the past and while hindsight is better than foresight, I do think they could logically ask the question of why McKee was with Groves.

2. The Newark News has made references to the War Department, charging Groves' intimidation of the News with the FBI. I have no doubt the War Department will write a letter denying this. I think it would be well for the Bureau to beat them to the punch.

3. A simple statement, such as the attached, as I see it could do no harm; it could do some good. There is nothing to lose by it; I think there is something to gain.

4. We do know, of course, that writers and newspapermen are temperamental. Little things lodge in their minds. While we may never hear anything more about this, some charge of intimidation might arise in the future. The News will then rack this out and might make a splurge of it editorially. At that time we of course would write and protest any such charges. I can see no reason why we should not put ourselves on record at this time.

As Mr. McGuire points out in his memorandum of explanation, he erred in judgment. From my conversation with Mr. McGuire I am convinced that he had in mind Groves, who was known to be unfriendly to the Bureau, might sound off regarding the Bureau and McKee's presence might serve as a deterrent. It is also a fact that Mr. McGuire has been out of the office for approximately a month. When I left last Wednesday I showed him the press release on the atomic bomb case, told him to avoid any comment, to steer a middle of the road course and to keep his guard up. Mr. McGuire recognizes that he should have checked with you immediately and I am sure that there will not be a repetition of such an incident.

ADDENDUM: LBN:MP 7-21-47 - Mr. McKee called. He had just seen Lloyd Felme, the Editor of the Newark News. He pointed out to Felme that he had accepted a personal invitation to luncheon, that he was not under any instructions from the Bureau to accept the invitation; that he had, of course, been informed of Mr. Sylvester's representations to the Bureau, and that if there was any responsibility it was solely McKee's; that he, of course, accepted the invitation of Crummy and Considine.

Felme stated that his reaction to the whole thing was that both he and McKee were mousetrapped by Considine; that when he saw McKee at the lunch he entertained the thought of begging off but he couldn't do this graciously; that it was embarrassing to him as he felt the FBI was being used. McKee, of course, denied this. Felmev expressed regret that McKee was embarrassed and then elaborated that he felt the embarrassment was an organizational one so far as he and McKee were concerned; that so far as his paper was concerned he felt after last Thursday that the paper should have assurance from Washington that the FBI was not being used against them. He admitted that Grummy had called him on Saturday and endeavored to explain the thing. He told McKee he hoped the relations of the Newark Office and the paper would continue as they have in the past and in McKee's presence called Sylvester in Washington and told him the matter was completely straightened out to his satisfaction and that Sylvester should call me and so advise the Bureau. McKee stated they parted the best of friends.

Art Sylvester called me. He stated Mr. Felmev had called him; that Mr. McKee had been in to see Mr. Felmev and had outlined his position exactly as it had been previously outlined to him, Sylvester, and Mr. Felmev was thoroughly satisfied with McKee's explanation but did think he had been used by Considine; that the matter was now a closed issue and he was sorry that it came up. I told him that if anything comes up in the future we want them to come to us directly. He then stated that Sunday noon Felmev called him to inquire what progress had been made. He outlined our conversation of Saturday. He stated Felmev told him yesterday that if they didn't get further satisfaction that he would consider today having Sylvester ask for a conference with the Director and personally lay the matter before the Director; that failing this he, Felmev, would then write the Director about the whole matter and that, of course, the Director would be required to answer his letter. I told Sylvester again I simply could not understand the basis for any further doubt after Mr. McGuire had given the assurances of the Director on Friday. I further pointed out that I had not seen the Director since I had talked to him on Saturday but that I did, of course, intend to lay the whole matter before the Director.

Sylvester then stated he thought we should know that probably what was back of this whole thing was the fact that Felmev had felt the FBI was being used in a field it was never intended to be used in; that he utterly was opposed to the extension of the Bureau's powers. I told him that the Director himself has been the most effective and outstanding opponent of a National Police in the United States and that I simply could not understand this. He stated there was no point in elaborating further, but that he had seen things in print against people whom the Bureau didn't like. I told him that this, of course, called for a bill of particulars. He said that he had seen a story about Senator Pepper writing for a Chicago Communist paper. I told him I had seen this too; that I was positive it did not come from the Bureau; that other people could read Communist papers as well as we could. I did not press Sylvester for further details; however, he stated he was not going to dry up anybody's news sources. I told him I would like to have lunch with him in the next few days and go into this matter further because certainly if there are any rumors being circulated we should know about them in order that they might be scotched. He stated he would be glad to sit down with me in the next few days.

I will follow this up and take him to lunch. He stated the whole matter could now be considered a closed issue; that he was sorry it had come up; that it has not in any way affected his feelings for the Bureau.

SAC McKee phoned yesterday about noon stating he was going to have luncheon with Mr. Andrew Crummy and his law partner, Mr. William Considine, who was public relations man for General Groves during the war, together with General Groves and Mr. Lloyd M. Felmly, Editor of the Newark Evening News. McKee said he had lunch with Considine and Crummy the previous day and he knew both of them very intimately on a personal basis and also knew Felmly intimately having visited his home and with his children and was quite cordial in his contacts with the News. McKee stated he also knew Groves, whom he met in Florida, and that undoubtedly discussion would result at the luncheon of the articles written by Arthur Sylvester relative to the theft of government documents by the two Army Sergeants from Los Alamos and Oak Ridge, and to Sylvester's interview with Groves wherein he quoted Groves as giving four different stories which Groves subsequently denied. Sylvester also had an article which dealt with expected Army shakeups as a result of the leaks and McKee inquired as to the Bureau's participation in this matter.

He was advised that he should make no comment whatsoever as none of the activity took place in his district. McKee subsequently called back last evening stating that at the luncheon, which was held in the public dining room of the Downtown Club in Newark, the only time the FBI was mentioned was in reference by General Groves to his original view that when the whole atomic energy project was taken over it should have been taken over by civilians, with the FBI having the full job of security and the Committee being civilian dominated, to which Mr. Considine expressed his concurrence. McKee stated that the position taken by the News had General Groves on the ropes as he apparently was complaining of the stories written by Sylvester as not reporting the true picture. McKee advised he did not enter into any of the discussions and that the entire lunch appeared to be a very friendly affair.

This afternoon Arthur Sylvester phoned. He started out by saying he wondered why the FBI was investigating him or the Newark Evening News. Mr. McGuire advised him that the FBI was not investigating either the Evening News or Mr. Sylvester. Sylvester then related the following story: Last Wednesday the News carried as main feature on the atomic bomb case which dealt in some detail with General Groves. Sylvester stated he knew Groves and before the story was written had talked to him about the story here in Washington, and that an additional ^{Fellow-}~~follow~~ story appeared in the Evening News on Thursday. On Thursday morning about 10 o'clock, Mr. Lloyd M. Felmly, Editor of the News, received a call from William Considine advising that General Groves was to be in Newark and would like to talk with him about the stories. Considine also stated Andrew Crummy, a friend of his, would be present and arranged for the luncheon. Mr. Felmly explained that the Newark News was willing to receive any complaints at any time, and would be glad to meet with Groves, Considine and Crummy. Sylvester stated when Felmly arrived at the Downtown Club he found SAC McKee there. Felmly and McKee were very friendly but Felmly was surprised to see McKee present since he felt it put him on the spot as he would not say in McKee's presence what he might have wanted to say to Groves as he did not want to be in the position of discussing the matter with the FBI present. According to Sylvester, Mr. Felmly felt McKee was there because he did not know what was going on or because he was ordered to be there by Washington.

He further stated that while the group was seated at the table a bank president saw General Groves and asked why he was in Newark. Groves showed him the clipping from the Wednesday edition of the Newark News and the bank president immediately stated he did not want to be around in view of the nature of the discussion and that this incident added to the embarrassment the meeting caused Mr. Felmly. Sylvester pointed out that McKee made no comment about any of the discussion during the luncheon, but the paper felt there was no reason for him to be present and they would like to know just why McKee was present. Sylvester was advised that this situation would be called to the Director's attention at which point he stated that that was the reason for the complaint and while it was embarrassing to the paper in view of the cordial relationship with McKee for whom they had the highest respect, they were particularly disturbed and felt nothing less than a letter of assurance from the Director would suffice.

McKee was contacted and stated he had accepted the invitation as a personal friend of both Crummy and Considine and that he was amazed there should be any feeling of embarrassment because as far as he was concerned there was no reason for it, that as a matter of fact Felmly had the better of Groves all during the luncheon and Felmly gave no indication of displeasure or embarrassment to McKee during the course of the afternoon. He stated he dines with Crummy and Considine very frequently, that one day McKee would sign the check and next day Crummy or Considine, and that a meeting such as they had in a public dining room certainly would be no place to discuss any confidential items or wash out any linen since everybody would know the identity of the persons present. For example, McKee stated Horace Corbin, President of the Fidelity Union Trust Company, was observed speaking to Groves although he did not know what the conversation was about, but it is known that Groves has an account in Corbin's bank. This apparently is the incident referred to be Sylvester. McKee stated that he was aware that undoubtedly some discussion of the articles would come up since they had been given prominence in the Newark papers and he had specifically asked Crummy and Considine if they felt it was all right to attend and was assured there was no objection. Since they had asked him to come along he had attended.

McKee inquired as to whether he should call Felmlly and was told not to do so at the moment. Our relationship with the Evening News has been very cordial, and the same applies to Sylvester who was a City Editor prior to his assignment as Washington correspondent, and we have had many favorable articles commending the Bureau's position.

While it is perhaps unfortunate that Mr. McKee by virtue of his capacity as Agent in Charge was in attendance, I do think the paper has been unduly exercised about this matter. ~~It is suggested that the attached letter be sent to Mr. Lloyd H. Felmlly.~~

7/21/47 ADDENDUM:

After talking to you about this matter in your office prior to your leaving Friday, Mr. McGuire immediately called Sylvester informing him that the Director had been advised prior to his leaving the city and he wanted Mr. Sylvester and Mr. Felmlly to know that it was absolutely untrue that any investigation was being conducted of the Newark Evening News or of Mr. Sylvester, that Mr. McKee had attended this luncheon as a result of the personal invitation of Mr. Crummy and Mr. Considine. Sylvester said he appreciated this advice and would relay it to the paper, but he felt that they would not be satisfied but would want something in writing from the Director. He said the next move was up to the FBI. Mr. McKee was called at his home at 6:40 p.m. and was told that the paper had been advised as in the previous sentence and McKee should get hold of Crummy and Considine and point out it was up to them to straighten the paper out since a protest had been made, having them get in touch with Felmlly advising him that McKee had attended as a result of their personal invitation as it was considered a social engagement. McKee stated he would try to get in touch with both the attorneys as soon as possible and would let the Bureau know of the reaction.

With further reference to my memorandum of July 18, concerning the Newark Evening News, when SAC McKee phoned Thursday noon about attending the luncheon after he explained the background of the invitation, he did state, "Do you think it is all right?" (to attend) I told him that as far as the case was concerned there was no reason why he should not go since it was out of our hands, the investigation was not in his district and, of course, he should make no comment whatsoever on this case. I then asked if he knew of any embarrassment up there or reason why he should not go and McKee said he knew of none, that he had asked Considine and Crummy that question and they both said they would like him to attend and they knew of no reason or they would not have invited him. McKee further stated Considine told him Groves was of the belief that the FBI should have the full job of handling security on the atomic project. I told McKee that was interesting as he was of a contrary view previously and it would be interesting to hear what Groves had to say about it. McKee agreed and said he would not make any comments but would let me know if anything of interest developed.

This was, of course, approval for him to attend the luncheon. I was wrong. I felt the case as the basis of the articles by Sylvester was the thing under discussion and since McKee had been invited it would be well to know of any comments made about the FBI by Groves since McKee was well known personally by all the others in attendance. The apparent reversal of Groves' position was also thought to be of interest and as it developed Groves did state he felt the FBI should have the job of handling security on the atomic project. McKee phoned this information to me Thursday afternoon as the only interesting statement made in which the FBI was mentioned and that nothing else of interest to the Bureau occurred other than the fact that Felmy had given Groves the better of the arguments at the lunch pertaining to Sylvester's obtaining the data for his story.

I threw my notes in my dictation box since there appeared to be nothing of extraordinary urgency about the information. I did not write a memorandum on the first call from McKee since he was leaving for the luncheon at the completion of the call and since I had not stopped him there was no urgency in putting through a memo at that point and I held my notes on the call until McKee reported that afternoon and as indicated above I put it with my dictation.

RECORDED SECTION

This, of course, was wrong. I should have told McKee not to attend even though I was not aware of the full contents of the article and the by-play on Groves since I have been away from the office for over a month and I should not have been confused as to the real purpose of the luncheon. For this error of judgment I must accept responsibility. I cannot reconcile the attitude of the paper nor understand why Felmy did not say anything to McKee at the luncheon in a public place with an outsider like Crummy also in attendance at the very outset. I think Felmy's attitude should cause the Bureau and McKee to re-evaluate him as "a close personal friend of the SAC" and a friend of the Bureau. I did not call you or the Director's Office for the same reason that I did not dictate as McKee was leaving the office for the luncheon immediately upon completion of our conversation.

ATTENTION: Inspector JOHN J. McGUIRE

In connection with Inspector McGUIRE's appearance before the above-captioned convention, I am enclosing herewith excerpts from the various Houston papers which gave publicity to the convention and Mr. McGUIRE's appearance and talk.

Pre-convention plans anticipated approximately 1,000 delegates from various sections of the United States, but with the final registration there were no more than approximately 250 representatives present. The representation, however, was well distributed, especially from the Eastern and Midwestern sections of the country.

Mr. McGUIRE's talk was excellent in content and as to his manner of delivery. It was well received at the closing banquet and was certainly a high light in conclusion of the convention.

Mr. John J. McGuire
Federal Bureau of Investigation
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:

I am deeply concerned with respect to the manner in which you have been handling your duties in the recent past. I have in mind your inexcusable failure to make an immediate record of your telephone conversation with Mr. McKee concerning his luncheon engagement with representatives of the Newark press and General Groves. Your recent negligence in not advising Mr. Nichols upon his return to duty in the office of a most important change in Bureau policy with respect to recruiting was likewise inexcusable. Your gross failure to adequately review correspondence prepared in the Records and Communications Division is a matter which cannot be tolerated in the future.

The instances which I have enumerated reflect on your judgment and raise a serious doubt that you have been devoting the attention necessary to a proper discharge of the responsibilities of your position. I want to strongly impress upon you the imperative necessity for immediate correction of the slipshod manner in which you have been handling your assignments. Should there be a recurrence of any such incidents, it will be necessary to transfer you immediately to other duties.

Very truly yours,

Re: SUIT FILED AGAINST NEW YORK WORLD TELEGRAM BY MORRIS HARRIS

The New York Office advised the Bureau that a suit for damages of $25,000 has been filed against the New York World Telegram and its reporter, Fred J. Cook, by one Morris Harris alleging damaging and defamatory information which appeared in the 5th of a series of six hi-jacking articles published in the World Telegram on 5/19/47. The articles were based on hi-jacking cases handled by the New York Office and the publication of them was done with the collaboration of the Bureau.

The article in question involved the case entitled "LOUIS MINNEBOGA, was, et al; THEFT FROM INTERSTATE SHIPMENT, NATIONAL UNLAWFUL PROPERTY ACT, NATIONAL MOTOR VEHICLE THEFT ACT, KIDNAPPING, CONSPIRACY." The suit was based upon a single sentence in the article reading as follows: "Sam was sentenced to four years in prison and his brother, Morris, who operated the garage with him, two years." The sentence contains a factual error and to be factually correct should have described Morris as the brother-in-law rather than brother of Sam Harris. The Morris Harris who filed the suit alleged in his complaint that he is actually the brother of Sam Harris but was never involved in the instant case and in fact has never been arrested and, further, has never operated a garage or been associated in such manner with Sam Harris. It should be noted, however, that the Bureau's investigation in this case does not reflect that Sam Harris had a brother named Morris, and during our interview of Sam, at the time of his arrest, he stated he had three brothers, named Edward, Harold, and Murray Harris.

MANNER IN WHICH THE ERROR OCCURRED

When the agreement was made to have the articles published, Special Agent C. W. Stickler of the New York Office was designated by the New York Office to assist Reporter Cook in preparation. Agent Stickler furnished correct information in the first instance to Reporter Cook, on the basis of which Cook prepared proposed drafts of the articles. In preparing them, Cook mistakenly described Morris Harris as the brother rather than the brother-in-law of Sam Harris.

drafts back to Agent Stickle, Agent Stickle went over them with Cook and pointed out several changes but failed to note the error in describing Morris Harris.

After Agent Stickle's review, the proposed drafts were submitted to the Bureau and the Bureau in its review made numerous changes but again failed to note the erroneous description of Morris Harris. The final draft incorporating the Bureau's changes was then transmitted to the World Telegram for publication.

At the Seat of Government the following employees were involved:

The draft from New York was submitted to the Investigative Division where it was reviewed by Special Agent Supervisor C. C. Nelson who submitted a memorandum indicating that the hi-jacking cases in question were not entirely familiar to him since only one of them (not the one in question) was perpetrated after he was assigned to the desk handling those matters. Nelson reviewed the draft for policy matters to determine whether any material contained therein should be changed or eliminated. Under present policy the Investigative Division does not review files from which articles are prepared by the Crime Records Section since this would be a duplication of work performed by the Crime Records Section which has this responsibility. Nelson therefore is not derelict in this matter.

Special Agent Supervisor Byron H. Mathews, Jr., reviewed the drafts in detail in the Crime Records Section and prepared the final memorandum incorporating all of the Bureau's changes. He failed to note the erroneous description of Morris Harris and is at fault for his carelessness.

Special Agent Milton A. Jones, Chief of the Crime Records Section, initialled Agent Mathews' memorandum and did not note the factual error in the 5th article. He appears to be at fault in this regard.

Inspector J. J. McGuire, acting on Mr. Nichols' desk, also initialled the memorandum for Mr. Nichols and in so doing he likewise did not note the error in the 5th article.

ADDITIONAL COMMENTS

Regarding Agent Stickle of the New York Office, it is noted that in May, 1947, he was censured by letter, placed on probation, and removed from his supervisory capacity because of having furnished to the New York World Telegram the wrong person's picture in connection with this same series of hi-jacking articles and through this error a person was misrepresented as having been given a severe sentence in a Bureau case. Otherwise, Agent Stickle's file shows that his record has been entirely satisfactory and he has been recommended for consideration on a long range basis for development as SAC. He is still on probation.

Regarding Agent Mathews, he has been assigned to the Crime Records Section since May, 1946, but is now under transfer to Atlanta as the result of a personal request involving the health of his wife and her mother. His Bureau record has been entirely satisfactory since he entered on duty in December, 1940.

PERMANENT BRIEFS OF THESE AGENTS' FILES ARE ATTACHED.

So far as is known to date, no additional actions have been taken in the suit other than the filing of the original complaint and the service of the summons on the World Telegram and Reporter Cook. The New York Office is going to keep the Bureau informed of developments in this matter.

Mr. Nichols recommended letters of censure to both Agents Stickie and Mathews stating that the error in this instance should have been caught both at the Seat of Government as well as in New York.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

It is recommended:

(1) That Special Agent Stickie be kept on probation and severely censured by letter.

(2) That letters of censure be sent to Special Agents Byron H. Mathews, Jr., M. A. Jones, and Inspector J. J. McGuire.

(3) That no action be taken with respect to Special Agent C. C. Nelson of the Investigative Division since it does not appear that he made a factual review in this particular case.

Dear Sir:

The Bureau has been placed in a potentially embarrassing position as the result of a factual error which occurred in a series of hi-jacking articles approved by the Bureau for publication in one of the New York newspapers. The proposed draft of these articles was reviewed in the Crime Records Section where the personnel handling the matter failed to detect the error and it is noted that you initialled the final memorandum for transmittal to New York.

Because of your years of experience in the Bureau and the responsible position which you occupy, it is needless to point out to you that you signified by your initialing of this memorandum the factual accuracy of the information contained therein. Furthermore, the fact that this error was not initially caught in a Section under your supervision is an additional reflection on the efficiency of the Division for which you were at the time assuming responsibility.

It is expected that you will take whatever steps are necessary to prevent a future repetition of such carelessness.

Very truly yours,

John Edgar Hoover

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I want to express to you, and through you to your able assistants in the Fingerprint Section, our appreciation and thanks for the assistance rendered in the identification of the 52 persons killed in the crash of United Air Lines Flight #608 of October 24, 1947 at Bryce Canyon, Utah.

In contacting your Washington Headquarters for help by means of fingerprint identifications we officially worked through Mr. Newman of your Salt Lake City Office and the Sheriff of Sevier County, Utah. Colonel A. D. Tuttle, Medical Director, United Air Lines, who served as a member of the Identification Team from the start to the finish of such work at Richfield, Utah, tells me that he has never seen a more earnest desire to be helpful in such a tragic emergency as confronted us than was displayed by your personnel. Because of the nature of the injuries sustained by the 52 persons aboard our Flight 608 at the time of the crash, positive identifications of an appreciable number of victims could not possibly have been made except through the fingerprint classifications of your organization.

The specimens sent to the Washington FBI Office for fingerprint identification were transported on a United Air Lines plane and in charge of a special United Air Lines courier. I have been informed by our Washington representatives that your experts conducted most of the examinations over a week-end when ordinarily such work, except in urgent cases, would be normally curtailed. I am advised that the following men in particular were of invaluable help during this period: Messrs. Stanley J. Tracy, Assistant Director, Federal Bureau of Investigation; John McGuire, Inspector; Edwin S. Deias, Albert B. Ground, Sebastian F. Latona, John R. Robyak, Cressen S. Henderson, Francis W. Attler. We were also fortunate in having the assistance of Messrs. William Warren, Jr., and Orland Christensen, both of Richfield, Utah, who we later learned have both had FBI training.

The fact that your Bureau was being utilized for the purpose of speeding up the identification of remains was a source of great comfort to the grief-stricken persons who had proceeded to the scene of the accident for the purpose of locating the remains of relatives.

All of us knew that your organization is frequently called upon to conduct such activities as a public service, but I wish that more of our citizens could hear of the outstanding and helpful type of service such as was so splendidly demonstrated by your fingerprint section in the aftermath of our accident.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~
July 28, 1947

Director, FBI

Attention: Assistant Director L. B. Nichols

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to telephone calls to the Bureau by me on July 15th and by Assistant Special Agent in Charge M. J. Lynch on July 23d, 1947.

There is enclosed herewith a photostatic copy of a summons served on the "New York World Telegram" Corporation and FRED J. COOK on behalf of MORRIS HARRIS in the Supreme Court, State of New York, County of Bronx. This action represents a suit in the amount of $25,000 against the "World Telegram" and its reporter, FRED J. COOK because of the fact that in an article printed in the "New York World Telegram" under date of May 19, 1947, it is set forth that, "SAM was sentenced to four years in prison and his brother, MORRIS, who operated the garage with him, two years."

As a matter of fact, the MORRIS HARRIS set forth in the article in question, a copy of which is made part of the moving papers and which is enclosed herewith, is a brother-in-law of SAM HARRIS rather than a brother as set forth in the article. The article in question is based on the case entitled: "LOUIS MICNOGNA, was ETAL; THEFT FROM INTERSTATE SHIPMENT, NATIONAL STOLEN PROPERTY ACT, NATIONAL MOTOR VEHICLE THEFT ACT, KIDNAPPING, CONSPIRACY", Bureau file #15-8944.

A review of this file reflects that MORRIS HARRIS is consistently shown as a brother-in-law of SAM HARRIS throughout. At the time SAM HARRIS was arrested, during the course of questioning him, it was determined that he had three brothers, namely, EDWARD, HAROLD and MURRAY HARRIS. MURRAY HARRIS at that time was indicated as residing at 1117 Bryant Avenue, The Bronx, New York. There was no mention made of MORRIS HARRIS. Furthermore, inquiries of the

RJL:MES Encls.

Director, FBI

July 28, 1947

Probation Officer in the Eastern District of New York indicates that SAM HARRIS furnished the Probation Officer with similar information. He did not indicate to the Probation Officer that he had a brother named MORRIS. It is further to be noted that a MURRAY HARRIS is listed in the current New York City telephone directory as residing at 1117 Bryant Avenue, Bronx, New York. The possibility, therefore, exists that MORRIS HARRIS and MURRAY HARRIS are identical. It is to be noted that the MORRIS HARRIS convicted in the case investigated by this Bureau mentioned hereinabove was released from prison on May 3, 1947 according to the records of the Probation Officer of the Eastern District of New York and thereafter placed on parole.

With regard to the manner in which the proofs of the stories prepared by Mr. FRED J. COOK of the "New York World Telegram" were handled, you are hereby advised that Special Agent C. W. Stickle was designated by me, upon authorization by the Bureau, to render assistance to a representative of the "World Telegram" in the preparation of these articles and assisted Mr. Cook in furnishing information to him. After Mr. Cook had prepared the articles in question, they were submitted to Mr. Stickle by Mr. Cook. Mr. Stickle reviewed these articles and failed to note that MORRIS HARRIS was designated as a brother of SAM HARRIS rather than a brother-in-law of SAM HARRIS. He likewise went over these articles with Mr. Cook, pointing out to him corrections in the articles as suggested in the memorandum of Mr. M. A. Jones of the Bureau to Mr. Nichols dated April 26, 1947.

It should be pointed out further that the material furnished to Fred J. Cook correctly indicated that MORRIS HARRIS was the brother-in-law of SAM HARRIS and hence the mistake in the original instance was that of Mr. Cook. This mistake on his part might have been occasioned by the fact that the subject, SAM HARRIS' brother-in-law had the surname of HARRIS and Mr. Cook might therefore have assumed that this may have been intended for brother instead of brother-in-law. The reference to MORRIS HARRIS in Mr. Cook's article was contained in an obscure sentence at the very end of the article and in reviewing the article, Special Agent Stickle failed to detect Mr. Cook's error.

The Bureau will be kept fully informed of all further developments in this matter.

Very truly yours,

EDWARD SCHEIDT

OFFICE MEMORANDUM

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

MAJ:HN

TO : Mr. Nichols

DATE: August 1, 1947

FROM : M. A. Jones

SUBJECT: Suit Filed Against New York World-Telegram
by Morris Harris

Reference is made to the letter dated July 28, 1947, from the New York Office concerning the above matter.
Following is a summary of the situation:

General Background

You will recall that during May, 1947, the New York World-Telegram ran a series of six stories on hijacking which were written by Fred J. Cook of the New York World-Telegram staff. The New York Office cooperated with Cook after receiving clearance from the Bureau. Though the Bureau furnished a limited amount of material, most of the data for the stories was furnished by the New York Office inasmuch as Cook was primarily interested in local angles. The fifth story in the series appeared on May 19, 1947, and dealt with the case entitled "Louis Mignogna, was etal; Theft from Interstate Shipment, National Stolen Property Act, National Motor Vehicle Theft Act, Kidnapping, Conspiracy."

According to the New York Office, a suit in the amount of $25,000 has been filed against the World-Telegram and its reporter, Fred J. Cook, by a person describing himself as Morris Harris, based upon a sentence in the article reading as follows: "Sam was sentenced to four years in prison and his brother, Morris, who operated the garage with him, [two years. The other Sam] refers to the Sam Harris who was convicted in the case and sentenced to four years. The "Morris" mentioned in the article was one Morris Harris who operated a garage with Sam Harris and who was, according to numerous references in the file, the brother-in-law and not the brother of Sam Harris. The reference in the story, accordingly, should have been to Sam's brother-in-law instead of to his brother.

Identity of Complainant in Suit
Against World-Telegram and Fred J. Cook

In the legal papers which were filed in this matter, the complainant is identified as a brother of Sam Harris and as not being in the garage business with Sam Harris. Throughout the investigation, no information was received to the effect that Sam Harris had a brother named Morris Harris. As indicated, Morris Harris was referred to throughout the investigation as the brother-in-law of Sam Harris. At the time of Sam Harris' arrest, however, he did indicate he had three brothers, namely Edward, Harold and Murray Harris. Sam Harris gave the address of Murray Harris as 1117 Bryant Avenue, The Bronx, New York. There was absolutely no mention of a Morris Harris as being a brother of Sam Harris.

August 1, 1947

It might be noted, further, that the probation officer in the Eastern District of New York had indicated that Sam Harris furnished him with similar information concerning his three brothers; that is, he identified one Murray Harris as his brother and said nothing whatsoever about a Morris Harris.

It is further noted that a Murray Harris is listed in the current New York City telephone directory as residing at 1117 Bryant Avenue, Bronx, New York.

It should be noted that Morris Harris, the brother-in-law of Sam Harris, was released from prison on May 3, 1947, according to the records of the probation officer of the Eastern District of New York and thereafter placed on parole.

In reviewing this matter, it seems obvious it is a typical shyster suit. While the papers indicate that the Morris Harris bringing the suit is a brother of Sam Harris but is not connected with him in the garage business, actually it appears that Sam Harris has no brother by this particular name. The Morris Harris who was convicted could not be the complainant because he is not a brother of Sam Harris and because he is connected with Sam in the automobile business. It would appear, therefore, that Murray Harris, who is a brother of Sam Harris, is bringing the suit and claiming that his name is Morris Harris. It has been impossible to otherwise identify Murray Harris in the files of the Bureau.

Handling of the Stories in the New York Office

Special Agent C. W. Stickle of the New York Office was designated by Mr. Scheidt to render assistance to Fred J. Cook in the preparation of the articles. After the articles were prepared they were submitted to Agent Stickle by Cook. Stickle reviewed the articles and failed to note that Morris Harris was designated as a brother rather than a brother-in-law of Sam Harris. After the Bureau reviewed the articles, Stickle went over them with Cook and pointed out the suggested changes. It should be pointed out that the material furnished to Cook by the New York Office correctly indicated that Morris Harris was the brother-in-law of Sam Harris; hence the initial mistake was made by Cook of the New York World-Telegram. The New York Office surmises that this mistake on Cook's part may have been due to the fact that Sam Harris and Morris Harris had the same surname. Cook then may have assumed they were actually brothers instead of brother-in-law. It is further pointed out that the only reference in the article to Morris Harris as the brother of Sam Harris occurred in the sentence quoted earlier in this memorandum. This was only a brief reference in the very last of the article.

Memorandum for Mr. Nichols

August 1, 1947

Handling of the Stories at the Seat of Government

By letter dated April 17, 1947, the New York Office furnished the Bureau with copies of the six articles on hijacking written by Cook which were to appear later in the World-Telegram. These stories were sent to the Crime Records Section and were reviewed in detail by Special Agent Byron H. Mathews. As a result of this review, a seven-page memorandum was prepared setting out inaccuracies and other suggested changes. Agent Mathews failed to note that Morris Harris should have been designated as a brother-in-law rather than a brother of Sam Harris. The stories were approved with the changes in this Section, by the Investigative Division, by the Department and by your office. The memorandum containing the suggested changes was later made available to the New York Office.

Conclusion

The mistake in referring to Morris Harris as a brother instead of a brother-in-law of Sam Harris is regrettable and, of course, should have been caught. As indicated previously, however, it is not felt that the party suing the New York World-Telegram and Fred J. Cook has any chance whatsoever in a suit. The legal action, of course, will be embarrassing to the paper and to a certain extent to the Bureau.

MEMORANDUM TO THE DIRECTOR

RE: LUNCHEON AT DOWNTOWN CLUB, NEWARK, N.J.,
JULY 17, 1947 AT WHICH WERE PRESENT:
MESSRS. WILLIAM CONSODINE, ANDREW B.
CRUMMY, LLOYD FELMLY, MAJ. GEN. LESLIE
GROVES AND SAC S. K. MCKEE

This memorandum is submitted in line with telephonic instruction received from Assistant Director L. B. Nichols on July 19, 1947 in order to outline events and conversations incident to the luncheon referred to above.

In way of a preliminary statement I wish to advise that since I have been assigned to the Newark Office I have been very close personally and officially with Mr. Andrew B. Crummy, a very prominent Newark attorney. He is held in the highest esteem by everyone. During the period of the war emergency he served this office and the Bureau as a special service contact and I feel it in order to point out that under date of November 27, 1945 the Bureau addressed a letter to him in way of a meritorious service award. Since the termination of hostilities Mr. William Consodine has become associated with him in the practice of law and I have also become closely acquainted with him on a personal basis. During the war period Mr. Consodine was a Colonel assigned to security duties in connection with the Manhattan Engineering Department. I have had lunch with both Messrs. Consodine and Crummy on any number of occasions and I wish to state that at times the check is paid by either of them and at other times by myself.

On Wednesday, July 16, 1947 I had lunch with both Messrs. Consodine and Crummy at the invitation of Mr. Crummy and the purpose of the meeting was in order that Mr. Crummy might relate to me certain facts regarding one Boris Pregel concerning whom the Bureau has much information of record. Voluminous files relative to this individual were turned over to the Newark Office by MED and were subsequently transported to Washington, D. C. and delivered to the Bureau. Consodine through his association with MED, was, of course, cognizant of the activities of Pregel. During the course of lunch Mr. Consodine mentioned that he had received a telephone call from Maj. Gen. Leslie Groves of the War Department on that date in which Groves stated he desired to talk with Mr. Lloyd Felmly, Editor of the Newark Evening News, and Consodine mentioned at this time that he would probably invite both Groves and Felmly to lunch and he would get in touch with me on the date in question in order to determine whether I was free for lunch and could join the group. He did not mention at this time who else might be included in the group and no date was mentioned.

On the morning of Thursday, July 17, 1947 I received a telephone call from Mr. Consodine in which he advised that he was having lunch that day with Messrs. Crummy, Felmly and Groves and said he would be glad to have me join them. Mr. Crummy entered into the telephonic conversation by means of a second telephone in their joint office and during the three-way conversation he raised the question as to whether I felt any possible embarrassment might accrue to me if I attended the lunch inasmuch as the possibility existed that Groves might take exception with Mr. Felmly to an article which appeared on the first page of the Newark Evening News relative to Groves and in which leaks of information having to do with the Atomic Energy Commission was the subject matter of the article. I told Mr. Crummy at this time that I saw no reason for any embarrassment accruing to anyone and he agreed with me. On the same morning I was in telephonic communication with the Bureau via the leased line facilities and after completing the call which I had placed, I asked to be switched to the telephone of Assistant Director L. B. Nichols in order to relate to him the facts incident to the invitation to lunch and to inquire whether he saw any objection to my attending. Mr. Nichols was not in the city and I accordingly talked to Mr. J. J. McGuire and after I had furnished him with the facts as outlined herein, he informed he saw no objection to my attending.

I wish to advise that I have been well acquainted with Mr. Lloyd Felmly during the period of my assignment to the Newark Office and have always enjoyed a rather pleasant relationship with him. I also know Mrs. Felmly and their two children. I have met Major General Groves on one prior occasion, namely at the IACP Convention at Miami Beach, Florida in December 1945.

When I proceeded to the Downtown Club for the lunch on July 17, 1947 I met Messrs. Crummy and Consodine who at the time were in conversation with Mr. Edmond R. Cook, Chief Inspector of the Prudential Insurance Company of America in Newark with whom the Bureau is well acquainted. I was later informed by Mr. Consodine that prior to my arrival he had invited Mr. Cook to join the party at lunch, but Cook declined inasmuch as he had just finished having lunch. When Mr. Felmly arrived prior to the arrival of Groves, Crummy, Felmly and I proceeded to our table and sat down inasmuch as Mr. Felmly had indicated that he must hurry as he had a commitment at his office. We commenced lunch prior to the time Groves arrived and upon his arrival he and Consodine sat down at the table.

It occurs to me that had Mr. Felmly had any original objection to my being present he could have simply stated that he desired to talk with Groves privately as he knew all parties sufficiently well to do so, or he could have excused himself. I also wish to advise at this point that following lunch when Consodine and Groves parted with Felmly and me in the elevator lobby, Felmly and I left the building by means of the same elevator and before parting, chatted for two or three minutes. Mr. Felmly made no mention during the course of this brief conversation that he had any feeling whatsoever that I should not have been present during the course of lunch or that my presence had been embarrassing either to him or his paper.

When Groves joined the others at the lunch table he had in his hand a current copy of the Newark Evening News in which appeared on the first page, an article under the name of Aruthur Sylvester, Washington Staff Correspondent for the Newark Evening News, which related to transfers for Army personnel who might be concerned under "leaks" of information relating to Atomic Energy. He perused this article prior to entering into any conversation. During the course of lunch he and Mr. Felmly did practically all of the talking at the table. Groves' position in it was that the alleged information contained in the first article printed by the Newark Evening News was not factual insofar as he was concerned and that he thought the paper had been unfair in printing the article without publishing his side of the question. In response, Mr. Felmly simply stated that his Washington representative Mr. Sylvester was very highly regarded in the newspaper world, had described his sources as most reputable and had always handled himself in such fashion that he could be thoroughly depended upon. He stated to Groves that he would discuss with Sylvester this matter and would be glad to print in an equally prominent place on the first page of his paper, any statement which Groves wished to make. Although there was no direct statement in this regard, by innuendo at least there was a quasi-admission by Mr. Felmly that Sylvester's source must have been a person rather high up in the Atomic Energy Commission. In parting Groves stated to Felmly that he would think over the matter of making a statement for all papers and would get in touch with Mr. Sylvester along with representatives of other papers in Washington. There was an express agreement between Groves and Felmly that the substance of their conversation at lunch would be entirely off the record. They carried on their entire conversation in a friendly, courteous fashion and there was nothing of a acrimonious character.

During lunch Mr. H.K. Corbin, President of the Fidelity Union Trust Company of Newark, stopped at the table inasmuch as he was acquainted with all persons present and upon invitation from probably Mr. Crummy, he sat down with the group for about fifteen minutes. Upon leaving he simply stated that he had to get back to the bank. A minute or so after his departure, Mr. Crummy also left stating he had to get back to court. Rather lengthy remarks were made by Groves having to do with the newspaper article in question, but with the allegedly unfair treatment he has received from the War Department in recent months relating to his failure to receive a permanent promotion. He also indicated it was his desire to retire and possibly enter some civilian occupation, but he said that some slight physical ailment is concerned in his picture and that the War Department refuses to retire him at this time. My main reaction to the conversation between Groves and Felmlly was not that Groves seemed to have any real basis for a complaint, but that the paper appeared to be on rather solid ground and that Mr. Felmlly had taken rather good care of his Washington representative.

As the Bureau knows Mr. McGuire telephoned me on the afternoon of July 18, 1947 and informed that Mr. Arthur Sylvester had made certain representations to the Bureau to the effect that my presence at the luncheon had been prejudicial to the best interests of his paper, that there was some feeling that the paper was under investigation by the FBI and that the paper desired a letter from you denying that such was the case. I told Mr. McGuire at the time that it was difficult for me to understand how Mr. Felmlly could have this reaction in view of the fact that he had taken no action whatsoever, and which he could easily have taken, to have his conversation with Groves privately. I asked Mr. McGuire at the time whether it would be satisfactory for me to contact Mr. Felmlly in this regard and he stated he did not feel that this action should be taken at this time.

Later on the same date Mr. McGuire again telephoned and informed it was your desire that I communicate with Messrs. Consodine and Crummy in order to inform them of the complaint of the paper and to request that they communicate with Mr. Felmlly in order to assure him that my presence at the luncheon was solely a personal lunch engagement and had nothing whatsoever to do with General Groves or the Newark Evening News.

I talked telephonically with Mr. Crummy at his home on the evening of July 18, 1947 and he told me he would immediately telephone Mr. Felmlly as requested. He said he was at an utter loss to understand how either Mr. Felmlly or his paper could be prejudiced by my presence at the lunch table. He called me back at my home on the same night and stated he had reached Mr. Felmlly telephonically at his Summer home at Brielle, New Jersey and had told him that the invitation to be present at lunch had been extended to me by both him and Mr. Considine, that my presence had nothing to do with any conversation which might be expected between Groves and Felmlly, but was solely personal. He said that Mr. Felmlly stated to him that he held me in very high regard both personally and officially, that he did not want to embarrass me in any way, but that he did feel that my presence had prejudiced his paper. Mr. Crummy said he told Mr. Felmlly at this time that if anyone was at fault it was him (Crummy) as he had suggested to Considine in the first place that I be invited to join the group at lunch. Crummy said the conversation between him and Felmlly ended with Felmlly remarking "Let's forget the whole thing."

I also talked telephonically at his home with Mr. Considine on the night of July 18, 1947 and related to him the facts of the complaint which had been made to the Bureau by Mr. Sylvester. He said he would call on Mr. Felmlly on Monday morning July 21, 1947 and at that time would deliver to him a letter expressing regret that Mr. Felmlly had felt his paper had been embarrassed and assure him that my presence at lunch was on a purely personal basis.

In line with advice received telephonically from Assistant Director L. B. Nichols in the early evening of July 19, 1947 I will call on Mr. Felmlly on Monday morning July 21, 1947 and give him my personal assurance that my presence at the luncheon was solely on a personal basis, was not in any respect connected with any investigation and that the Newark Evening News is not under investigation by the FBI. I intend to tell him that I regret exceedingly that his reaction has been that his paper has been embarrassed and further I regret that he did not see fit to discuss this matter with me prior to having Mr. Sylvester file a formal complaint with the Bureau at Washington. It is also my intention to tell Mr. Felmlly that I have been greatly embarrassed by this incident.

I regret exceedingly that the Bureau has been embarrassed in this connection. I wish to state that I can not help but feel that the alleged embarrassment of the paper is not more after thought and "Monday morning quarterbacking" than real embarrassment due to my presence at lunch for had Mr. Felmlly felt in the first instance that my presence would be embarrassing to him or his paper, a very simple statement would have resulted in my not meeting with the group.

Respectfully,

February 25, 1948

L. B. Nichols

With reference to the Director's letter of February 17 requesting a list of Agents who should be considered on a long-range basis as Special Agents in Charge, I wish to set forth the names of the following who are assigned to the Records and Communications Division. While, of course, it would not be possible to relieve any of these men at this time, nevertheless they should be considered.

1. J. J. McGuire - He has previously functioned satisfactorily as an Agent in Charge. I think there are few offices in the Bureau's service that he could not run with credit.

2. M. A. Jones, who is presently assigned as the head of the Crime Records Section. Jones has a good mind. His greatest shortcoming is the fact that he has had only approximately a year of field experience. I have no doubt that he could run an office better than many of the present Agents in Charge, but he should function for a period as Assistant Agent in Charge.

3. R. F. Cartwright. Cartwright has had considerable experience as a supervisor in the Investigative Division. He has definite administrative and executive ability. He is a hard worker and I think once he got in the swing of things he would do a very creditable job. Like Jones, he should start out as an ASAC.

4. A. E. Leonard. He has for many years been assigned to the Statistical Section. Leonard does a good job. He would have to brush up on his investigative experience but I have no doubts as to his capabilities.

5. G. L. Carroll. This man has one of the best potentialities of any of the Agents assigned in this section. He would be above average, I feel, after proper seasoning, starting out as an ASAC.

6. B. M. Suttler. Suttler has an excellent record in the field prior to being brought to the Seat of Government as a supervisor approximately 11 years ago. He would have to brush up but I think he has possibilities.

7. E. C. Kemper. Kemper is a fast-growing man. He should, of course, have further training as an ASAC but I feel that he could creditably function as an Agent in Charge in the future.

8. F. E. Crosby. Crosby did an outstanding job on SIS. He is enthusiastic and loyal. Being the nephew of Robert Young of the C&O he has had tempting offers to go into the Young organization. He prefers his independence and to make his own way, which is creditable. He makes an excellent appearance and has very definite possibilities.

9. Wendell Eames presently handles the personnel work in the Records Section. He is enthusiastic, has a lot of common sense and would of course need additional field experience as ASAC. He would do a lot to shake up some of the offices we have in the service and is a lot like Ed Mason.

RE: UPA PROMOTION

This employee entered on duty on 10-7-35 as a Special Agent in Grade CAF-9, $3200 per annum and was reallocated to Grade CAF-13, $8059.80 per annum which is his present salary. Inasmuch as he did not receive the equivalent increase in pay, he is due for an increase in pay under the provisions of the Uniform Promotion Act, effective 4-18-48.

On 3-31-47 Mr. Nichols rated him EXCELLENT.

In a memorandum dated 7-21-47, the Director characterized as atrocious Mr. McGuire's handling of a public relations matter at Newark. It appeared that he had given SAC McKee clearance to attend a Newark luncheon with Mr. Andrew Crummy, Mr. William Consodine, former public relations official, Mr. Lloyd M. Felmly, Editor of the Newark Evening News, and General Groves. General Groves, the Director pointed out had been hostile to the Bureau for years and Mr. McGuire should have recognized the potential dangers to the Bureau in this luncheon. The Director also criticized him for failing to write memoranda on Thursday 7-17-47 on his two conversations of that date with SAC McKee upon this matter; this, despite specific instructions that such memoranda of conversations of this type be written immediately. Nor had he given any oral word of the matter until the following Saturday. A letter of censure was directed to him on this matter.

By letter dated 9-4-47 he was censured for initiating and failing to note a factual error which occurred in a series of hi-jacking articles approved by the Bureau for publication in one of the New York newspapers. Furthermore, because the error was not caught in a Section under his supervision, additional reflection was directed on the efficiency of the Division for which he was assuming responsibility.

On 2-25-48 he was listed first on the list of 9 Agents assigned to the Records and Communications Division who were to be considered on a long-range basis as Special Agents in Charge.

RECOMMENDATION: It is recommended that Inspector McGuire be afforded a $299.25 increase to $8478.75 per annum in Grade CAF-14 under the provisions of the Uniform Promotion Act, effective 4-18-48.

Mr. McGuire has been elected Second Vice President of the General Alumni Association of the College of the Holy Cross, Worcester, Massachusetts, where you will recall Mr. McGuire received his A.B. degree.

A few years ago when the Director was scheduled to deliver a Commencement Address there, at the last minute he could not go and Mr. McGuire was designated to deliver the address.

I think this is an outstanding recognition of Mr. McGuire and while he is a little reticent to comply with their request for a photograph and biographical sketch, I am taking care of this personally as he deserves the recognition afforded him by the Alumni of Holy Cross College.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I was, as you know, in attendance at the 48th Annual Conference of the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police at White Plains on July 27, 28 and 29, 1948, and SAC Scheidt of the New York Office is making a full report on the Conference.

I wanted, however, to advise you that the address given to the Conference by Inspector J. J. MC GUIRE was very well handled. Inspector MC GUIRE delivered an excellent talk and made an excellent impression on those in attendance. His assignment was particularly difficult since the Conference for the past several years has been addressed each year by Mr. H. H. CLEGG. His talks are always outstanding, and Mr. MC GUIRE acquitted himself very creditably, and I thought you would want to know about it.

Dear Sir:

I have noted your memorandum of October 8, 1948, explaining why you approved a communication in which the correspondent was referred to a reputable attorney in spite of the fact that the incoming communication clearly indicated that the correspondent was an attorney and counsellor at law and a member of the Florida bar.

Quite obviously you can realize the extreme embarrassment that would have accrued to the Bureau had the communication in question been mailed. Fortunately the error was detected subsequent to your approval.

I want to impress upon you the seriousness of this error and the necessity for avoiding repetition of it. It is essential that all officials of the Bureau exercise extreme care in reviewing outgoing correspondence to make certain that the correspondence has been adequately prepared and shows that appropriate attention was afforded the incoming communication.

Mrs. McGuire called me last evening. She said the doctor had been to see John. He has a temperature of 103 and the doctor stated that he has a virus infection in the throat.

John has not been well for the last couple of weeks; in fact he was out for a couple of days the week before last.

I told Mrs. McGuire to keep him in bed and insist that he take care of himself.

A note is attached.

DECLASSIFIED BY 60309/AUC/TAM/DCG/YMW
ON 05-10-2006

Dear Mr. McGuire:

During the course of the recent inspection of the Records and Communications Division, it was found that Room 5625, which is used by the tour leaders, was in an extremely untidy condition. The walls in the room were very dirty, particularly near the bulletin board and table where the manuals used by the tour leaders are placed. The back of one of the chairs was broken, and the broken part was lying at the bottom of the clothes cabinet. A wooden crate with loose boards on top was found in one corner of the room containing the script and other material relating to the film "House on 92nd Street." This presented a very untidy appearance.

The manuals used by tour leaders, the bound volumes of Law Enforcement Bulletins and the dictionary were dog-eared and worn, and were stacked on a table in a corner of the room in an unrepresentable manner. The bulletin board was so small that various schedules which are necessary for posting had to be placed on the wall beside the bulletin board with scotch tape. Old newspapers from one to five days old were found in the drawers of the tables in this room.

It is reported that at certain seasons of the year, an average of 20 outsiders per day are brought to this room after they have fainted or given indications of fainting, and the unrepresentable condition of the room is therefore entirely inexcusable. The rug also in this room was in a worn condition.

None of the above conditions should have been in existence. You should have been more frequent and more vigorous in your inspections in order to have prevented this undesirable condition discovered by the Inspector. You are to consider this a letter of censure because of the inadequacy of your inspections, and the improper conditions found in this room.

Dear Sir:

Careful consideration has been given to all of the circumstances pertaining to the inclusion in the September, 1949 Issue of the "FBI Law Enforcement Bulletin" of a reprint from a newspaper which contained an item of a nature such as to prove objectionable to certain readers and which has subjected the Bureau to severe criticism and it is noted that you reviewed and approved this issue of the Bulletin before its publication, apparently failing to note the undesirable item therein.

You are considered to have been extremely derelict in this instance and your review and approval of the publication appears to have been purely perfunctory and without meaning. It is expected that hereafter you will review such matters with more care and take whatever precautions are necessary to avoid any repetition of this delinquency. In the event you fail to do this, further administrative action may become necessary.

Very truly yours,

This employee entered on duty as a Special Agent on 10-7-35, in Grade CAF-9, $3200 per annum. He was reallocated to Grade CAF-14, $8179.50 per annum, effective 6-15-47 and as the result of a Uniform Promotion and a basic salary increase his present salary is $8808.75 per annum. He is eligible for a promotion under the provisions of the Uniform Promotion Act effective 10-30-49.

By letter dated 10-11-48 he was censured for approving a communication in which the correspondent was referred to a reputable attorney in spite of the fact that the incoming communication clearly indicated that the correspondent was an attorney and counsellor at law and a member of the Florida Bar. It was pointed out to him the seriousness of this error and the necessity for avoiding a repetition of it.

On 3-31-49 Mr. Nichols rated him EXCELLENT and said he was assigned as the Number 1 Man in the Division of Records and Communications. He was loyal, conscientious and sincere. He did excellent contact work, and had great enthusiasm. He continued to grow and he was considered an excellent employee. Approved: 4-29-49.

By letter dated 10-20-49 he was censured in connection with the inclusion in the September, 1949, Issue of the "FBI Law Enforcement Bulletin" of a reprint from a newspaper which contained an item of a nature such as to prove objectionable to certain readers and which had subjected the Bureau to sincere criticism and it was noted that he reviewed and approved this issue of the Bulletin before its publication apparently failing to note the undesirable item therein. REPLACEMENT OF THE WESTERN UNION TELEMETER
CIRCUIT WITH AN AT&T DIRECT LINE TO WEST COAST OFFERING A SAVINGS TO THE BUREAU AT $12,000 A YEAR

In response to your request for detailed background as to the origination of the suggestion which has culminated in the Bureau's removing telemeter equipment to the West Coast and replacing it with AT&T direct line equipment, I wish to advise that for the past year or more the employees in the Teletype Unit have run into innumerable operating difficulties due primarily to mechanical failure of Western Union telemeter circuits. This became particularly irksome during the heavy Loyalty Program as we were about the last unit in the Bureau to feel the full impact of the Loyalty Program. In February and March of this year garbles were numerous and the explosion point occurred when we received American Red Cross traffic on the telemeter printers.

It was in this period of February and March when Western Union appeared unable to solve our problems that I suggested to Mr. McCoy to take Frances Fentress of the Code Room and have her get a detailed traffic survey of the offices on the telemeter circuit. My motive at the time was to find some solid basis to get rid of the telemeter. Mr. McCoy felt the same way. When this was done I had Mr. McCoy ask Dale Melvin, the long-lines representative of AT&T, if he could give us some rough estimate of the cost for TWX service to the West Coast offices or leased lines. On the basis of the figures compiled by Miss Fentress and Mr. McCoy TWX was out of the question. However, Melvin early in March furnished Mr. McCoy with the complete figures for a leased line circuit. Mr. McCoy then came in to see me pointing out the estimated savings that could be realized and I told him then to go all out with Dale Melvin and to explore this field fully, which Mr. McCoy did.

Our first memo was dated April 29, 1949, on this project; however, our figures were not completed until June at which time after oral discussions with you we got together the memo of June 7 which set out the full details of the proposal.

that can be worked out as a savings for the Bureau and can give more efficient service is part of my job and as such I felt it part of my duty to direct Mr. McCoy, Miss Mooney and Miss Fentress to the type of material needed to have a complete picture before presenting it to you for your approval.

My over-all feeling on this entire project is that Mr. McCoy, Miss Mooney and Miss Fentress should receive the credit. As for myself, I am happy that we were able to get rid of the telemeter setup and its constant headaches it brought to the Bureau.

CRIME RECORDS

L. B. NICHOLS

Mr. Kemper, who has been assigned in the Crime Records Section since September 5, 1946, has a primary responsibility for the preparation of the Law Enforcement Bulletin. In this assignment he has turned in an outstanding performance in improving not only the quality but the content of the Bulletin. The credible thing is that he does this more or less on the side and does not give his full time by any stretch of the imagination to the Bulletin.

He has received Excellent ratings for the past several years. He also does an excellent job on handling special tours, speaking engagements and has handled several writers in a credible manner. On November 12, 1947 he was advised he had been recommended for superior accomplishment award in view of the outstanding manner in which he performed his duties over a period of time. On that occasion he was jumped one step within a grade in salary.

In February of 1948, I pointed out in a memorandum that Kemper should be considered on a long range basis for an SAC. He is willing and industrious and puts in long hours. Thus on August 24, a memorandum was prepared for my signature which recommended that he be reallocated to CAF 13. At that time, I made a notation that Kemper "is outstanding and is always looking for ways to help out."

So far as the Bulletin is concerned, aside from the reprinting of the article from the St. Louis Globe Democrat in the September 1949 issue of the Bulletin wherein the form containing the words "Jewish" has been picked up and given considerable unfavorable publicity to the Bureau, Kemper is guilty of only one other error. In the June 1948 issue of the Law Enforcement Bulletin, the Chief of Police at Brattleboro, Vermont, was referred to as Joseph S. Holliday where in fact it should have been Ralph Holliday. The cover letter from Albany used the word "Joseph." Mr. Kemper was censured for this under date of June 12, 1948.

With reference to the story appearing in the New York Compass. The story on the St. Louis Police Department originally appeared in the rotogravure section of the St. Louis Globe Democrat for April 24,

LBNFdmh

Memorandum for Mr. Tolson

October 17, 1949

1949, referring to a rather unique method in the handling of a rogues gallery. The St. Louis Office by letter was requested to secure the original photograph which it did do. Mr. Kemper reviewed the story as it appeared in the St. Louis Globe Democrat as well as the pictures and since the pictures carried two names at the top of the IBM card and another general appearance form, in order to avoid any criticism, these names were scratched out. Since these forms had been published in St. Louis in a newspaper of wide circulation and in view of the fact that we were reprinting the story in the Law Enforcement Bulletin, a publication of restricted circulation, Mr. Kemper did not feel that the material which now appears to be objectionable should have been deleted.

Not a judgment
In questioning Mr. Kemper, he tells me he recalled the difficulty in connection with the Identification Order but regarded that as something issued to the public and given a wide spread publication and on the other hand this had been published, was a form of the St. Louis Police Department and the Bulletin specifically carried the notation the article was being reprinted. He accordingly thought that there would be no objection. Mr. Kemper tells me he honestly can not say that he questioned the use of the word "Jewish," or that it made any impression on him. It did not register with him or otherwise Mr. Kemper would have brought it to my attention. I do know in days gone by Mr. Kemper has come to me on numerous occasions with questions. In this connection, I have considered Mr. Kemper a very conscientious, loyal and industrious individual.

Let's to Mr. Nichols
McGuire Jones
After the material was prepared, it was reviewed by Mr. Jones and the particular copy was reviewed on two occasions, the first by Messrs. Tracy, Noble for Clegg, Parsons for Harbo, McCabe for Rosen, Fletcher for Ladd and McGuire for me. The material was resubmitted in the galley proof form and the illustration in question was carried as a blueprint. This was approved by Messrs. Parsons for Harbo, McCabe for Rosen, Boswell for Clegg, Winterrowd for Ladd, Fletcher, Meach for Leonard, Mr. Tracy and myself.

CONCLUSION AND RECOMMENDATION

1. Kemper was initially responsible for detecting something that would be objectionable. If it slipped him Mr. Jones is responsible. In the final analysis I should be personally held accountable for this as I have had more experience and certainly I should have sensed the connotation. Actually I glossed over the matter which makes it more inexcusable as far as I am concerned. A separate memorandum is being submitted on Mr. Jones.

This proves the review of approvals are purely perfunctory & mean nothing

Memorandum for Mr. Tolson

October 17, 1949

2. It was recommended that Mr. Kemper be reallocated to CAF 13 on ~~August 24, 1949~~. A memo from the Chief Clerk's Office summarizes this recommendation and is dated October 6, 1949. An official notification was sent through under date of October 13, 1949. I now recommend this reallocation be cancelled and withdrawn. I should have previously recommended this course of action as the New York Compass came out on September 22, 1949. I knew, of course, of Kemper's participation in the preparation of the article and there is no explanation for not having recommended the cancellation of the Grade 13 at an earlier date. — nick made a gross mistake here. 10/18

3. Aside from the two errors above mentioned, Kemper has been a distinct addition to the Crime Records Section. It would be a distinct loss for him to leave the section. He is the type of man who takes matters such as this very seriously. My feeling is he would buckle down and be an even greater asset to us in the future. He has two children and has had considerable difficulty with living quarters for the past year or so. He is now well settled. While under ordinary circumstances the cancellation of the Grade increase would be sufficient punishment for dereliction I am recommending his transfer from the section.

I have gone over this whole matter in detail and in fact this memorandum is dictated in his presence. Mr. Kemper would like to have it made a matter of record that his feelings be recorded, he would not like a transfer but would like to remain in the section and demonstrate his worthiness and the confidence heretofore reposed in him.

I recommend he be continued in the section

ADDENDUM: LBN:dmh 10-17-49

2 yes. 10/18 J.A.

In fairness to Mr. Kemper, he does put in considerable overtime, he is a worker and has been over assigned at times for which I must assume some responsibility. I think this fact should be taken into consideration as a mitigating circumstance.

Since Kemper has received Special Location, thus neglect of Nichols to properly administer his office I will allow Caf 13 to stand. Kemper is to be censured & placed on probation. Jones & all others who reviewed this issue of the Bulletin are to be censured & their derelictions are to be reflected in the next Efficiency Ratings. Kemper is to resign no further increases until his work shows the necessary care & improvement. H.

OFFICE MEMORANDUM . UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO : Mr. Tolson

DATE : December 27, 1949

FROM : L. B. Nichols

SUBJECT:

You will recall we were confronted some time ago with the problem of either adding to our switchboard or cutting out certain lines. We have now completed a survey of the Bureau and the Washington Field Office, and as a result a total of 60 lines have been eliminated. This brings us within the margin of safety.

The elimination of these 60 lines will amount to a savings of $648 a year; however, had we not eliminated the lines additional equipment would have cost several thousand dollars. We now have a reserve of 82 lines for emergencies. Actually, we should always have a reserve of 100 lines to insure no overloading of equipment.

The survey was made by Mr. McCoy and considerable preliminary work was handled by Mr. McGuire. I feel that both of these men have done an outstanding job and should be commended. In addition, they had very fine cooperation from every division in the Bureau.

TO : Mr. Glavin

DATE: January 30, 1950

FROM : H. L. Edwards

SUBJECT: JOHN J. MCGUIRE, JR.
Inspector
Records & Communications Division

RE: UNIFORM PROMOTION

This employee entered on duty as a Special Agent on 10-7-35, in Grade CAF-9, $3200 per annum. He was reallocated to Grade CAF-14, $8179.50 per annum, effective 6-15-47 and as the result of a Uniform Promotion and two basic salary increases his present salary is $9000 per annum. He is being considered for a promotion under the provisions of the Uniform Promotion Act effective 2-5-50. It is noted that he was first eligible for consideration for a promotion on 10-30-49.

By letter dated 10-11-48 he was censured for approving a communication in which the correspondent was referred to a reputable attorney in spite of the fact that the incoming communication clearly indicated that the correspondent was an attorney and counsellor at law and a member of the Florida Bar. It was pointed out to him the seriousness of this error and the necessity for avoiding a repetition of it.

On 3-31-49 Mr. Nichols rated him EXCELLENT and said he was assigned as the Number One Man in the division of Records and Communications. He was loyal, conscientious and sincere. He did excellent contact work, and had great enthusiasm. He continued to grow and he was considered an excellent employee. Approved 4-29-49.

By letter dated 10-20-49 he was censured in connection with the inclusion in the September, 1949, issue of the "FBI Law Enforcement Bulletin" of a reprint from a newspaper which contained an item of a nature such as to prove objectionable to certain readers and which had subjected the Bureau to sincere criticism and it was noted that he reviewed and approved this issue of the Bulletin before its publication apparently failing to note the undesirable item therein. It was pointed out to him that he had been extremely derelict in this instance and his review and approval of the publication appeared to have been purely perfunctory and without meaning, and it was expected that he would review such matters with more care and take whatever precautions are necessary to avoid any repetition of this delinquency in the future.

It is noted that Agent McGuire was considered for a Uniform Promotion on 10-24-49 but in view of the administrative action taken against him within eighteen months he was passed over to be reconsidered in January, 1950.

RECOMMENDATION: It is recommended that he be afforded a Uniform Promotion in Grade GS-14 to $9200 per annum effective 2-5-50.

OFFICE MEMORANDUM * UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO : MR. TOLSON

DATE: 3/8/50

FROM : J. P. MOHR

SUBJECT: FRANK F. MEECH
Special Agent
Crime Statistics Section

Reference is made to the attached memorandum from the Director to Mr. Glavin dated March 6, 1950, in which the Director requested an explanation from Mr. Glavin for the failure of the Administrative Division to send letters of censure to all persons who reviewed the September 1949 issue of the FBI Law Enforcement Bulletin and failed to detect therein objectionable phraseology in a form utilized by the St. Louis Police Department.

Mr. Nichols prepared a memorandum dated October 17, 1949 concerning the improper review of the September 1949 issue of the Law Enforcement Bulletin and Mr. Nichols set forth in his memorandum the various individuals who had reviewed the Bulletin. The Director instructed that all persons who reviewed the Bulletin were to be censured and their derelictions were to be reflected in their next efficiency ratings. It is noted that the September 1949 issue of the Law Enforcement Bulletin was reviewed on two occasions. On the first occasion the following individuals reviewed it: Messrs. S. J. Tracy, C. D. Mobley for Clegg, D. J. Parsons for Harbo, E. J. McCabe for Rosen, H. B. Fletcher for Ladd and J. J. McGuire for Nichols. On the second occasion the material was reviewed in galley proof form by Messrs. Parsons for Harbo, McCabe for Rosen, H. C. Boswell for Clegg, E. H. Winterrowd for Ladd, Fletcher, F. F. Meech for Leonard, Tracy and Nichols. The Administrative Division prepared letters of censure to Messrs. Nichols, McGuire, Jones, Kemper and Meech.

By memorandum dated March 7, 1950, from Mr. H. L. Edwards to Mr. Glavin, Mr. Edwards states that upon telephonic instructions from me to Special Agent Supervisor J. E. Edwards, letters of censure were only sent to the employees in Mr. Nichols Division, including Mr. Nichols, who had the responsibility for preparing or reviewing the Law Enforcement Bulletin in question.

I recall having a conversation with someone in Mr. Glavin's Division at the time the letters of censure were prepared but I cannot state at the present time with any degree of accuracy the substance of the conversation in October 1949. I certainly do not know on what basis I would have countermanded the Director's instructions. It seems to me very clear that the Director was desirous that all who reviewed the September 1949 issue of the Law Enforcement Bulletin be censured. The interpretation of the Director's instructions and in clarification of those instructions I was contacted and the Supervisors were advised that the Director intended that only those Supervisors who had direct responsibility for the particular article in the Law Enforcement Bulletin should be censured.

JPM:DW

This may well be because at the time the September 1949 issue was prepared although it was reviewed in various divisions, each division was only responsible for reviewing the articles which pertained to the work of that division. For instance, if a Laboratory article appeared in the Bulletin, at that time the Crime Statistics Section would not be required to make a critical review and analysis of such an article. In the case at point, the article was one pertaining to a portion of the records system in the St. Louis Police Department and the Crime Statistics Section was normally the section to critically review such an article. In September 1949, the Records and Communications Division was charged with the responsibility of preparing the Law Enforcement Bulletin. Since that time, as you know, there has been established an Editorial Board and the Editorial Board is responsible for reading and reviewing the entire Law Enforcement Bulletin from cover to cover and all those on the Board of course would be fully charged with everything in the Bulletin.

I regret that I may have been responsible for any countermanding of the Director's specific instructions on Mr. Nichols memorandum of October 17, 1949 and I will assume full responsibility for the failure of the Administrative Division to send letters of censure to all individuals who reviewed this particular issue of the Bulletin.

It is too late now to send letters of censure to all of the individuals named and I recommend that the Administrative Division insure that copies of Mr. Nichols memorandum of October 17, 1949 are placed in the personnel files of each of the individuals named.

W.K.V.
MEMORANDUM FOR MR. GLAVIN

Re: Frank F. Meech
Special Agent
Crime Statistics Section

I have reviewed the material submitted in connection with the Excellent efficiency rating afforded Mr. Meech on February 3, 1950 by Mr. Nichols in spite of the fact that Mr. Meech was sent a letter of censure on October 20, 1949 for his improper review of the September 1949 issue of the FBI Law Enforcement Bulletin. There are two aspects to this affair which I would like to call to your specific attention.

I have been advised that Mr. Meech's efficiency rating of Excellent was received in the Administrative Division and was inadvertently referred to the IBM Section for the preparation of a notice to Mr. Meech of his Excellent rating and the notice in fact went to Mr. Meech on February 15, 1950. The IBM Section made no notation on the efficiency report that the notice had been sent to Mr. Meech. Subsequently on February 28, 1950, Mr. H. L. Edwards in a memorandum to you called attention to the letter of censure to Mr. Meech and recommended that Mr. Meech's efficiency rating be reduced from Excellent to Very Good. I have today addressed a communication to Mr. Nichols advising him that I am approving this recommendation and instructing Mr. Nichols to afford greater care in the preparation of efficiency ratings in the future.

I desire that you immediately determine the facts surrounding the improper handling of Mr. Meech's efficiency rating. The previous notice that was sent to Mr. Meech advising him of the Excellent rating should be recalled and he should be furnished with a proper notice of his rating of Very Good. I wish to be advised when this has been done.

I also note that Mr. Nichols prepared a memorandum dated October 17, 1949 concerning the improper review of the September 1949 issue of the FBI Law Enforcement Bulletin. Mr. Nichols set forth in his memorandum the various individuals who had reviewed the Bulletin and I instructed that Mr. Kemper was to be censured and placed on probation and that all others who reviewed the September issue of the Bulletin were to be censured and their dereliction was to be reflected in their next efficiency rating. It appears, however, that my instructions were disregarded and letters of censure were only sent to Messrs. Nichols, McGuire, Jones, Kemper, and Meech in spite of the fact that numerous other Bureau officials reviewed that issue of the Bulletin.

Mr. McGuire in the past year has grown in stature. He is industrious, conscientious and is very enthusiastic. He has done, generally speaking, an excellent job. He expends himself to better serve the Bureau's interests.

Of course, like all the rest of us, he does let things get by on some occasions. During the past year he was censured, among numerous other Bureau officials, for passing the September, 1949 Law Enforcement Bulletin, however, on the other hand he has been commended for several outstanding jobs and I think that these more than override points for which he was censured and, accordingly, I rate him as excellent.

Mr. Nichols has submitted a 1950 annual efficiency report on Mr. McGuire rating the latter as EXCELLENT. In the attached narrative comments it was pointed out that "like all the rest of us" McGuire does let things get by on some occasions and during the past year he was censured among numerous other Bureau officials for approving the September, 1949 issue of the Law Enforcement Bulletin. (This issue contained a reproduction of a physical description form utilized by a police department which form contained the word "Jewish" in the racial origin list.)

Mr. Nichols noted that on the other hand Mr. McGuire has been commended for several outstanding jobs, he is industrious, conscientious, very enthusiastic and generally speaking has done an excellent job. The Assistant Director felt that these points more than overrode the item for which he was censured and accordingly Mr. McGuire was rated as EXCELLENT.

His personnel file reflects that on October 7, 1949 McGuire was commended for his services in connection with the re-training session of the National Academy Associates. On November 9, 1949 he was commended for his contribution to the study and installation of a new communications system to the West Coast which would serve the Bureau with greater efficiency and effect a substantial monetary saving and on January 6, 1950 he was commended for his work in connection with a survey of the telephone system of the Bureau and the Washington Field Office which resulted in a saving to the Bureau.

RECOMMENDATION

It is recommended that no change be made in the EXCELLENT rating afforded Mr. McGuire.

On July 5, 1949 a letter was sent by the Bureau to Sergeant Walter M. Owen of the San Diego (California) County Sheriff's Office, a graduate of the 41st Session of the National Academy, advising him that his notebook had been selected as one of the most outstanding of the class and congratulating him. This letter erroneously referred to Sgt. Owen as being attached to the San Diego Police Department instead of the Sheriff's Office and in his address, 1772 Chalcedony street, San Diego, the name of the street was misspelled.

On March 16, 1950 the San Diego Office advised that Sgt. Owen had called to the attention of that division the error in the Bureau letter to him and since he was maintaining the letter in a cellophane cover inside his notebook, he said he would greatly appreciate having it corrected. The original letter was returned to the Bureau and a corrected letter has been forwarded to San Diego for delivery to Sgt. Owen.

INQUIRY REGARDING ERRORS IN ORIGINAL LETTER

From the initials appearing on the file copy of the letter it appears that it was dictated by SA William Newman who was formerly assigned to the Records and Communications Division and is presently in the St. Louis Office. It was also approved by Mr. J. J. McGuire. The letter was transcribed and typed by Stenographer Marion M. Battin who is now assigned to the Albuquerque Office.

The Records and Communications Division has advised that the letters such as that addressed to Sgt. Owen regarding the graduates' notebooks are usually prepared as a result of a memorandum submitted by the Training and Inspection Division; however, it has been impossible to locate the memorandum pertinent to this inquiry. Mr. Rogers of the Training Division advised the Records and Communications Division that it is his recollection that such memoranda were always prepared on pink and therefore would not have been preserved.

RECOMMENDATION OF RECORDS AND COMMUNICATIONS DIVISION

Mr. L. A. Jones has pointed out that at this time it would appear to be most difficult to fix responsibility for the errors in the letter of July 5, 1949 inasmuch as it cannot be determined whether the memorandum on which the letter was predicated contained correct information. Mr. Jones recommended that no further action be taken and Mr. Nichols concurred in this recommendation.

RECOMMENDATION OF ADMINISTRATIVE DIVISION

It is recommended that letters be directed to Mr. Nichols and Mr. Clegg to call attention to the necessity of taking every precaution to avoid errors such as this.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. McGUIRE

Your explanation of the delay in acknowledging the telegram on November 6 from Mr. C. Lyn Fox, Political Editor, Call-Bulletin, San Francisco, California, is entirely unsatisfactory.

It should have been obvious when the extra copy of the incoming telegram was received in your office at 1:16 P. M. that an answer should be prepared on the same day, particularly in view of the fact that the inquiry pertained to a matter involved in the election campaign which was concluded last night. It should have taken but a very few moments to prepare the acknowledgment to the telegram in view of the fact that previous telegrams from California and Tennessee had been answered and no problem was involved in the preparation of the reply.

With respect to the explanation that it is not customary to take action other than on the original communication, it would have been a very simple matter to have prepared the reply based upon the carbon copy and then to have inquired as to the whereabouts of the original telegram.

The delay in preparing the reply to this telegram is extremely embarrassing and I must insist that appropriate steps be taken in your office to more expeditiously handle matters of this kind in the future.

Disregarding the unsatisfactory explanation with respect to preparing the reply on the basis of the copy of the telegram in question, it is noted that the original telegram was received in your office at 6:08 P. M. and the reply was not dispatched until 8:30 P. M. Upon the receipt of the original telegram at 6:08 P. M., if the matter had not been previously handled, you should have personally dictated a reply and arranged for it to be carried through to Mr. Tolson's office, where it should have been received a few minutes after six o'clock. to me that the difficulty in this matter arises from the fact that an important telegram of this nature, instead of being handled by you personally, was sent to Mr. Jones, who did not consider it his responsibility to answer the telegram and, in turn, forwarded it to Mr. Suttler for the preparation of the reply. I frankly do not know just what type of incoming telegram either you or Mr. Jones would personally handle, in view of your failure to handle the one in question.

SUBJECT: SURVEY OF MR. NICHOLS' OFFICE 0*Division Four*

In connection with Life Magazine making pictures of Raid, Moot Court Scenes, etc. in the Denver Office beginning 9-25-50, the Director questioned why he did not get the memorandum re SAC Kramer's call to Mr. Nichols on the 22nd until September 26. The Director pointed out if he had been told of this Saturday the 23rd we might have wanted to send someone from here to assist Kramer. The memorandum was dictated by Mr. Nichols, Saturday, September 23, but was not transcribed until the 26th. The Director requested that Mr. Clegg or someone look into Mr. Nichols' setup. Mr. J. A. Carlson has checked the administrative setup, procedures, and stenographic situation in Mr. Nichols' Office.

ADMINISTRATIVE SETUP

L.B. ✓ Mr. John J. McGuire and Mr. Frank C. Holloman are assigned to Mr. Nichols' Office as his assistants. Mr. McGuire has over-all supervision of Crime Records, Statistical and Communications and Mail Dispatch Sections. Mr. Holloman has over-all supervision of Administrative and Personnel Records Section. They both handle and initial outgoing mail for Mr. Nichols, routing to him only the mail believed necessary for him to see. They likewise review incoming communications and other material pertaining to their respective sections.

Mr. McGuire follows closely the various units in the Communications Section - Telephone, Teletype, Radio, Mail Room, Code Room, Outside Messenger Service and Tours. This requires considerable time to properly handle. In addition, he handles a large volume of press inquiries and related matters.

Mr. Holloman also handles numerous press inquiries when Mr. Nichols and Mr. McGuire are either tied up on calls or are engaged in other matters. Mr. Holloman likewise makes numerous file checks for Mr. Nichols on matters that must be handled expeditiously within a short period of time.

Mr. Nichols handles a large volume of matters which he feels, or Bureau policy requires, should be handled personally by him involving public relation matters in general, including press inquiries and contacts,

JAC:MJD
(46100)
Attachments

Congressional matters, references from the Director's Office, review of special material, special contacts, inquiries, as well as calls to and from SAC's. He likewise handles a considerable volume of work that possibly could be assigned to others if they had adequate experience and time to handle.

For the purpose of analyzing the type and volume of work in Mr. Nichols' Office, a log was maintained by Messrs. Nichols, McGuire and Holloman for a 3-day period, October 9, 12 and 13. It is to be recognized, of course, that the volume of work here is variable and the 3 days selected by no means represent a top peak load of the office. It was not intended to show in this log the purpose of each item listed or necessarily the length of time consumed in handling. A summarization showing the average daily workload over the 3-day period is set forth:

MR. NICHOLS

51 telephone calls
14 interviews or conferences
4 dictation periods per day
41 outgoing communications
365 pages of additional material reviewed

MR. MCGUIRE

77 telephone calls
19 interviews or conferences
2 dictation periods per day
91 outgoing communications
228 pieces additional material reviewed
Inspection and check of communication facilities

MR. HOLLOMAN

18 telephone calls
8 interviews or conferences
3 dictation periods daily
5½ hours daily reviewing outgoing and other material

Attached hereto are the following: Analysis of the logs, Exhibit A; Mr. Nichols' logs, Exhibit B; Mr. McGuire's logs, Exhibit C; and Mr. Holloman's logs, Exhibit D.

The present setup does not provide for replacements during absences from the headquarters city on speaking engagements, other official assignments, or sick or annual leave. This means that the already over-crowded workload normally handled by these three is absorbed by the remaining one or two as the case may be. Mr. Nichols himself handles more than is physically desirable because of this situation.

STENOGRAPHIC SITUATION

There are presently assigned to Mr. Nichols' Office four stenographers. One of these is on late duty each night until 7:30 or later if necessary for which compensatory leave is granted. One is on Saturday duty for which compensatory leave is likewise granted. At the time of dictation, the dictator indicates to the stenographer if the matter is expedite and should be transcribed immediately or at least the same day as dictated. Expedite matters are therefore transcribed the day of dictation unless the dictation is given late in the afternoon and transcription the following morning is believed sufficient. If emergencies arise requiring additional stenographic assistance, stenographers are obtained from some section within the division.

GENERAL POLICY

Mr. Nichols points out that it is believed unnecessary, undesirable, and impractical to prepare memoranda on all outside telephone calls. He endeavors to prepare memoranda on all matters which should be brought to the attention of the Director or made a matter of record. Those of an expedite nature are prepared immediately. In numerous instances he orally brings matters to the attention of the Director or Mr. Tolson. He does this when the matter is of an expedite nature or would be of particular interest to them. Mr. Nichols advises that he felt the telephone call from SAC Kramer concerning the Life Magazine matter was not of such nature to require expedite handling or he would have had the memorandum out September 22 or would have orally advised the Director. In this respect, Mr. Nichols sincerely endeavors to keep the Director advised of all matters which should be brought to his attention.

CONCLUSIONS

1. The stenographic situation is satisfactory particularly since stenographers from other sections in the division are available in emergencies to handle expedite matters.
2. It is believed that the workload at the administrative level justifies additional personnel.
3. The Director was not advised earlier of the Life Magazine matter because Mr. Nichols was of the opinion at that time that expedite handling was unnecessary.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That an experienced Supervisor presently assigned to the Records and Communications Division be assigned some of the duties within Mr. Nichols' Office, and serve on the desk of Mr. Holloman or Mr. McGuire during their absence or when the absence of Mr. Nichols requires Mr. McGuire or Mr. Holloman to handle his work.
2. Messrs. Nichols, McGuire and Holloman should insure that everything of an expedite nature is transcribed and transmitted the same day or if dictated late in the day it should be transcribed immediately on the following working day if this is believed adequately expeditious.

Mr. Nichols concurs with the above conclusions and recommendations.

File 2/6

At 10:12 this a.m. Agent Garner on duty at the New York Office called Mr. Holloman and advised that Mrs. McGuire, the mother of Inspector McGuire, had called the New York Office at 8:30 this morning and advised that last night John had called her shortly after 11:00 p.m. and stated he would be out shortly. As he was en route to Buffalo and Cleveland, the New York office, thinking Mr. McGuire might have gone on to Buffalo, checked with the Buffalo office and after checking hotels reported there was no trace of him. Mr. Holloman called me at once. I called him back as I was out in the woods with a big brush fire.

I then called John's home and Mrs. McGuire told me John had stated he was not going out to his mother's until he had arranged his transportation to Buffalo. Obviously she had not heard from him since he left Washington and I didn't tell her the purpose of my call as I didn't want to unduly alarm her.

I then talked to Mr. Garner in the New York Office at 10:41 a.m. and asked him to check at once on the trains leaving New York last night for Buffalo. He reported back that the Lehigh Valley train left New York City at 11:45 p.m. and was due in Buffalo at 10:45 a.m. and the Lackawanna had a train which left New York City at 1:05 a.m. and was due in Buffalo at noon. I felt certain that Mr. McGuire probably had decided to go on to Buffalo and had either sent his mother a telegram or had a Red Cap call her and she had failed to receive the message. I decided to await further action until the trains had gotten in.

At 12:15 noon SAC Maynor called me and stated they had checked the hotels and the 10:45 train had gotten in but no trace of Mr. McGuire.

I then asked Agent Garner to check back with John's mother as she may have misunderstood him. Garner reported back that Mrs. McGuire was very alert and said John had called a little after 11 p.m. and said it was snowing out and she inquired if he had his rubbers. He did not but told her he would be out shortly either by subway or taxicab, whereupon Mrs. McGuire fixed up the bed for him but when he did not arrive, she became most worried and called the office at 8:30 a.m.

At 1:50 p.m. SAC Maynor called back from Buffalo and said the Lackawanna train had gotten in at 12:40 p.m. and they had rechecked the hotels and no trace of Mr. McGuire. Maynor, of course, stated he did not know McGuire was coming to Buffalo and I told him he was on a little trip and planned to stop off as he wanted to see Bishop McNamara.

On the outside chance Mr. McGuire had gotten into Buffalo and contacted Dave Sowers, I called him at 2 p.m. stating I was trying to locate John and thought he may have gotten up there early. Dave stated he hadn't heard from him but was glad he was coming as he, Dave, had written the Director earlier in the week. I told him I didn't know about this.

In the meantime the New York Office had checked the hotels in the vicinity of the Pennsylvania Railroad Station with negative results. By this time I had become most apprehensive for John's well-being and called you and I then talked to the Director. The Director instructed that we now make a vigorous and thorough check of hospitals, the morgue, and the police. I called Garner in the New York Office and also talked to SAC Scheidt. Scheidt had kept in touch with this all day, was also concerned, and personally went to the office to supervise the search.

In the meantime I had secured a detailed physical description of John from his personnel file and I didn't feel I could keep this from Mrs. McGuire, his wife, any longer. She was, of course, concerned as she could not reconcile John's staying any other place but with his mother.

SAC Scheidt called me around 3:40 p.m. and advised that the Agents were in the office and had their assignments but before contacting the police, called John's mother who stated that John had arrived, and Mr. McGuire talked to Agent Garner briefly stating he was catching a 4 o'clock train.

I immediately called his mother in New York City and she stated that John had just left, that he had been delayed by the snow, that he had gone to the Grand Central Station to get his ticket, the place was stampeded, he was drowsy, and sat down and fell asleep. When he awoke he got a ticket on the train that leaves at 4 p.m. Sunday for Buffalo and then, since it was so late, he went to a small hotel, the name of which she could not recall, but which she believed was on 32nd or 33rd Streets, spent the night, and then came out to see her. I asked her if he was all right and she said he was but was very tired. I asked why he hadn't called her to tell her why he wasn't coming out. She stated she did not know.

After advising the Director of the developments, I called SAC Maynor and Mrs. McGuire, his wife, and advised them that John had spent the night in a hotel.

SAC Scheidt advised me shortly thereafter that Agent Charles Donlan had just called him stating that he had called on John's mother. She was in a bathrobe and told Donlan she was very tired and was going to bed. She told Donlan John had only been there for a few minutes, that he was quite tired, but was O.K. She indicated to Donlan that John had stayed with one of his aunts and also stated she was very sorry that she had caused us any trouble.

In this connection John's wife told me Sunday when I first told her of John's disappearance and again when I told her he had been located, that John's mother does not always listen too well and is known not to pay attention to what is said to her. Mr. Glavin has told me the same thing and it is entirely possible that she misunderstood John's conversation with her.

I approved Mr. McGuire leaving here Saturday evening and in fact, when he was discussing going to Buffalo with me, I told him to go on over the weekend and stop off and see his mother in New York. He signed out properly when he left Washington, giving his train and reservations to New York City.

TOUR ROOMS

Mr. Nease made a survey of the space for the Director's Office and contiguous space and determined that there were two tour rooms contiguous to the space assigned to the Director's Office, namely Rooms 5627 and 5625. Room 5627, which is the office nearest to the Director's Office space, is a room where the head tour leader has his office and Room 5625 adjoins it and this room contains a large table and chairs and is the room where the tour leaders wait when necessary between tours.

You asked me to check and determine why it was necessary for the head tour leader to have an office and how much time the tour leaders spent between tours in Room 5625.

I checked into this matter this morning and determined that there were no tour leaders on duty in the tour room other than Don English, the head tour leader who is in Grade GS-7, the assistant head tour leader, Herbert Lampe, who is in Grade GS-5, and Miss Nabel Burdette, a Grade GS-3 typist. Mr. English stated that on Saturday mornings he and Mr. Lampe go over all exhibits in the exhibit rooms, dust them, check the lights, see that they are arranged properly and in other words see that the exhibit rooms are orderly and neat for the following week of tours. It is during this period also on Saturdays generally that the Cartographic Section comes over to repair or replace any exhibits which may have been damaged during the previous week. Regular tours are only conducted Monday through Friday and the regular tours commence at 9:30 a.m. and no tours are taken after 4:30 p.m. in the afternoon. Regular tours are scheduled for each half hour. A tour lasts between 1 hour and 15 minutes and 1 hour and 30 minutes.

16 FEB 27 1951

Mr. English in his office maintains a schedule for the tour leaders and has them broken down into four groups. There are four to six regular tour leaders in each of the four groups. Different groups are called to report for tour duty on different days.

When a particular group of four to six tour leaders are designated for tours on a particular day, they report to the tour room at 9:00 a.m. in the morning. These regularly assigned tour leaders remain in the tour room to conduct tours until 4:15 in the afternoon and they then return to their respective positions whether this be in the Files Section or some other part of the Bureau. Most of the tour leaders, however, come from the Files Section. Occasionally other tour leaders are called during the day to assist the regularly assigned group.

I checked the tour assignments for the week commencing January 29, 1951 through February 2, 1951. The following is a tabulation which will reflect the activity in the tour room during this week:

| | Total Tours | Regular Tours | Special Tours | Regularly Assigned Tour Leaders | Extra Tour Leaders |
|--------------------|----------------|------------------|------------------|---------------------------------------|-----------------------|
| Monday, 1/29/51 | 15 | 13 | 2 | 6 | 3 |
| Tuesday, 1/30/51 | 21 | 17 | 4 | 9 | 0 |
| Wednesday, 1/31/51 | 14 | 12 | 2 | 6 | 1 |
| Thursday, 2/1/51 | 13 | 12 | 1 | 4 | 3 |
| Friday, 2/2/51 | 14 | 13 | 1 | 6 | 2 |

In reviewing the foregoing, it should be noted that on Tuesday, January 30, there were 21 tours. However, six of the tours consisted of 135 Clerks who were handled by six tour leaders. These tours last for two hours and at the completion of the tour the clerical employees are introduced to the Director and are then returned to their classroom.

The procedure followed in the tour room is that at 9:15 a.m. one of the tour leaders is assigned to the door to the exhibit room where the people arriving for tours wait until the tour is assembled. The first tour leader on the door in the morning takes the first tour around the Bureau at 9:30 a.m. When one man leaves the door another man takes up his post and then he will take the next tour which is assembled, which may be around 10:00 o'clock in the morning. In the meantime, the remaining tour leaders are in Room 5625 waiting for their call to duty. While waiting they study their manuals and review the interesting case write-ups, check over their lecture notes and revise their speeches so that the speeches will not become "canned." Of course, if special tours or scheduled groups arrive during the morning, then a tour leader is assigned to take the scheduled group or the special tour, whichever it might be.

It should be pointed out that the slack period on tours is from November through February and part of March and that we are now experiencing the slack period on tours. From a review of the activity in the tour room at the present time, it is obvious that it is not necessary to keep four or six tour leaders on tap to take care of special tours as they may arise, which apparently is the reason for having that number on hand at all times. I am convinced that the tour room can operate very efficiently at the present time starting in the morning with two tour leaders, one to go on the door at 9:15 a.m. and the other one to stand by to take over at 9:30 a.m. and also in case a special tour arrives during that period of time. I feel certain that the tour room could be efficiently operated by having the other tour leaders return to their regular duties and be on call as they are needed.

When a tour leader completes his tour, he returns to Room 5625 and waits until his next tour. Taking the first man in the morning who goes out with the 9:30 group, he would arrive back in the tour room around 10:45 or 11:00 a.m. Generally he arranges to go to lunch between 11:15 a.m. and 11:30, returning sometime between 12:00 and 12:30. Normally he would go out on a tour around 1:00 o'clock and then he would be free from 2:15 or 2:30 except that at the present time they keep him waiting in Room 5625 to take care of any special tours that might come up. All tour leaders who are not out on tours return to their regular assignments at 4:15 p.m. in the afternoon.

As I have indicated, I think it is quite clear that we have had too many tour leaders standing by waiting for special tours and the like when they could go to their respective jobs and be on call since it is only a matter of approximately five minutes for a man to leave his job and come down to the tour room and take care of a tour. The men could be advised in advance that they are being scheduled for such stand-by duty and could come to work dressed for such duty and their assignments could be scheduled so there would be a minimum amount of interference if they were taken off of a particular job.

Mr. Don English, who is in Grade GS-7, is the head tour leader and his duties consist of training new tour leaders and it is to be noted that a class of eleven new tour leaders is to convene on Monday, February 5, 1951. It is necessary that there be some tour training at all times in order that a reserve of tour leaders will be available for the heavy tour season which extends from the middle of March through October. During the peak season the latter part of March through June, there are as many as 250 tours per day. The training period for tour leaders lasts for three weeks. The first week is spent in the classroom, which is Room 5625. The second week is spent on the floor in the exhibit rooms where the prospective tour leaders describe various exhibits and discuss their interesting cases. The third week is spent in the actual conducting of tours. Mr. English also monitors the tours, he arranges the tour schedules, particularly the heavy spring schedule which is coming up soon, inspects and cleans the exhibit rooms, maintains liaison with the Cartographic Section for needed repairs, painting and the like, he lectures to new employees regarding tours for their families and he introduces the new employees to Mr. Hoover when they enter on duty. He also arranges tours, assigns tour leaders, prepares memoranda on special tours, the efficiency of tour leaders, the progress the tour leaders make during training and the like. He also prepares a monthly and yearly statistical report of tour room activities.

Mr. Herbert Lampe in Grade GS-5 acts as assistant to the head tour leader. He generally functions as an arranger for tours, he calls extra tour leaders when needed, he assigns the tour leaders to the specific tours, he handles the introductions of special guests when they desire to see the Director, he handles the introduction of the tour groups to the tour leader and generally gives the introductory remarks to the special tour groups and the like. Mr. Lampe generally does everything that the head tour leader does except train new tour leaders. He also acts in the absence of Mr. English.

My observation this morning indicates that from the number of tours presently being conducted there is no need for Mr. Lampe acting as assistant head tour leader at the present time. I think he could be given regular assignments in the Files Section and if he was needed in the tour room at the time that Mr. English was out to lunch or was absent from the building or in the process of training a new tour class, then he can be called down to the tour room. Otherwise he can be utilized on regularly assigned duties in the Records Section.

Miss Mabel Burdette, a Grade GS-3 typist, is assigned to the tour room office, which is Room 5627. This young lady answers the phone, she makes tour appointments, she keeps the place clean, she writes tour memoranda, maintains statistics on tours, she handles females who faint during a tour or otherwise become sick until a nurse can arrive from the Health Service, she keeps the appointment schedule, she prepares memoranda from rough drafts made by Mr. English on the progress of the tour leaders and any difficulties they may have and while I was there this morning she was busily engaged typing up memoranda. Mr. English advised me that Miss Burdette usually spends all day on Saturday working in the Records Section. However, this morning she had some memoranda to prepare and for that reason she was not in the Records Section. He stated, however, that as soon as the memoranda were finished she would report to the Records Section sometime this afternoon. I told Mr. English under no circumstances should she be kept down there on Saturday unless some emergency occurs.

Room 5627 - This is the room directly adjacent to the Director's Office. At the present time this room is not essential or necessary for the proper functioning of tours in the Bureau because this is the slack season on tours. There are three desks in this room, one for Mr. English, one for Mr. Lampe and one for Miss Burdette. There are two telephone lines in this room with three telephone instruments. The room contains file cabinets, a supply cabinet, a fingerprinting stand and a sofa. In this room individuals on tours who desire to be fingerprinted are fingerprinted. There are four or five such persons per day. Also some clerical applicants are fingerprinted here once or twice per week. It also serves as a reception office. When individuals faint or otherwise become sick on tours, they are promptly brought to this room and are permitted to lie down or sit on the sofa until a nurse with a wheelchair can arrive from the Health Service which is located on the fourth floor. Sickness of persons on tours occurs quite frequently, particularly during the heavy tour season which will begin the middle of March. During the winter months people on tours leave in this room their winter clothing such as their hats, overcoats and the like. During the rush season and the warmer season of the year on rainy days, the room is literally stacked with raincoats, umbrellas and other wearing apparel of people who are on tours. As I have indicated, there is no question that the tour room could dispense with this room at the present time but I do believe that during the height of the tour season, which will begin the middle of March, that this room as well as the adjoining room, 5625, will be needed by the tour leaders.

Room 5625 - This is used as a classroom and as a waiting room between tours by the tour leaders. The tour leaders go in here to smoke and rest between tours and to review their manuals, interesting case writeups and the like. I think that this room is absolutely essential during the height of the tour season because if the tour room handles 250 tours a day, obviously there will be anywhere from 70 to 90 tour leaders and this number of tour leaders would have to have a room where they could wait between tours. It would not be practical or feasible for them to stand around in the exhibit rooms waiting for their next tour.

I have discussed this matter with Mr. McGuire and he has stated that he feels the tour room could function as I have indicated with possibly two tour leaders in the morning with the rest of the tour leaders handling their regularly assigned duties and being on call as needed. He also stated at the present time during the slack period, of course, they could well dispense with Room 5627 but the room would be essential during the height of the tour season, which will begin in the middle of March 1951.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. I recommend that the tour room immediately institute the practice of having only two tour leaders on duty the first thing in the morning and that the rest of the tour leaders who are to be utilized on a particular day report to their regularly assigned jobs and stand by on an "on call" basis to be called down to the tour room for tour assignments as they are needed. This may occasion a few minutes delay in having a tour leader immediately available for a special tour but I do not think anyone would object to waiting five minutes for a tour leader. In the meantime Mr. English could well take care of the special group until the tour leader does arrive. There are so few special tours at the present time that Mr. English most certainly could take care of this particular duty. If he happened to be handling a training class of tour leaders he most certainly could step out for five to ten minutes to take care of this assignment.

2. It is recommended that Mr. Herbert Lampe, the assistant head tour leader, during the slack tour season not be regularly assigned to the tour room but that he be given a regular assignment in the Records Section and that he remain in this particular assignment except when his services may be needed from time to time to assist Mr. English or to take Mr. English's place when he is absent from the office.

3. It is recommended that Miss Mabel Burdette, the typist, not be utilized in the tour room on Saturdays and that she be assigned to regularly prescribed duties on Saturdays in the Records Section. Any memoranda she has to prepare can be handled during the regular week, Monday through Friday.

4. In the event the Director's Office is in need of additional space, I recommend that the Director's Office take over Room 5627 and that Mr. English's office and equipment be moved to Room 5625, which he can use as his office and as a class room during the slack period on tours from November until the middle of March. During the height of the tour season if waiting room space is needed for tour leaders, it is suggested they find some waiting room space in the lobby or some other place on the sixth floor where the tour leaders can be called as they are needed.

In the event you agree with the recommendations set forth above, there is attached an appropriate memorandum to Mr. Nichols advising him accordingly.

Reference is made to the attached memorandum dated December 22, 1950, from Mr. H. L. Edwards to Mr. Glavin, which recommends that Special Agent Gerald C. Gearty of the Training and Inspection Division be reallocated to Grade GS-14, $8800 per annum in view of the fact that Mr. Gearty is performing inspection duties in the Training and Inspection Division.

You inquired concerning how many Inspectors we have at the present time with their grade and salaries and their assignments. The following individuals carry the rating of Inspector and they are all in Grade GS-14:

|------------------|-------------------------------------|
| A. H. Belmont | Security Division |
| N. P. Callahan | Administrative Division |
| G. C. Callan | Investigative Division |
| J. A. Carlson | Training and Inspection Division |

Of the foregoing, Messrs. Carlson, Long and Naughten are engaged in full-time inspection duties. Mr. Connelley also conducts some field inspections when he is not on special assignment. Mr. Harbo has also assisted the Training Division during the past calendar year in conducting some inspections.

Messrs. B. C. Brown and G. C. Gearty, both of whom are presently in Grade GS-13, are doing the same type of inspection work in the Training and Inspection Division as Messrs. Long and Carlson. As indicated in the attached memorandum, Mr. Gearty has now qualified as a full-time field Inspector and I feel he should be reallocated to Grade GS-14 at this time. The only other individual who will eventually qualify for promotion to this grade for inspection work is Mr. B. C. Brown and the Training and Inspection Division is presently giving consideration to his promotion in the near future after an opportunity has been given to review his most recent field inspection.

It will be observed, therefore, that the only two employees who will be involved in such a promotion program are Messrs. G. C. Gearty and B. C. Brown. Under the circumstances, I recommend that Mr. Gearty, who has now qualified as a full-time field Inspector, be reallocated at this time to Grade GS-14, $8800 per annum.

I am not going to approve any more of the individuals to be given such a grade are willing & desirable of traveling & willing to accept full business of Inspectors. OFFICE MEMORANDUM . UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO : MR. TOLSON

DATE: November 7, 1950

FROM : L. P. NICHOLS

SUBJECT:

Reference is made to the telegram to the Director dated November 6, 1950, from Mr. C. Lyn Fox, Political Editor, Call Bulletin, San Francisco, California, regarding the campaign of Helen Gahagan Douglas and Robert Nixon, and to the Director's reply dated November 6, to which the Director appended the notation "I want to know why this wire was not sent out until 8:30 p. m., November 6."

The incoming telegram was received in the Bureau at 12:38 pm, November 6, and was routed to the Director's office where it was received at 12:58 pm. It was not received in Mr. Tolson's office until 1:57 pm, November 6, and thereafter was routed to Mr. Ladd's office where it was received at 5:10 pm. It was then sent by routing slip from Mr. Ladd's office to my office where it was received at 6:00 pm. As the duplicate copy had been received in the Crime Records Section when the original came in to my office, W.J. Mr. McGuire sent it to Mr. Jones by special messenger so that the reply could be noted on the original and be sent out at once. Mr. Jones states it was received in his office by special messenger at approximately 6:30 pm and was given to Mr. Suttler for reply. Mr. McGuire checked with Suttler shortly after 7:00 pm and told him exactly what should be in the reply. As you and the Director had gone when the reply came up Mr. McGuire personally took it into the teletype room and saw that it was dispatched at 8:30 pm.

In the preparation of the reply Mr. Suttler experienced a few minutes delay putting his hand on a copy of the appropriate testimony of the Director in which the letter mentioned the Bureau policy with regard to the legislation. Four phone calls, one of several minutes duration, were handled by Mr. Suttler while he was working on this particular matter.

JLN:JH

ADDENDUM, 11-7-50, JLN:mcq

The duplicate copy of Mr. Fox's wire was received in my office at 1:16 P.M. on November 6. When Mr. McGuire returned from lunch he had two lengthy interviews, one with Mr. Robert Touke and one with Father McPhearson of the Father Baker Home, Lockport, New York. The duplicate copy was sent to the Crime Records Section where it was received at 5:15 P.M. A check was thereafter made to ascertain whether action had been taken on the basis of the original which did not arrive in my office until 6:08 P.M. The Bureau rules require acknowledgments be based on original communications. I distinctly recall being asked if the original had come in here and since it had not a check was being made to see where it the original was. I did not feel it appropriate to by-pass the standard practice of taking action on originals but followed this matter to make sure that action was taken before the end of the day. We could have made an exception in this instance but I think it is a dangerous practice to start acknowledging wires on the basis of duplicate copies.

Mr. McGuire called me from Buffalo at 8:00 o'clock this morning. Although he was to have gotten in at 11:43 o'clock last night his train was late and he did not get there until 1:30 this morning.

He stated that on Saturday night, February 3, 1951, it was snowing when he arrived in New York. He called his mother and told her he was going to Buffalo and that he hoped to see her before leaving New York but was going to check on transportation. Mr. McGuire specifically states that he did not tell his mother he would be out there shortly and he does not understand how she arrived at this conclusion.

He stated that he went to Grand Central Station and was told that no trains were leaving New York. He did not check on the Lackawanna train which left at 7:05 a.m. Sunday morning but merely checked with the New York Central. He stated that he checked his baggage and when he was told that there might be a train leaving at 6:00 o'clock Sunday morning, one at noon and one at 4:00 o'clock yesterday, he bought a coach ticket and thought he would wait at the station a little while to see if he could get any more definite information. He stated he was tired and he went to sleep sitting in the station and did not awaken until 9:00 Sunday morning. At that point he felt so stupidly silly that he walked out to get a bite to eat and went to the Shelton Hotel. He laid down at the Shelton Hotel and again went to sleep and did not awaken until in the afternoon. He then was concerned and went out to his mother's. He stated that his mother told him that she had called the office to see if the office had heard from him and that his mother was somewhat concerned about him. He stated that as he was getting ready to leave his mother's to catch the 4:00 o'clock train the office called and his mother told the office he was there at the time and he talked to the Agent on duty and the Agent asked no questions but merely asked if he was alright. He said he was and that he was catching the 4:00 o'clock train. The New York Office, of course, immediately advised me of this and I talked to his mother as set forth in my other memorandum detailing the events.

LBN:gs

Memorandum for Mr. Tolson from Mr. Nichols
February 5, 1951

He stated he did not know the New York Office had called the Bureau or that the New York Office had called Buffalo, and that he did not know of their concern for him. I told him that when he left here he told me that he would be at his mother's Saturday night and that he should have advised us where he was. He stated that, of course, he should have but that he sat down at the station to wait a little while in order to get more definite information and went to sleep. I asked him why he did not advise the Bureau that he was contemplating taking the 4:00 o'clock train and he stated he should have but he just felt that it was unnecessary. He stated that he should have used his own judgment and flown from New York City to Buffalo but his wife had asked him not to fly. Mr. McGuire stated that the whole incident was stupidly silly and he should have communicated with the Bureau and should have called his mother. I asked him if there were any other facts and he promised me this was the whole truth.

In reconstructing this whole incident I have come to the conclusion there were two factors involved.

In the first instance Mr. McGuire's mother is getting old. I think she misunderstood Mr. McGuire when he called her. His wife has told me that his mother does not pay too much attention to what is said to her. As a matter of fact, Mrs. McGuire called John's mother right after I had called her and Mrs. Nichols went over to Mr. McGuire's house and Mrs. Nichols told me that Mrs. McGuire had difficulty in getting any information from John's mother. Mrs. McGuire also told me afterwards that she came to the conclusion that John's mother did not tell John of her concern or the concern of the Bureau. This, of course, does not excuse Mr. McGuire for not notifying the Bureau of his travel movements.

My second conclusion is that Mr. McGuire probably was punch drunk with fatigue. His wife has been ill with virus pneumonia and ~~that~~ since this occurred John, since early in January, has been sleeping on the davenport and ^{she} has had to take medicine around the clock every three hours and he gets up to help her. She also stated that when he gets home from the office he does the house work. The children have been ill and he has taken care of them and he has not gotten his rest. John, of course, is the type who does not complain. He has said nothing to me other than the fact that his wife did have virus pneumonia. On a couple of occasions I have asked him if he shouldn't take a day or two off to take care of the family and he stated everything was under control. I do not think that his wife even knew how tired he was.

Memorandum for Mr. Tolson from Mr. Nichols
February 5, 1951

She told me when he left Saturday he was in good spirits and was highly elated that the Bureau was sending him on a special assignment.

During the month of January Mr. McGuire put in a total of 36 hours and 35 minutes overtime for an average of 1 hour and 31 minutes per day.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. Mr. McGuire had a physical on March 23, 1950. I recommend upon his return to Washington he be sent out to the Naval Hospital for another physical.

2. In view of Mr. McGuire's flagrant violation of the strict Bureau rule of keeping the Bureau advised of his movements, that a severe letter of censure be directed to him and that he be placed on probation.

9 recommend letter of censure

215 2 I concur. He is the most inexplicable lack of intelligence & particularly in part of a ranking official. He cost the Bureau time, money & man-power trying to find him while he blandly slept on & then even when he barged off Bureau's concern he didn't have enough interest to contact us.

Dear Sir:

My attention has been called to the recent most embarrassing situation which occurred during the past weekend in connection with your special assignment to the Buffalo Division.

Most certainly you utilized extremely poor judgment in failing to keep the Bureau advised of your activities and the changes in your itinerary, with the result that considerable manpower was expended in endeavoring to locate you. Even when you were advised of the Bureau's concern with respect to your whereabouts, you did not exercise sufficient interest and initiative to communicate with the Bureau.

As I have indicated, this entire situation was most embarrassing, particularly for a ranking official of the Bureau. I do not want a recurrence of such an incident in the future.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. TOLSON

Inspector J. J. McGuire called to see me this morning to express his regrets over the incident in New York City last Sunday when the Bureau was unable to contact him from midnight Saturday until mid-afternoon Sunday. I expressed to him my displeasure at his failure to keep the Bureau properly advised of his whereabouts and the extremely poor judgment which he exercised in going to sleep in the Grand Central Station and then later going to sleep in the lobby of the Shelton Hotel. I pointed out that the Buffalo and New York Offices and the Headquarters at Washington on Sunday were put to a great deal of trouble, time, and expense in trying to find out what had happened to him, and I considered the situation which had developed through his carelessness and poor judgment was entirely inexcusable. Mr. McGuire expressed deep regret for the incident.

Dear Mr. McGuire:

The Bureau is in receipt of the report of the physical examination afforded you at the United States Naval Hospital, Bethesda, Maryland, on February 9, 1951.

This report reflects that you have slight limitation of motion in the region of your lower spine; however, the x-ray examination afforded you in this connection revealed no evidence of bone or joint disease.

For your further information, the electrocardiogram afforded you was found to be normal.

The Board of Examining Physicians of the United States Naval Hospital reports that you are capable of performing strenuous physical exertion and have no physical defects that would interfere with your participation in raids or other work involving the practical use of firearms.

In connection with the incorrect salutation appearing in a letter recently directed to Mrs. Emily Smith Stewart of Salt Lake City, Utah, it appears that you approved this communication without discovering the mistake and having it corrected. It is obvious that you did not adequately review this letter before approving it, and you are considered to have been at fault in this instance.

This matter was handled in a definitely unsatisfactory manner, and it is essential that you take the necessary precautions to avoid mistakes of this nature in the future. Should you fail to do this, further administrative action may become necessary.

NARRATIVE COMMENTS

Note The regulations require that OUTSTANDING ratings be supported by a statement in writing setting forth IN DETAIL the performance IN EVERY ASPECT and the REASONS for considering each worthy of SPECIAL COMMENDATION. UNSATISFACTORY ratings must be supported by a statement in writing stating (1) WHEREIN the performance is unsatisfactory, (2) the facts of the (90 day) PRIOR WARNING, and (3) the efforts made AFTER THE WARNING TO HELP the employee bring his performance up to a satisfactory level.

JOHN J. MCGUIRE, INSPECTOR
GS-14, $9,200
Assigned Assistant Director
Division Records and Communications

Mr. McGuire is unusually conscientious, industrious, and loyal. He is always willing to do more than is expected of him. He has excellent capabilities. He is above average in intelligence, has a thorough background of the Bureau's work.

There are times when McGuire taxes his energy to capacity which he must constantly safeguard against. I feel this was the basic reason for the chief incident which occurred during the past rating period when he failed to advise his headquarters of his travel commitments.

Aside from this incident, I consider Mr. McGuire an excellent employee.

PERFORMANCE RATING GUIDE FOR INVESTIGATIVE PERSONNEL

(For use as attachment to Performance Rating Form No. FD-185)

Name of Employee JOHN J. McGUIRE, JR.Title INSPECTORRating Period: from 4-1-50 to 3-31-51

RATING GUIDE AND CHECK-LIST

Note: Only those items having pertinent bearing on employee's performance should be rated. All employees in same salary grade should be compared. Rate items as follows:

- + Outstanding (exceeding excellent and deserving special commendation).
✓ Satisfactory (ranging from good to excellent but not sufficient to rate outstanding).
- Unsatisfactory.
0 No opportunity to appraise performance during rating period.

Guide for determining adjective rating:

An 'Outstanding' rating cannot be justified unless all elements rated are 'plus', and in addition, of course, supporting comments must comply with the requirements as set out below.

So far as 'Satisfactory' and 'Unsatisfactory' ratings are concerned, it is impossible to provide a mechanical formula for computing the various 'plus', 'check', and 'minus' marks because such would presume equal weight for all elements rated. Good judgment must be exercised to insure that the adjective rating is reasonable in the light of the elements rated. All minus marks must be supported by narrative detail, and of course, all 'Unsatisfactory' ratings must comply with the requirements as set out below.

- ✓ (1) Personal appearance.
+ (2) Personality and effectiveness of his personal contacts.
+ (3) Attitude (including dependability, cooperativeness, loyalty, enthusiasm, amenability and willingness to equitably share work load).
✓ (4) Physical fitness (including health, energy, stamina).
+ (5) Resourcefulness and ingenuity.
+ (6) Forcefulness and aggressiveness as required.
+ (7) Judgment, including common sense, ability to arrive at proper conclusions; ability to define objectives.
+ (8) Initiative and the taking of appropriate action on own responsibility.
+ (9) Planning ability and its application to the work.
+ (10) Accuracy and attention to pertinent detail.
+ (11) Industry, including energetic consistent application to duties.
+ (12) Productivity, including amount of acceptable work produced and rate of progress on or completion of assignments. Also consider adherence to deadlines unless failure to meet is attributable to causes beyond employee's control.
+ (13) Knowledge of duties, instructions, rules and regulations, including readiness of comprehension and 'know how' of application.
+ (14) Technical or mechanical skills.
- (15) Investigative ability and results:
 - (a) Internal security cases
 - (b) Criminal or general investigative cases
 - (c) Fugitive cases
 - (d) Applicant cases
 - (e) Accounting cases
- (16) Physical surveillance ability.

- + (17) Firearms ability.
+ (18) Development of informants and sources of information.
+ (19) Reporting ability:
 - (a) Investigative reports
 - (b) Summary reports
 - (c) Memos, letters, wires
 (Consider: - conciseness; - clarity; - organization; - thoroughness; - accuracy; - adequacy and pertinency of leads; - administrative detail.)
- (20) Performance as a witness.
+ (21) Executive ability:
 - (a) Leadership
 - (b) Ability to handle personnel
 - (c) Planning
 - (d) Making decisions
 - (e) Assignment of work
 - (f) Training subordinates
 - (g) Devising procedures
 - (h) Emotional stability
 - (i) Promoting high morale
 - (j) Getting results
- (22) Ability on raids and dangerous assignments:
 - (a) As leader
 - (b) As participant
+ (23) Organizational interest, such as making of suggestions for improvement.
+ (24) Ability to work under pressure.
+ (25) Miscellaneous. Specify and rate:

A. Specify general nature of assignment during most of rating period (such as security, criminal, applicant squad, or as resident Agent, supervisor, instructor, etc.): Supervisory

Dear John:

I am gratified at the numerous enthusiastic reports which I have had on the successful affair yesterday morning.

I realize that you devoted considerable energy in planning for the event and, although you had the enthusiastic support of the various members of your committee, I am certain that the success of the occasion is attributable to your own foresight. I did want to tell you how happy
I was to learn of the splendid manner in which you handled the occasion.

With best wishes and kind regards,

Sincerely,

[John W. Newman]

SAC Newman, Salt Lake City, called today and stated that on April 5, 1951, we had written a letter to Mrs. Emily Smith Stewart, 1902 Yale Avenue, Salt Lake City, Utah, the daughter of George Albert Smith, late President of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, who died on April 4. This letter was a letter of condolence.

Mrs. Stewart has telephonically contacted SAC Newman and advised in a humorous vein that the Director had addressed her as Mrs. Smith rather than Mrs. Stewart in his letter of April 5, 1951. SAC Newman stated that Mrs. Stewart was not being critical but her call was entirely in a humorous vein.

SAC Newman advised that Mrs. Stewart had received letters from practically all of the outstanding men in America including the President, Governor Dewey, Senators, Congressmen and others and that she is taking a great deal of pride in the collection of letters. SAC Newman stated that he was afraid that she might have called this error to the attention of other people or might call it to their attention in the future in connection with this collection of letters. He thought that we should send her a correct letter to be substituted for the one that was originally sent in order that a correct letter could be included in her collection.

A letter to SAC Newman enclosing a corrected letter to Mrs. Stewart is attached.

It is noted that the letter to Mrs. Stewart was dictated by SA Supervisor R. B. Carter of the Crime Records Section and was typed by Miss M. C. Qualls. Memorandums of explanation from these employees together with a memorandum from Mr. Jones, Chief of the Crime Records Section, are attached.

Mrs. Louise D. Walter of the Reading Room recalls the letter but has no explanation for overlooking the salutation.

It is noted that the phraseology of the letter was changed by Miss Gandy in the Director's office who sent the letter to Mrs. Martha McClanahan, who retyped the letter.

There appears to be no explanation for the fact that the incorrect salutation was not caught and specific instructions have been issued that there must be no recurrence of such oversights and that extreme care must be exercised in matters of this kind.

Dear John:

I was very much disturbed to learn that the flu bug had caught up with you, particularly at such a crucial period in your home. Thus, I was very greatly relieved and happy to hear the great news this morning of the arrival of the little girl.

I do wish for Mrs. McGuire and you the fulfillment of all your fondest expectations and I hope that all of you will soon be together enjoying good health.

You should take as much time as necessary to fully recover as having either the flu or a new baby is strain enough without having a combination of both.

With all good wishes,

Sincerely,

TO : Mr. Ladd
 FROM : A. Rosen
 SUBJECT: WALREU

DATE: December 6, 1951

Call: 3:30 p.m.

SAC Robey of the Detroit Division advised that as a result of telephone calls this afternoon from the Detroit Times and the Detroit News, he had learned that [redacted] principal suspect in the Walreu case, together with his [redacted] was being tried today in a city court before Judge Murphy in connection with their alleged attempt to bribe certain employees at the Detroit Stove Company in connection with their fight to avoid a union in that plant.

Robey said that [redacted] and [redacted] had been represented in the local trial by [redacted] an outstanding criminal lawyer in Detroit, who has represented a number of hoodlums. During the course of his summing up the case, [redacted] claimed that [redacted] had been the subject of FBI persecution and made the statement that in October, 1951, four FBI men had visited [redacted] cottage near Comins, Michigan, and interviewed [redacted] also known as [redacted] claimed that the Agents had offered [redacted] $50,000 if the latter would testify that [redacted] had told him that [redacted] shot Walter Reuther. [redacted] claimed this was an example of FBI persecution of [redacted] and his family.

[redacted] said that the files of the Detroit Division reflect that [redacted] has been interviewed on three occasions. On March 28, 1950, he was interviewed in the [redacted] case by two Agents, this incident apparently having nothing to do with the above allegations. On October 11, 1951, he was interviewed in the Walreu case by Special Agent [redacted] and Special Agent [redacted] the latter being presently assigned to the Honolulu Division. The last-named Agents again interviewed [redacted] on October 24, 1951, in connection with the same case.

Special Agent [redacted] has advised that no offer of $50,000 was made to [redacted] and that the allegations of [redacted] are entirely without foundation in fact. The Agents did tell [redacted] however, that if the latter could furnish information resulting in the solution of the Walreu case he would be eligible for any rewards offered in that case, although it was not indicated that the FBI had any connection with any such rewards.

Memorandum for Mr. Ladd

SAC Robey requested advice as to the action to be taken in this situation in view of the press inquiries he had received concerning it.

ACTION:

Mr. Robey was advised that the exact statements made by [redacted] in court should be obtained, after which he should be interviewed and made to put up or shut up. If he claimed that [redacted] gave the story to him, [redacted] should be interviewed in order that the story could be run down and completely disproved. He was also instructed to secure a signed statement from Special Agent [redacted] regarding the entire situation, which should be immediately submitted to the Bureau together with the results of the inquiries directed above.

Mr. Robey was transferred to Mr. McGuire in the Crime Records Section with regard to the press inquiries being received in this matter.

TYPOGRAPHICAL ERROR IN LETTER TO MR. R. KEITH CARTER

[Handwritten signature]
Under date of August 23, 1951, a letter was directed to Mr. R. Keith Carter in acknowledgment of his letter of August 17. A typographical error appeared in the first line of the Bureau's letter as follows: "I received you very gracious letter...."

The following facts are submitted concerning the mishandling of this letter:

MARTHA A. DALE

EOD 8-9-48

GS-3 #2810

Assigned - Crime Records Section

Miss Dale typed the letter to Mr. Carter and made the error as noted above and submitted it to her supervisor, Mr. Robert F. X. O'Keefe. She has no explanation for making this typographical error and overlooking it in proofreading. It was her responsibility to prepare the letter properly and submit it to Mr. O'Keefe in a correct form, which responsibility she failed to discharge. The principal responsibility for this error rests with Miss Dale.

ROBERT F. X. O'KEEFE

EOD 2-2-48

Assigned - Crime Records Section

Mr. O'Keefe dictated the letter to Mr. Carter to Miss Dale and approved it as being correct. He failed to observe the typographical error. Mr. O'Keefe has the assignment of the preparation of correspondence in the Crime Records Section and it is his responsibility to see that all letters submitted for the Director's signature are correct and in proper form. He failed to properly discharge his responsibility by approving a letter which was not typographically correct. He has no logical explanation for his failure in this instance.

Re: Typographical error in letter to September 5, 1951

M. A. JONES
EOD 2/16/38

Assigned - Crime Records Section

Mr. Jones is Chief of the Crime Records Section and has the responsibility of supervision over all activities in this Section. This letter was submitted to him by Mr. O'Keefe for approval and Mr. Jones failed to detect the typographical error as noted above. It is Mr. Jones' responsibility to submit such letters for the Director's signature in correct and proper form which he failed to do in this instance. He has no logical explanation for this.

JOHN J. McGUIRE
EOD 10-7-35

Assigned - Mr. Nichols' Office

Mr. McGuire is the Number One man in the Records and Communications Division and as such has the responsibility of approving for no correspondence for the Director's signature. This responsibility entails his insuring that all correspondence is in correct and proper form. In this instance, Mr. McGuire failed to detect the typographical error as noted above and has no explanation to offer for his failure to discharge this responsibility.

C. L. TROTTER
EOD 3-22-34

Mr. Trotter in this instance had the assignment of reading mail for the Associate Director and insuring that such mail, prior to its submission to the Director for signature, was correct and in proper form. In this instance, Mr. Trotter failed to discharge his responsibilities as he did not detect the typographical error that has been noted above. Mr. Trotter has no excuse to offer for this.

MARJORIE L. ARMSTRONG
EOD 10/22/42

Assigned - Reading Room

Marjorie L. Armstrong is assigned to the Reading Room and in this capacity has the responsibility of proofreading mail to insure that it is correct as to form. One of her responsibilities is to detect typographical errors which she failed to do in this instance. Miss Armstrong has no explanation.

Memoranda submitted by each of the above are attached.

ACTION RECOMMENDED:

MARTHA A. DALE

The principal responsibility for this error was that of Miss Dale and it is recommended that she be censured, placed on probation and reduced in salary from Grade GS-3, $2810 to GS-2.

It is noted that on November 27, 1950, it was recommended that Miss Dale be passed over for a Uniform Promotion Act increase because of numerous errors occasioned by her failure to properly proofread her work. At that time, she was making more errors than any other stenographer in the Crime Records Section.

On February 2, 1950, she received a letter of censure for failure to make a passing grade on the semiannual typing and shorthand examinations.

On February 13, 1950, Miss Dale received an efficiency report of fair, chiefly because of mistakes in correspondence typed by her.

On June 1, 1950, she received a rating of Good on a special efficiency report at which time it was noted she was still making mistakes but had made an improvement.

Mr. Jones has advised that Miss Dale has continued to experience mistakes in her work principally because of failure to properly proofread her work.

Memo to Mr. Telson from Mr. Nichols
